The first meeting of the new year was held at the home of Mrs. Rollin Smith, Aug. 3, at 2682 Harbor Sight Dr., Rolling Hills at 8 p.m. All wives of members of the downtown Torrance Lions club were invited to attend.

Present at the board meeting were Mmes. Jack Smith, first vice-president; John Ritchie, second vice-president; Louis Assink, secretary; Bob William, corresponding secretary.

MRS. BERNARD SIMINICH (Portrait by Seeman)

Married at Nativity

Miss Linda Kirkpatrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd C. Kirkpatrick, 3836 W. 187th St., Torrance, became the bride of Bernard Siminich in an 11:30 o'clock ceremony at Nativity Catholic Church on Monday, July 5. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Gail Rossen of Livermore, Calif.

Mr. Kirkpatrick escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a gown of white silk organza and Chantilly lace. The fitted lace bodice had a square scalloped neckline and long sleeves. The bouffant skirt of organza, enhanced with the lace appliques, fell into a train. A pearl tiara held the silk illusion veil and the bride carried a cascade of white roses and stephanotis.

Miss Lonna Kirkpatrick was her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Donald Slumpee and Mrs. Harry Hamilton. They were attired in long blue organza gowns and carried red roses.

Edward Siminich served as his brother's best man and ushers were Albert Mercado and Bryon Pelley.

Rev. William O'Toole officiated at the marriage as C. Roman played the nuptial music and accompanied Palma Skroko, soloist.

A reception followed at the Elks hall. Assisting were Mrs. Jerry Laws, Misses Kathy and Susan Shimmis, Miss Carle Van Saton was in charge of the bride's book.

The newlyweds are at home at 26001 Narbonne, Lomita, following a Las Vegas honeymoon.

The bride is a graduate of North High School and the Newberry School of Beauty.

Her husband was educated in West Virginia.

Attending were Mmes. J. P. Bay, Richard Dorothy, R. E. Moffitt, Erwin Moudy, F. M. Shaw and John C. Warnock.

Two workshops a month have been scheduled to work on craft projects to be sold at the club's annual Christmas bazaar.

Members wishing to attend are asked to contact Mrs. Rudy.

Rummage Sale Set Aug. 12-14

A Teenage Square Dance Group, which meets every Tuesday from 6:30 until 9 p.m. at the Business Men's Hall in WALTERIA, will stage a rummage sale on Aug. 12, 13 and 14 at 1320 Cabrillo in Torrance, across the street from the Kennedy Memorial.

Money derived from the sale will go to the club's travel fund.

The public is invited to attend.

Win Recognition At State Fair

Miss Glanda Whittington of Torrance won an honorable mention with her tapestry in the art competition at the annual California State Fair at Sacramento.

Mrs. Pjete Lundstrom of Rolling Hills won third place in "prints" with her "Yin and Yang" creation.

Houseguest

Miss Susan Clark, 1432 W. 172nd St., has as her guest for a week Kerry Manser of Garden Grove.

Newlyweds Established in New Home

Established in their newly-constructed home at 22747 Samuel St., Torrance, are Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Wolfrum, who were married in a double ring ceremony in late June at Four Square Gospel Church in Torrance. Mrs. Wolfrum is the former Florence Ellen Aldrich of Lomita, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis C. Ash of Toronto, Canada, formerly of 1407 W. 247th St., Harbor City, who with another daughter, Mary, came for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester R. Wolfrum of Inglewood are parents of the bridegroom.

Mr. Ash escorted the bride to the altar. She wore an empire gown of white embroidered organza. A white bow, with a rose of seed pearls, held her full silk illusion veil and the bride carried a cascade of white orchids, roses and carnations.

The bridal entourage was comprised of Mrs. Donald Stephens, matron of honor; Misses Mary A. Aldrich and Kavomi Hanaoka, maids of honor; and Misses Noni Johnson, Charlene Joseph, Carol Rains, Tetsuko Kimura and Joyce Usui, bridesmaids. They were gowned in floor length pink crepe sheaths made on empire lines and their bouquets were of dark pink carnations.

Vickie Lynn Stephens, in a long white organza dress, was flower girl and Mark Usui was ring bearer.

Best man duties were performed by Gary McClure. Candlelighters and ushers were Wayne and Miles Usui, Chuck Johnson and Bob Turner. The bridegroom's attendants were Wes Scott, Jim Morrow, Joe Majzel, Ralph Mills, Ron Hackworth, Jim Phelan and John Bennett.

Rev. James Lowen officiated at the candlelight vow exchange.

Mrs. Robert Schimmick, organist, played wedding marches and accompanied Robert Walker and Mrs. Robert Thornton, soloists.

The 350 guests greeted the newlyweds at a reception at Board of Realtors hall. Mrs. Wendell Michael registered the guests.

The bride, a 1960 Narbonne High graduate, is employed by TRW/STL in Redondo.

Her husband, an Inglewood High graduate, received his degree in electronic engineering from UCLA. He is also employed by TRW/STL, Redondo.

Visit Historic New Orleans

Mrs. Frank Hunter, 2806 Onrado St., and her mother, Mrs. Elsie Leon of Huntington Park, have returned from an extensive tour of New Orleans.

On day tours, the two vacationers visited many historical places such as parks, churches, gardens, southern homes and outlying parishes. They enjoyed a cruise on the Mississippi aboard the SS President and in the evenings they visited Antoinette, Court of Two Sisters, and other restaurants famous for their French cuisine.

The trip was made via American Airlines.

AIB District Consuls to Meet Aug. 12

On Aug. 12, the Harbor District Chapter of the American Institute of Banking will hold a District Consuls Conference at the LaFayette Hotel in Long Beach.

This meeting will be attended by approximately 35 District Consuls, Chief Consuls and Board members representing the administration for the Institute class enrollment drive which will get under way on Aug. 17. The annual membership and class enrollment drive with a consuls conference, on Aug. 17, is also to be held at the LaFayette Hotel in Long Beach.

This meeting, which essentially will be a workshop, will be attended by 150 consuls. The consul is the Institute representative in the branches of all banks in the Harbor area, and is responsible for obtaining the enrollments and membership for the organization as well as counseling with their employees as to their educational needs.
