Monday was Junior Administration Day, one of Student Council's most thrilling activities of the year. Council members took a day off and assumed the roles of the administrators — with their help, of course. For instance, Steve Kuchenbecker played the role of principal, and Katie McClung became the head librarian.

Be sure to attend the All-School Play this Friday evening, when "The Miracle Worker" will be presented. Starring will be Moliy Mac-

Recreation Workshop Scheduled

A volunteer leaders' workshop, "Outdoor Adventure in Nature," will be conducted Friday at the Joslyn Recreation Center, 3335 Torrance Blvd., according to Paul Corey, recreation supervisor.

The workshop is one in a series conducted by the Los Angeles County Department of Parks and Recreation in cooperation with the Torrance Recreation Department.

Emphasis will be placed on the beauty of nature in the local environment and on the form and life of common species of butterflies, ants, birds, and trees. Weather and stars also will be discussed.

The program is designed to give parents, teachers, and youth leaders basic skills and information about nature projects, nature games, and crafts for a summer program.

Volunteer leaders may register at the workshop. A 50-cent registration fee is required to cover the cost of materials and a manual to be given to each participant.

Talent Contest Finals Set Tomorrow by Exchange Club

Sixteen finalists will vie for an opportunity to participate in a statewide "Search for Talent" contest tomorrow at the Redondo Beach Elks Club.

The finalists were selected by the South Bay Exchange Club during preliminary judging last week. They will compete tomorrow at 7 p.m. for a chance to represent the South Bay Club in district finals, to be held May 6 in Inglewood.

Winners in the junior division include Leslie Anne Wolfsberger, Tori Turbeville and Jean Nachand, Doug Irvin, Kerrida Hall, and Carol Gregory. The junior division is open to youngsters under 14 years of age.

Senior division finalists include Stanley Muraski, Phyllis Muraski, Norman McCracken, Joel Springer and Jim Walberg, Bob Adams and Steve Young, Carol Armstrong, and Charlene McCoy.

Tomorrow's judging is open to the public, according to Mike Michaelis, chairman of the contest.
