PTA

TORRANCE HIGH
Torrance High School PTA awarded two Honorary Life Memberships at the March meeting. Recipients were Mrs. Leo Levanas, school nurse and member of the PTA board, and Mr. John Tweedy. Both have served the youth of the Torrance High School community as well as young people throughout the city. Two awards in memoriam were offered with contribu-tion to the Torrance Council Scholarship Fund in the name of Mrs. James Wayt and in the name of Mr. Sam Levy for their exceptional service to the community at large. Open House followed the program.

VICTOR
Nominated for office for 1966-67 Victor PTA year are Mmes. Gordon Kent, presi-dent; Harvey Horwich, Rus-sell McElroy, Albert Robert-son, vice presidents; Harold Stout, recording secretary; Virgil Gaul, treasurer; Ralph Brubaker, historian; Gordon Kent, auditor; and Roscoe Knapp, corresponding secre-tary.

Honorary Life Member-ships were awarded Mrs. Russell McElroy, Mrs. Cris Eliopolos and Harvey Hor-wich.

A school Dental Health program recently conducted at Victor gave Nurse Clara Eyre and PTA members a chance to work together and Officers Donald LeMaster and Al Jackson of the Tor-rance Police Dept. had the assistance of Mrs. Gerald Totten and other PTA mem-bers at the Bike licensing events of Feb. 18 and 25.

WEST HIGH SCHOOL

At the annual Founders' Day meeting on Feb. 15 in the Lecture Room of West High School, the PTA pre-sented the unit's 5th Hono-rary Life Award to Mrs. War-ren H. Steele for her out-standing service to the school community. Dr. R. R. Ford, principal, formally presented boutonnieres and corsages. Mrs. Hiro Muro-naka, Torrance Council PTA President, was welcomed as a special guest and Mrs. Wil-liam Roseberry served as program director. An open discussion was held on par-ent-teenage relationships. Roy Sriwong, West High's Foreign Exchange student from Thailand, received a check from the PTA for the American Field Service. A donation to West High Jun-ior-Senior class prom fund was accepted by Wayne Sea-boldt class representative. Two student scholarship awards were accepted by Dr. Ford, who will be in charge of selecting the future teach-er from this year's senior class to receive the special West High School PTA Fu-ture Teachers Scholarship Fund Award.
