how to... make them beg for your autograph

Your autograph on a First Western check is a very popular item in California, particularly in the stores where you shop. Your checks, personalized with your name and address, give instant recognition. First Western can even provide the color of check that fits your personality.

You can count on it... a regular or Special checking account at First Western Bank is your assurance of V.I.P. treatment wherever you go.

It's a fine way to pay bills by mail, too. And your First Western cancelled checks are proof enough for the judge if someone says you didn't pay him.

Now, we wish to be the first in line to ask for your autograph. May we have it on a new checking account signature card in your nearby First Western Bank office?
