Thrifty Has Tickets For July 4 Fireworks

Tickets for the 33rd annual American Legion Fireworks Spectacular, to be presented July 4 in the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, are now on sale at Thrifty Drug Stores throughout the area, according to Manny Borun, Thrifty vice president.

"A Salute to Art Linkletter," is the theme of the giant fireworks show, and in paying tribute to the TV and radio star, the sponsoring Los Angeles County Council of the American Legion promises the biggest and best Independence Day celebration in the event's history.

In addition to the fireworks display, there will be a Junior All-Star baseball game with champion teams from Southern California and

Washington. The 13- and 14-year-old athletes really put on a show. "Thrill-O-Rama," a spectacular auto daredevil show, will precede the fireworks display and will feature thrilling, death-defying feats by world famous stunt stars.

A PRIZE DRAWING for a 1965 Ford Mustang will be conducted during the fun-filled evening.

An American Legion spokesman pointed out that this traditional Independence Day celebration is fun from start to finish, but it's much more than just that. It is a community "togetherness" salute to the great men and women who sacrificed so much for our nation. A "lest we forget" reminder for our youth, as well as adults, that our Independence and Freedom are our greatest heritages.

Hospital Cites Nurse Shortage

A critical need for registered nurses in the delivery room and obstetrics has been announced by Torrance Memorial Hospital. The shortage is most acute from 3 to 11 p.m.

Torrance Memorial, a non-profit community hospital, offers an opportunity for registered nurses who are retired or haven't worked for some time to return to their profession and at the same time be of service to their community.

Unity Lesson Topic Selected

"Growing as Christians" will be the topic for Sunday's lesson at the Unity Church of Christianity.

Family worship services will be held at 10:50 a.m. in the Waleria Park Building, 3855 W. 242nd St., and Sunday School classes will be held during the same hour.
