

Hollypark Stores Set Observance

Customers at Hollypark National Paint Stores will be given a chance to win a free trip to Las Vegas as the stores observe their ninth anniversary.

The three-day trip is the top prize offered in the celebration which marks the founding of Hollypark Stores nine years ago. Free gifts will be given to everyone who visits the stores during the event.

Hollypark Stores opened in Torrance in 1956. The small store has grown into a chain of four stores, located in Norwalk and Bellflower, as well as two stores in Torrance.

Irv and Harry Berren, owners of the chain, said the growth and popularity of the four stores have inspired plans for additional stores in other Southern California cities.

SHOWING READIED . . . A one-man showing of oil paintings by Harold Pershing will be on display throughout August in the Del Amo office of Glendale Federal Savings and Loan at 3832 W. Sepulveda Blvd., near Hawthorne, according to Charles Cederlof, manager of the firm. Included in the display will be canvases of the Palos Verdes Peninsula, and others ranging from the harbor to southwest mountain areas. Pershing is in charge of sales and promotional art for the Norair division of Northrop Corp., and paints landscapes as an avocation.

Cancer Office Plans 'Year-Round Crusade'

Immediate recruiting of local volunteers for a massive attack against cancer has been announced by John Simpson, volunteer chairman of the board of directors of the local district of the American Cancer Society.

District residential chairman for the 1966 crusade is Mrs. Jack Ansley of Manhattan Beach. She will coordinate all residential crusade activities in the Southwest-Centennial Valley area.

Under Simpson's guidance, the local district of the society will attempt to put on a "year-round crusade."

"We will strive not only for a giant fund raising campaign in April, but we will also put forth a greater year-round stress on the three basic principles of the American Cancer Society: Research, education and service. We feel that the stronger the effort we can put forth 12 months a year, the sooner the day will come when cancer is defeated," Simpson stated.

THE ROLLING HILLS Estates resident has already initiated organizational and get-acquainted meetings for Cancer Society volunteers in the area, with more periodic meetings to follow.

Simpson, who is Director of the Law Department of Western Airlines, urges all local residents who are interested in aiding in the crusade against cancer to contact the local district of the American Cancer Society, 16503 Hawthorne Boulevard, Lawndale, or by phoning 370-5684.
