

'With This Ring, I Thee Wed'

Houston - Kazan

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kazan have added their names to the list of June newly-marrieds and are now living in Baldwin Hills, following a northern California honeymoon. Mrs. Kazan is the former Anne Houston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dana B. Houston, 1750 W. 245th St., Lomita. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Kazan of Los Angeles.

The wedding was solemnized at 8 p.m. on June 26 at the Palos Verdes Neighborhood Church with Dr. Albert King officiating.

Mr. Houston escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a sheath gown of embroidered organza fashioned with a chapel train. A large organza bow held her illusion veil and she carried white roses, gardenias and lilies-of-the-valley.

In yellow empire sheaths and carrying white daisies her attendants were Miss Jo Croft, maid of honor; Mrs. Lorraine Kazan and Miss Stephanie Kazan, bridesmaids.

Best man duties were performed by Steven Shoop and ushers were Edward Houston, George Johnson and Warren Herz.

Misses Kathy Stephenson and Karen McFadden registered the guests. A church reception was held.

The bride is a Torrance High and El Camino College graduate.

Her husband was graduated from El Camino in 1964 and now attends Los Angeles State College.

Actor Will Speak at Club Meet

John French, actor, producer, playwright, will be the speaker at the Palos Verdes Christian Women's Club luncheon on Tuesday, July 13, at the Plush Horse Restaurant at noon.

French is well known for his portrayal of Robin Hood in the Walt Disney film, "Robin Hood."

Sharing the program will be a member of the Redondo Beach Fire Department, who will give a demonstration on the latest life-saving techniques. There will be special music. Reservations should be made with Mrs. William Sanders.

Social Dance Class Opens

A beginning social dance class is open now for registration at the Torrance YWCA, 2320 W. Carson St., scheduled to start Thursday, July 15. Roger Blowers, instructor, will teach all the fundamental steps in the beginning dance session, 7 to 8 p.m. The intermediate dance class reviews the basic steps and includes advanced instruction in Latin American dances, rumba and tango.

Both beginning and intermediate classes have one hour of supervised practice between 8 and 9 p.m. with the intermediate class instruction following from 9 to 10 p.m.

The class for adults is for men and women, with special attention given to reluctant husbands. Torrance YWCA may be called for registration and information.

Porters Host DA Council Holds Installation

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Porter entertained at a patio barbecue on the afternoon of July 4 at their home, 1026 Elm.

Games and music were enjoyed as well as a radio report of the Dodger game. Mr. Porter then served a barbecue dinner.

Enjoying the holiday together were Messrs. and Mrs. Paul Litchner, Gardena; Merle Menges, Orange; Elmer Graham, Long Beach; Ray Huelett, Long Beach; Randall E. Doerschel, Los Angeles; Richard Huelett, Long Beach.

Others were Mrs. Ruth Doerschel of Los Angeles, Stephen and Walter Graham, Long Beach; Clayton and Leslie Ray Huelett, Long Beach, and Holly Huelett, San Pedro.

Worden - Mazarovich

In a late afternoon wedding at the Wayfarers Chapel in Portuguese Bend on May 29, Miss Pam Worden exchanged her marriage vows with Sam Mazarovich. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Ware, 2812 Danaha St., Torrance, and Mr. J. L. Worden of Garden Grove.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Flint, 3024 Newton Ave., Torrance, and Mr. Marco Mazarovich, 24431 Winlock Dr., Torrance.

Mr. Worden escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a Chantilly lace gown fashioned with a portrait neckline, ornamented with rhinestones, long pointed sleeves and a bouffant floor-length skirt. Her full illusion veil was held by a flat pearl headpiece and she carried a bouquet of orchids, gardenias and carnations.

Attired in ice blue chiffon gowns and carrying blue carnations, the bridal attendants were Mrs. Pamela Luna, matron of honor; Caylon White, Robin Flint and Linda Redding, bridesmaids. Cindy Ware was her sister's flower girl.

Jerry Oreskovich stood as best man and ushers were Eddie Storti, Mike Worden and Jack Oreskovich.

Rev. Robert Young officiated at the vow exchange.

A reception and dinner followed at the Ware home, where Laura Oreskovich, Susan Flint, Diane Spondello and Vicki Richardson registered the 250 guests.

The bridal couple spent a honeymoon in Las Vegas and are now living at 23816 Ocean Ave., Apt. A, Torrance.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Mazarovich are South High School graduates. She is employed at Dependable Escrow Service Inc., and he at the Pacific Maritime Assn.

Stull - Carlsen

Honeymooning in the Bahamas and Florida are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carlsen, who were married June 12 in a one o'clock ceremony at the Holy Trinity Church in San Pedro. Mrs. Carlsen is the former Diane Kay Stull, daughter of Mrs. Laurence Casey, 2503 Martha St., Torrance, and Major Donald Stull of South Carolina.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carlsen of San Pedro.

Escorted to the altar by Mr. Laurence Casey, the bride wore a gown of lace and peau de soie which she had made. It was fashioned with a lace bodice, with bell sleeves, and a bell skirt of the peau de soie fell into a chapel train. Her nine-foot mantilla of Italian lace was sprinkled with pearls and she carried white roses and ivy.

In aqua chiffon gowns, made by the bride, her attendants were Ellen Planch, maid of honor; Geraldine Carlsen, Patricia Carlsen, Virginia Rodgers and Mrs. Nancy Cruson, bridesmaids. Gabriel Urrutia was best man and ushers were Michael Carlsen, Wayne Cruson, Stacy Picassia and Donald Stull.

Rev. John Barry officiated at the marriage and Mrs. Anita Garcia was soloist.

The 200 guests attended a reception at the Golden Hill restaurant and were registered by Miss Linda Carlsen. A dance was held in the evening at the Hawthorne American Legion hall.

The bride was graduated from Washington High and Harbor College where she majored in art. She was also president of the Delta Sigma Epsilon sorority.

Her husband was graduated from San Pedro High, Harbor College and Long Beach State, as an accounting major. At Harbor, he was president of the Phi Rho Theta fraternity.

Moore - Rue

St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church in Lomita was the setting for the mid-morning wedding ceremony uniting Miss Suzanne Marie Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Allen Moore, 3318 Primm Way, Torrance, and Lt. Michael Jay Rue of the United States Air Force, San Pedro. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. E. Rue of Reedsburg, Wis.

As the 250 guests assembled, Mrs. Dorothy Crotty, organist, played a medley of nuptial music and accompanied Mrs. Connie Smith, soloist.

The bride came to the altar on the arm of her father. Her Mori-Lee original wedding gown was of silk bombazine, fashioned with a Chantilly lace bodice with long pointed sleeves. The bouffant skirt, edged in lace, was caught up in the front with a rose. The back of the gown fell into a three tiered chapel train. A pearl princess tiara held the silk illusion veil and she carried a crescent of white glameillas.

Mrs. Lynne Erspamer served as her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Kathleen Moore, Rita Reed, Patricia Bloom and Patricia Bacher. All wore blue organza over taffeta and carried blue feathered carnations. Mary Lee Darrieulat, in white trimmed with blue, was flower girl and Joseph Darrieulat was ring bearer.

Allen Rue stood as his brother's best man. Ushers were Lt. George E. Harrick, Lt. Gerry Preis, Jr., David Reed and Walter Bacon.

Rev. John V. Hegarty officiated at the marriage, which was followed by a reception at the Torrance-Lomita Realtors Hall. Miss Madelyn Tatum was in charge of the bride's book.

After a two weeks honeymoon in northern California, the couple will be at home in San Pedro.

Mrs. Rue is a graduate of Marymount High school and her husband is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin.

Craig - Albaugh

On the arm of her grandfather, Mr. Gerald Strom, Sandra Jean Craig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Craig of Kewanee, Ill., walked down the aisle of the Wayfarers Chapel in Portuguese Bend recently to exchange marriage vows with Terry Lee Albaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis T. Albaugh, 1120 W. 223rd St., Torrance.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of white organza over taffeta. Pearls and sequins decorated the fitted bodice, which had a scalloped neckline and long lace sleeves. The full skirt fell into a chapel train. The six-tiered illusion veil was secured by a lace and pearl headpiece and the bride carried a bouquet of white Dutch iris and blue delphinium.

Miss Donna Haakenson of Milwaukee, Wis. was the maid of honor and Miss Carole Benson, also of Milwaukee was the bridesmaid. They were gowned in blue and carried white chrysanthemums and blue delphinium.

Dan Agnew of Torrance stood as best man and ushers were Roger Myrow, John Sibley and Ray Burleson.

Rev. Robert Loring Young officiated at the marriage, which was followed by a reception in the recreation room at 22505 Ocean Ave., Torrance. Mrs. Kathleen Christopher registered the guests.

The newlyweds spent a honeymoon at Yosemite National Park and are presently at home at 22505 Ocean Ave.

The bride is a graduate of Kewanee High School in Illinois and the Swedish-American Hospital School of Nursing at Rockford, Ill.

Her husband is a graduate of Narbonne High School.

Chason - DeFields

Mr. and Mrs. M. Cowan, 2733 Cabrillo, Torrance, announce the marriage of their daughter, Bernice Chason, to Russell D. DeFields. The wedding was solemnized on Saturday, June 26, at 7 o'clock at the First Christian Church in Torrance.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. A. J. DeFields, 1750 Elm, Torrance.

Mr. Cowan escorted the bride to the altar and gave her in marriage. She was gowned in Chantilly lace and organza, fashioned with a lace bodice, square scalloped neckline and long sleeves. The full organza skirt fell into a long train. A pearl tiara held the bridal veil and she carried a bouquet of white miniature roses.

Attending the bride were Mrs. Don Hibbard, matron of honor, Misses Kathy Baker and Pat Friant, bridesmaids. They wore long organza gowns, in graduating shades of blue, and carried bouquets of pink carnations and roses.

Candles were lighted by Rick and Billy Hibbard.

Best man duties were performed by Ernie Smith, Jr. and Donald and Troy Hibbard were ushers.

Rev. H. M. Sippel, pastor, conducted the marriage ceremony while Mrs. Eleanor Hanes, organist, played the nuptial music and accompanied Mrs. Robert Buzan, soloist.

A reception was held at a downtown Torrance restaurant after which the newlyweds left for a Tahoe honeymoon.

Their new address is 23525 Arlington, Apt. 125, Torrance.

The bride is a graduate of San Pedro High and her husband was graduated from Torrance High School.

Hall - Strum

Manhattan Beach Community Church was the setting for the June 5 wedding, in which Jean Louise Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Hall, 25525 Cypress, Lomita, became the bride of Gunther L. Strum of Los Angeles. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Doerfler of Augusta, Ga.

In a silk organza gown, the bride was escorted to the altar by her father. The gown, fashioned with a fitted bodice and bouffant skirt, was enhanced with embroidered lace and seed pearl appliques. The illusion veil cascaded from an organza rose sprinkled with pearls. Orchids and stephanotis formed the bridal bouquet.

Wearing pale orchid gowns with matching hats, attendants were Misses Peggy Benfer, Christian Hall, Judy Harris and Cheryl Fitzpatrick. Karen Gomen was flower girl and Steven Jett, ringbearer.

Richard Wurm performed the best man duties and ushers were Arthur Hall, Jerry Painter and Bill Julian.

Rev. T. Miller conducted the vow exchange. Miss Helen Peters was soloist.

A reception was held in the church hall after which the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in Mexico City and Puerto Vallarta. The new home is in West Los Angeles.

The bride, a Narbonne High graduate, also attended the Career Training Institute and is employed as a dental assistant.

Mr. Strum attended school in England, Germany and the United States. He received his engineering degree from Auburn University and is employed by the State of California. Mr. Strum is a member of the Society of Americal Civil Engineers.

Evening Garden Club to Meet

Palos Verdes Fuchsia Club will feature "Scenic Gardens and Vacation Spots" at the July 12 meeting at 8 p.m. in the Faculty Dining Hall at Palos Verdes High School.

Mrs. Alice Martin and John Ruckle will be there to tell about plants won from the plant donation table. Hostessing for the evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Rusty Bell.

Gomez - Morriss

Miss Louise Gomez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bonifacio Gomez, 1230 W. 255th St., Harbor City, became the bride of Melvin Morriss, in a 9:30 a.m. nuptial ceremony at the St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church in Lomita on June 12.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Morriss, 1517 Anaheim, Harbor City. The Rev. William Gorman officiated at the marriage in the presence of 200 guests.

Mr. Gomez escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a gown of Chantilly lace detailed with a chapel train. A petal lace and pearl headpiece held her full veil and she carried a cascade of white carnations and roses.

Bridal attendants were Misses Carmen Little, Martha Gomez, Consuelo Vallejo, Mary Ramirez, Mary Estrada, Aurora Rivera, bridesmaids; and Karen Huckes and Linda Carreras, flower girls. Miss Little wore a long lavender gown and carried yellow flowers and the other attendants were in yellow gowns and carried lavender bouquets.

Ushers were Lupe Gomez, Jerry Little, Frank Magana, Fred and Eddie Alvarado. Charles Morriss stood as best man and Brian Huckes was ring bearer.

Mrs. Dorothy Crotty, organist, accompanied Mrs. C. Smith, soloist.

A reception was held from 2 until 5 p.m. at the American Legion hall. Assisting were the bride's five sisters.

The newlyweds spent a honeymoon at Big Bear.

The bride is a 1964 graduate of Narbonne High School and attended Harbor College.

Her husband is employed by Hillcrest Nursery.

Surber - Pearman

Mr. and Mrs. Kim Harris Pearman are at home at 4739 Sepulveda, Sherman Oaks, following their wedding June 12 at the First Lutheran Church in Torrance.

Mrs. Pearman is the former Carol Patricia Surber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Surber, 310 Antonio St., Torrance. Parents of the bridegroom are Dr. and Mrs. R. O. Pearman of Sherman Oaks.

On the arm of her father, the bride came to the altar wearing a Chantilly lace sheath gown fashioned with a train. Her bouffant veil was held by a lace pillbox headpiece and she carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Dale Schafer served as matron of honor and bridesmaids were Misses Phyllis Wells, Aleta Bowen and Doane Davenport. Gowned in long gold satin sheaths, they carried bouquets of white chrysanthemums and daisies.

Best man duties were performed by Christopher Schafer. Ushers were Bill Davenport, Dick Kayaian and Jerry Roth.

Pastor William Roledor officiated at the vow exchange. The church organist played the wedding marches and accompanied Jan Bradley, soloist.

A reception was held in the Banbury room at the Plush Horse Inn. Mrs. Roberta Young was in charge of the bride's book.

The new Mrs. Pearman is a graduate of Torrance High School and the University of California at Los Angeles.

Her husband was graduated from USC and the UCLA School of Law. He was All American and national champion diver at USC and was also a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

Cook - Cope

Vogel - Buckalew

At home in Santa Barbara, following a Palm Springs honeymoon, are Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Wesley Cope, who married in an 8 o'clock ceremony on June 11 at the First Baptist Church in Torrance.

Mrs. Cope is the former Mary Jean Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Thornd Cook, 28217 Monte Vista, Lomita.

Mr. Wesley Cook of Leavenworth, Kansas, is the father of the bridegroom.

Rev. Robert Coburn officiated at the vow exchange as Mrs. Pat Ouwendijk played the nuptial music and accompanied Dennis Krause, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a sheath gown of taffeta with a flowing overskirt which draped in a chapel train. Lace enhanced the neckline, sleeves and hem of the gown. Her illusion veil was held by a pearl tiara and she carried white orchids and stephanotis.

Gowned in shades of pink, attendants were Miss Colleen Cook, maid of honor; Misses Sandra Kuper, Janice Loedige, Mmes. Don Harris, Robert Dreyer, and Michael DeLuca, bridesmaids. Juli Lynn Dreyer was flower girl and Richard Cook was ring bearer.

Michael Warren was best man and ushers were Robert Davies, Bailey Dotson, Wayne Entz, Kenneth Cummins, Douglas Cook and Thomas Cook, ushers.

The 400 guests attended a reception in the church social hall.

The bride was graduated from Narbonne High and in June received her degree from Westmont College, Santa Barbara.

Mr. Cope is a graduate of Moody Bible Institute of Westmont College where he was student body president.

Lutheran Church of the Resurrection was the setting on June 26, for the mid-afternoon wedding in which Miss Donna Jean Vogel, 2210 Sepulveda, Torrance, exchanged her vows with Stuart Buckalew. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Vog-1 of Marine City, Mich. Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Buckalew of Torrance are parents of the bridegroom.

For her wedding, the bride wore a white organza gown over taffeta detailed with a bell skirt. A detachable lace cape train and the front of the gown were embroidered with seed pearls. An organza pillbox headpiece held the bridal veil and white carnations and yellow roses formed the bouquet.

Miss Linda Vogel was her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Misses Nellie Mike and Frankie Harper. They wore yellow taffeta and white lace.

Tera Lynn Buckalew, in yellow nylon, was flower girl.

Steven Buckalew was his brother's best man and Joel Redman and Mike Ferlin, ushers.

Pastor Robert Newcomb officiated at the marriage which was followed by a church reception with Virginia Buckalew at the guest book.

The couple left for Michigan where on July 3 they were honored at a reception in Marine City given by the bride's parents. They will also visit friends in Iowa before returning to Torrance.

The new Mrs. Buckalew was graduated from Eastern Michigan University and did graduate work at UCLA.

Her husband is a graduate of Torrance High and El Camino College.

Peterson-Grasinger

On the arm of her grandfather, Mr. Lewis A. Johnson, Miss Sandra R. Peterson walked down the aisle of the Lutheran Church of the Resurrection at 8 o'clock on Friday, June 25, to exchange wedding vows with Larry L. Grasinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Grasinger, 2426 W. 223rd St. Torrance. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ruth Peterson, 3848 W. 226th St. and Mr. Roy Peterson, also of Torrance.

The traditional wedding gown of silk peau de soie was fashioned with an empire waist and short bell sleeves. Crystals and pearls adorned the bodice of the gown, which had a modified A line skirt with detachable chapel train. A peau de soie pillbox, sprinkled with crystals and pearls, held the illusion veil and the bride carried a cascade of white roses and stephanotis.

The bridal entourage consisted of Mrs. Jill Kasterko as her sister's matron of honor; Misses Susan Bredman, Sandi Miyano, Della Prable, Elizabeth Shiomichi and Mrs. David Maraden, bridesmaids. They were attired in long bright pink chiffon gowns and each carried three long stemmed pink roses.

Tracey Taylor, in pink taffeta, was flower girl and Daryl Grasinger was ring bearer.

Greg Riley stood as best man and ushers were Jim Braden, Dick Fowler, Loren Harvey, Mike Hogan and Jim Kasterko.

Mrs. Cliff Bredman, organist, played the wedding marches and accompanied Lyle Heck, soloist.

Pastor Robert Newcomb officiated at the vow exchange.

The newlyweds were greeted by the 200 guests at a reception at the church with Miss Barbara Woodruff in charge of the bride's book.

The new home will be in Torrance after the two weeks honeymoon at Carmel, San Francisco and Lake Tahoe.

The bride, a graduate of North High and El Camino College, is a secretary at Saginaw Products Co. in Gardena.

Her bridegroom, a Torrance High and Woodbury College graduate, plans to continue his education at Long Beach State College. Presently he is a PRESS-HERALD employe.

Mathis - Mullen

Miss Susan Renee Mathis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Mathis, 1337 Marcelina, walked down the aisle of the First Methodist Church on the arm of her father at 7:30 p.m. on June 12 to plight her marriage vows with Robert D. Mullen, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Mullen, 1519 Post Ave.

For her wedding, the bride wore a long gown of silk linen appliqued with lace, sprinkled with pearls and sequins. The lace also decorated the front of the bouffant skirt. Caught in bustle effect at the back, the skirt fell into a chapel train. Her full veil was held by a lace rose headpiece and she carried a bouquet of white and pink roses.

Miss Judy Minor was the maid of honor and bridesmaids were Misses Teddy Alarcon, Loretta Kennedy and Brenda Ward. Gowned in pink, each carried a bouquet of long stemmed pink roses.

David Mullen served as best man.

Rev. Arthur Nagel officiated at the marriage. Phyllis Adams was organist and Donna Bailey sang.

A church reception followed with Miss Joanne Carr registering the guests. Another party was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

The honeymoon was spent in San Francisco and Tahoe. The new home is in Torrance.

Both the bride and her husband are Torrance High graduates. Mrs. Mullen is employed as a dental assistant. Mr. Mullen received his BA degree from Redlands University.