CHP Names Benefits of Officer Post

"Young men seeking opportunities which offer solid opportunity for advancement, generous salaries, an excellent retirement program and other benefits should consider the California Highway Patrol," according to E. L. Greer, commander of the Patrol's South Los Angeles area. Applications are now being accepted for the position of state traffic officer, but only a few days remain before the filing deadline of July 23. Application blanks may be obtained from the local CHP office, 18220 South Broadway. Eligible men are those between 21 and 31 who are high school graduates or the equivalent, in good health with no disabling defects, between 5 feet 9 and 6 feet 6, have normal vision and hearing, and have been California residents at least one year. "In addition to the many personal benefits, the Highway Patrol offers men a chance to become associated with an occupation that is both personally rewarding and extremely important to the welfare of society as a whole," the local commander said.

During your summer vacation, guard against over exposure in the sun and, adds the Greater Los Angeles Chapter of the National Safety Council, always remember that you can burn as badly on hazy rays as in brilliant sunshine.

Housewife Needs PR Staff

Do you know what's wrong with being a housewife? (Aside from about 2,000 other things.) All of the work sounds dull. Which isn't surprising, because it IS dull. Consider, though, that many occupations—in government, sports, the theater—sound more interesting because their doings are covered by the press.

Supposing that the daily routine of a housewife was accorded the same treatment, wouldn't her life appear less drab? For example:

"Plumbers were rushed to the Daley home yesterday to fix a stopped-up pipe in the kitchen sink which may have forestalled a disaster comparable to the Johnstown Flood of 1906."

"Authorities speculated that, since one of the Daley children was reported to have thrown apricot pits down the drain, this might have caused the stoppage."

"Arriving on the scene later, Mr. Daley, co-owner of the home, conferred with officials to ask them if there were any damages. 'About $28.50, sir,' was the reply."

"Mrs. A. Daley today admitted that her casserole, 'Heavenly Ham Bake,' was actually another disguise for the left-over ham she had been serving for three days running. The ruse was uncovered by the clever detective work of her family who became suspicious that this was not a new dish, despite Mrs. Daley's attempts to masquerade the ham under a lumpy cream sauce and a layer of thick pie crust. Charges were dropped after she promised never to serve it again."

"Several relics were re-claimed for posterity today when an expedition probed Mrs. Daley's mending basket and unearthed a couple of pairs of her husband's socks, long missing, which undoubtedly date back to the Pre-Acrilan period and certainly before the stretch socks age."

"A new supermarket obstacle course record was set today when Mrs. Daley completed her shopping at the Pay-More Market in 45 minutes, 32 seconds, three minutes faster than her old mark. "Clever cart-handling, plus the fact that she did not leave her list at home, contributed materially to her success."

"I was also able to pry loose the grocery carts in less time than it usually takes," Mrs. Daley explained. "I guess it was because they weren't welded together." She was fortunate in choosing the right check-stand line in that her checker was NOT headed for lunch."

Doctors Quit Smoking

CHICAGO — According to a University of Chicago National Opinion Research Center survey, 52% of American doctors do not smoke. Many quit recently due, according to the Anti-Tobacco Center of America, to the conclusive evidence linking cigarettes and lung cancer.

Many doctors gave up smoking without the use of will power thanks to a new tablet which helps to progressively eliminate the need for nicotine and, as a result, the desire to smoke. Thanks to this tablet, 88,648 heavy smokers have already stopped smoking.

Smokers interested in receiving information (free) about this new tablet are invited to contact directly the Anti-Tobacco Center of America, Dept. 108-J-1, 366 Fifth Avenue, New York 1, New York.

It is sufficient to send your name and address. Just a post-card will do.
