ALL 'ROUND THE TOWN
With BOB FLOURY

Ports of Call Players continue to run "Invitation to a March" weekends through Aug. 22. The summer tent theater is located at Berth 75, next to Ports of Call restaurant on the waterfront in San Pedro.

This adult comedy written by Arthur Laurents produces many laughs, yet contains comments on non-conformity as opposed to drab, conventional life. Fresh twists are provided by an up-dated symbolism of the Sleeping Beauty legend, as well as a script which has actors speaking directly to the audience upon occasion.

The role of Deedee Grogan is played by Patricia Lester of Palos Verdes, former student at El Camino College. Other local cast members include Elizabeth Anderson (Camilla), Harold Saxton (Schuyler), Sandra Kola (Norma), Larry McPherson (Tucker), plus a Long Beach family acting trio consisting of Jo Scott (Lily), her son Jeff Scott (Cary), and still another son, Boyce Gitzon, (Aaron).

Appearances are on Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings, curtain at 8:30.

INDIAN GIVERS
Always the center of interest and praise from diners at Smith Bros. Indian Village Restaurant in Torrance is the fascinating Indian gift shop which is adjacent to the entrance and "Fountain Room." Souvenirs and gifts direct from Hopi, Seminole, Navajo and Pueblo reservations (to name only a few) make the unique shop enormously popular with those who admire and seek tribal handicraft and objects of North American Indian art. The unique shop offers such colorful and authentic items as jewelry, pottery, baskets, rugs, moccasins and silver-craft. The public is always welcome to browse and, according to Alan Smith, general manager of Indian Village Shops, Inc., many unusual items were made especially for children. It's also open during the restaurant's dinner hours.
