

Teenagers Will Meet Saturday

"A Teenager's Search for Meaning" will be featured at the Youth for Christ meeting Saturday, at 7:18 p.m. at the Community Baptist Church, Artesia and Prospect, Manhattan Beach.

On this same program will be the music of Sandy, Kathy and Pam plus the teen sound of the Young Moderns.

Campus Life will have its usual humor and fun as they present the "electric chair speed reaction test" that was so popular at the Teen Age Fair over Easter vacation.

Admission is free and everyone is welcome to attend.

Probation After Death To Be Topic

The necessity for continuing spiritual growth to realize eternal life is a central theme of this Sunday's service at all Christian Science churches.

Subject of the Bible Lesson is "Probation After Death." The Golden Text is from James: "Let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing."

Readings to be presented along with the Bible include these lines from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Individuals are consistent who, watching and praying, can run, and not be weary; . . . walk, and not faint; who gain good rapidly and hold their position, or attain slowly and yield not to discouragement, God requires perfection, but not until the battle between Spirit and flesh is fought and the victory won."

At Lomita Church

Minister to Explain Heritage From Jews

Guest speaker Sunday at Lomita Christian Church, 25512 Walnut St., will be Harry Bucalstein, according to the Rev. Joel Rivers, pastor.

Mr. Bucalstein, who was born in Poland and emigrated to the United States as a child, received the customary Jewish religious training. However, during his teens he became interested in the Christian religion and prepared for the ministry at Moody Bible Institute, Minnesota Bible College, and Northern Baptist Seminary.

He began a ministry in 1931 which has taken him as a pastor to Wisconsin, Minnesota, Indiana, and the Los Angeles area.

His appointment as field evangelist for the American Board of Missions to the Jews last year calls upon him to conduct meetings to explain the Jewish background of Christianity. His message enables New Testament believers to appreciate the Jewish heritage of their faith and presents a challenge that there might be a Christian witness to the Jewish people.

Mr. Bucalstein did not depart from the Jewish people. He says, "In Christ I have not rejected my heritage and faith of my forefathers, but rather in Christ, I have found the Messiah; for whose Advent they prayed daily. I have found my Jewish heritage and appreciate my own background more, because of Christ."

JAMES MACK To Conduct Concert

Orchestras To Perform In Concert

Orchestras from El Camino and Harbor colleges will perform in a combined concert Sunday afternoon at the El Camino College Theater. The concert will begin at 3:30.

Calvin Greer of the El Camino faculty will be the featured trumpet soloist. Instructors Daniel Remeta of Harbor College and James Mack of El Camino will alternate in conducting the massed orchestra.

The program will include von Suppe's "Pique Dame Overture" and the first movement of Schubert's "Unfinished Symphony."

Greer will play the third movement of Haydn's "Trumpet Concerto." "Finlandia" by Sibelius and the first movement of Mozart's "Eine Kleine Nachtmusik" for string orchestra also will be performed.

The concert, which will include the premiere performance of Mack's "Woodwind Quintet No. 1" by the El Camino Woodwind Quintet, is open to the public. There is no admission charge.

Program on Narcotics Set Here

John Stevens, a representative of the Narcotic Educational Foundation of America, will be guest speaker Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service at Central Evangelical United Brethren Church.

The foundation was organized to provide information about narcotics and their effects on young people and to find solutions to increasing problems caused by narcotics traffic in communities throughout the nation.

The foundation's program is supported through free will offerings. An offering will be received at the conclusion of the service Sunday. The foundation provides speakers for schools, churches, and service clubs, produces films on the narcotics problem, and distributes literature about the dangers of narcotic drugs throughout the nation.

Young people are especially invited to the service, according to the Rev. Walter M. Stanton, pastor.

Methodist Bishop Sets Visit Here

Methodist Bishop Alejandro Ruiz of Mexico will visit Torrance for a week, beginning Sunday. Bishop Ruiz will be the guest of the Rev. Arthur Nagel, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Torrance.

Bishop Ruiz heads the Methodist Church in Mexico and is responsible for more than 400 churches. He has held the post for the past three years.

He will be the featured speaker at a meeting of the Methodist Men's Club next Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. The meeting is open to the public and the program will get under way at 7:30 p.m.

Bishop Ruiz will discuss religion in Mexico and the role of the Methodist Church in that nation.
