... Let's Go

By LARRY MACARAY

Tomorrow is the day. It has been a long time getting here . . . but better late than never. Part of my travel group and I will depart from Los Angeles International Airport at 5:30 p.m. by Western Airlines for San Francisco. At San Francisco we will meet another part of my group and we will all depart by BOAC for Honolulu.

Part of the group has already gone to Honolulu. They have been enjoying the sun and beaches there for a few days prior to our Japanese invasion. This Around-the-World tour will surely spoil me with all of its first-class appointments . . . being a Hilton Holidays tour, we will naturally stop only at Hilton Hotels. I'm sure the accommodations won't be bad!

There are 18 happy travelers in the group. Some are from Florida, some from New York, some from Pennsylvania and the rest from California. Most of them are experienced travelers, having been to Europe, South America, and other points of interest before. Am very happy to have a former student of mine, Dorothy McLaughlin, coming along on the tour. She is the only person on the tour from Torrance and I know she is going to have an exciting trip.

JACK NELSON, a teaching colleague of mine from El Camino College, has given me a letter of introduction to Yuji Abe, owner and director of the Yoseido Gallery in Tokyo. He says that it is the finest art gallery in Tokyo. Abe is a very good friend of Nelson, so I am excited about being shown some of Japan's newest and most creative art works.

George Kawahara, a recent student of mine, has just returned from Tokyo and he reports great art activity in the galleries. He brought back a catalog of the Bridge-stone Gallery that has one of the finest collection of French Impressionist painters. Paintings by Degas, Renoir, Toulouse-Lautrec, Van Gogh, and others that I have never seen reproduced anywhere . . . at least there has never been any publicity about them, that I know of. Gardena Dodge Dealer Cuts Car Prices 10%

GARDENA—A huge price reduction of 10% on every new 1965 DODGE was announced today by Mr. Tom Roady, owner of Tom Roady Dodge, Inc., 16611 S. Vermont, Gardena.

The announcement followed closely the signing of the bill affecting the 3% Federal Excise Tax Cut by President of the United States L. B. Johnson.

All buyers may take advantage of this 10% reduction, regardless of the model, color or accessories on any new Dodge in stock at Tom Roady Dodge. Simply pick your Dodge—then knock off 10%—it's that easy.

Complete Availability
Mr. Peter De Luca, general manager of Tom Roady Dodge, gave newsmen a hint of the complete inventory now available at the 10% cut by saying that nearly all models are in stock, including Darts, Polaras and Coronets. All Dodges are available in most body styles, coupes, sedans, hardtops, convertibles and wagons. The color selection is large and most are equipped to suit every need. All have been reduced 10%.

This weekend is truly an unusual opportunity to purchase that Dodge from Tom Roady, DeLuca stressed.

(P.S.) Suggestion . . . set aside this newspaper right now . . . and hurry on over to TOM ROADY DODGE, 16611 S. VERMONT, Gardena or call DA 3-9911 right now for further information.

Senior Scouts Off to Roundup

Senior Girl Scouts from this area chosen to represent Angeles Council at the triennial Roundup this summer at Farragut, Idaho, are busily brushing up on camping skills. Preparing for two weeks of camping on the shores of Lake Pend Oreille are Jacqueline Bonawitz, Sandra Bramon, Leonette M. Dowden, and Sandra Pietz of Torrance Patrol 24. Deborah Sue Lifton, Nancy Preston and Janice Thompson will represent Torrance Patrol 25. The girls will be part of the 9,000 Girl Scouts from every U. S. state and territory and 150 Girl Guides from 45 countries who will set up a tent city on the lake shore from July 15 to 28. Each of the girls is also taking a supply of small potlatch gifts which will tell the story of this area or Southern California. And, of course, each girl will bring back such hand made gifts from other states and some of the 45 countries to be represented at the Roundup. This is a 1965 revival of an old custom of the Northwest Coastal Indians for whom the potlatch ceremony was once the basis for all social life. Besides learning much about the Northwest during their visit, the girls will have an opportunity to join in forum discussions on nine afternoons of the Roundup, all based on the general theme, "Girl Scouting, A Promise in Action."
