anniversary cake, was a silver framed picture of the couple on their wedding day. Gift floral arrangements, adding to the decor, were white chrysanthemums and a centerpiece of white carnations, both sprinkled with silver.

Here for the special occasion were Mr. Wells' sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Schmidt, Chicago; his niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Harold LeVine, San Diego; friends who were present at the wedding 25 years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ries, Walnut Creek, and Mrs. Wells' aunt, Mrs. H. L. Rupp and family of Fullerton.

Miss Anice Marie Evans, 1965 Torrance Princess, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Evans, 4730 Emerald St., Torrance, became the bride of Arthur Wayne Bramlitt in a candlelight ceremony, July 10, at the Wayfarer's Chapel in Portuguese Bend. Mr. and Mrs. Luther Furqueon, New Smyrna Beach, Fla., are parents of the bridegroom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride came to the altar gowned in white silk organza, fashioned with a fitted waistline and full skirt bordered with wide, embroidered, Alencon lace sweeping into a short train. The scalloped neckline and elbow sleeves of the same lace were enhanced with scattered seed pearls, which were repeated in the headpiece of tiny, lace petals. It held in place the three-tiered, waist-length veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade of pink rosebuds and white orange blossoms with moss green velvet streamers.

Miss Michella Marie Evans, serving as her sister's maid of honor, wore a long pale pink silk organza sheath and carried deep pink roses. Bridesmaids, also gowned in the pink organza and carrying pale pink roses, were Misses Karen Olsen, Nancy McCreight and Jeanelle Rogers.

William Gardner was best man and ushers were Walter Lane, Loyd Mayer and Wayne King.

Rebecca Fenger, in a long pink organza sheath, was flower girl and three-year-old Darryl Gene Carter of Roswell, N.M. was ring bearer.

Candlelighters Misses Laurel Littlefield and Jan Crabtree, in pink gowns, wore wristlet bouquets. Mrs. Fred Fenger was in charge of the bride's book.

Rev. Robert Young officiated at the double ring ceremony. Steven Letham and Robert D. McCreight sang, accompanied by Miss Rogers, pianist.

White gardenias, pink roses and baby ivy decorated the Torrance-Lomita Board of Realtors hall for the reception attended by the 200 guests. Champagne was served followed by a buffet dinner. Among the guests was Jan Bradshaw, Torrance Queen for 1965.

The bride, a 1964 graduate of Hawthorne High School, attended El Camino College where she majored in psychology. She was selected as Miss Torrance Princess last March and has made a number of public appearances for the city this year. She is a secretary for the Southern California Auto Club.

The bridegroom, educated in Florida, is presently serving in the United States Marine Corps at Camp Pendleton. He plans to attend UCLA for a degree in architecture.

The couple is at home at 942 Ontario St., Escondido, after a three-week honeymoon in Southern California and Mexico.

Neighbors Spend Week At Lake

Lake Gregory was the vacation spot chosen by a group of neighbors on Font-hill Ave., who spent a week at the resort.

Making up the neighborhood party were Messrs. and Mmes. Sid Gans, Peggy and Danny; Victor, Abrams, Ricky, Judy, Linda and Susy; Haig Marshlian, Tommy and Kathy; Louis Scibona, Marilyn and Susan.

The group was also joined by Mrs. Marshlian's sister Mrs. Paul Adalian and son, Michael, of Inglewood.

Other neighbors going up for the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brandt and two daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lowenberg and family, also of the Font-hill neighborhood, who were vacationing at their home at Big Bear, joined the Lake Gregory neighbors on Saturday.

MRS. BLANCHE MILLER
... Named Director of Nursing

Chosen for New Post

A former Torrance Registered Nurse has accepted a Los Angeles County Civil Service Commission offer to become Director of Nursing at John Wesley County Hospital, Los Angeles, effective Sept. 13.

She is Mrs. Blanche Miller, R. N., Associate Director of Nursing at Harbor General Hospital for the past seven months, but formerly on the staff of Little Company of Mary, Torrance.

Mrs. Miller is widely known in Torrance and Redondo Beach nursing circles under her former name of Soviak. As Mrs. Blanche Soviak, she was Administrative Assistant for Nursing at the Torrance Hospital where she was a charter member in 1960 as Head Nurse on the Medical Ward when it opened.

Mrs. Miller takes a varied career in nursing to her new position. Prior to Harbor General service she was Director of Inservice Education for two years at Long Beach Community Hospital.

A graduate of several colleges in the east and mid-west, Mrs. Miller got her RN at Bishop Johnson College of Nursing at Good Samaritan Hospital, Los Angeles, and at Long Beach State College. She preceded her career in nursing as a secretary for the Board of Trade, Peoria, Ill., and later was a WAVE secretary in the Navy's Bureau of Supply and Accounts, Washington, D. C.

In the teaching phase of nursing, Mrs. Miller was an instructor in the LVN program at St. Vincent's Hospital, Santa Fe, N.M., and taught practical nursing and Medical Office Procedures in Redondo High School, Evening Adult Classes.

Mrs. Miller's promotion was to fill a vacancy left when Miss Fotine Drulias moved up to Director of In-service Education at Los Angeles County General Hospital.

The appointment of a successor for Mrs. Miller is pending.

Local Juniors Will Attend District Meet

Mrs. Robert Valencia, president of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, and Mrs. Carl Messmer, second vice-president and membership chairman, will attend a Marina District Council meeting Aug. 23 at the El Segundo Junior Woman's Clubhouse.

The Torrance Junior Woman's Club is affiliated with Marina District, California Federation of Women's Clubs, Junior Membership.

W. R. Campbells Enjoy Canada, Northwest Tour

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Campbell, and their twins, Neal and Kathy, 2342 234th St., Torrance, have just returned from a month's vacation touring the Northwest. Their first stop was Reno, Nev., visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Neal Anderson, formerly of Long Beach. While in Reno, both Mr. Campbell and Neal caught their limit of trout in the Truckee River. Points of interest visited while in Nevada were Lake Tahoe and Virginia City.

Their next stop was more trout fishing at the Deschutes River in the Cascade Mountains of Oregon. Another highlight of their trip was Crater Lake, Oregon.

Traveling on through Washington and Idaho, they entered British Columbia at the King's Gate. They spent a full week in Canada visiting Banff, Lake Louise, Vancouver and Victoria. While in Victoria, they visited the beautiful Butchart Gardens.

The Campbells drove home via the Redwood Highway arriving in San Francisco on July 25 to attend the celebration of Mr. Campbell's parents' golden wedding anniversary. Returning to their Torrance home with them was Mr. Campbell's sister, Mrs. Annie Sommers, of Atlanta, Ga., who spent a week sightseeing in Southern California.
