

May Brunch Closes PTA Council Year

YOU'RE THE TOP

Mrs. Perry Baker, who was installed president of the Torrance Council PTA, at its annual May Brunch held Wednesday at South High Cafeteria, is saluted by four of her officers, from left, Mmes. Russell McElroy, director of welfare; Stuart Angus, education; Benjamin Hatfield, hospitality; and Fred Wilkins, home service. Others installed were Mmes.

Robert Hagenbaugh, organization; James Carlson, health; H. S. Rogers, extension; Harley Gray, communication; C. A. Fischer, recording secretary; Herbert Hanes, corresponding secretary; Jack Spurlock, financial secretary; J. McDonald, treasurer; B. Lassere, historian; James Orr, parliamentarian; and Mr. Kenneth Orr, auditor. (Press-Herald Photo)

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR FUTURE TEACHERS

To insure teachers for the children of Torrance in the years to come, Torrance Council PTA followed its traditional practice at the annual May Brunch and presented scholarships to four seniors, who plan to continue their education in pursuit of a teaching career. Mrs. William E. Thomas, PTA Council scholarship chairman, is shown with two seniors, from left, Stan Sorensen, North High, and Charles Mundy, West High, who had just received scholarships. They plan to major in education at UCLA. Two other students receiving the awards were Marcia Mendelsohn, South High, and Robert Dehn, Torrance High. (Press-Herald Photo)

MR., MRS. NEWTON MAZZOLA
... Married 50 Years

Mazzolas Feted

50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Mazzola, 25035 Narbonne Ave., Lomita were guests of honor at a party at the Moose Lodge in Torrance on Saturday, April 30, celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary.

The anniversary party was given by the couple's four children, Frank Mazzola, Mrs. Maggie Truscott, and Mrs. Josephine Shepard, all of Lomita; and Mrs. Petrina Stroh of Attica, New York, who was present for the celebration.

Special guests at the party were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Faso, who were married on the same day, at the same hour and at the same church in Mount Morris, N.Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Mazzola have been residents of this area since 1947. Until his retirement 10 years ago, Mr. Mazzola was owner of a florist business in Lomita. Just to make life interesting, he still sells cut flowers.

During the party a skit "This Is Your Life" was enacted featuring the high points in the life of the couple. Mr. Mazzola 74, and Mrs. Mazzola 68, are members of the St. Margaret Mary Church in Lomita. They have been members of the Moose Lodge for 47 years.

A highlight of the celebration was the announcement of the birth of the couple's first great-grandchild, born to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith in Tucson, Ariz. Mrs. Smith is the former Valerie Truscott.

The 300 guests congratulating the golden wedding celebrants were served a beautifully decorated anniversary cake and champagne punch. They also enjoyed dancing to orchestra music.

Mu Pi Plans Guest Night

Annual "Guest Night" of the Palos Verdes Peninsula chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon, will be held at the home of Mrs. Robert Najand, 6305 Rio Linda Dr., Palos Verdes Peninsula, on Monday evening, May 16, at 7:30. Co-hostess will be Mrs. Harold Hall of San Pedro.

Those performing on the musical program will be Jane Najand, pianist; Louise McCullough, soprano, accompanied by Eva Brundin; and JoAnne Satterburg, violinist, accompanied by Phyllis Bennett.

Members of Mu Phi Epsilon and their friends, are invited to attend.

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

MAY 15, 1966

B-1

ANNUAL MAYTIME LUNCHEON

Mothers Club of the Lutheran Church of the Resurrection staged its annual Mother-Daughter event in the parish hall with 150 attending. The luncheon and program was followed by a puppet show. Enjoying a moment with the puppets are from left, Mrs. Daniel Gluck, program chairman, holding a puppet for her daughter, Kirsten 3, Marlene Smith 4, watching a puppet held by her mother, Mrs. Glenn Smith, luncheon chairman; and Mrs. Neal Keyes, program chairman, looking on. (Press-Herald Photo)

'Shower of Blessings' Theme

Mother-Daughter Affair

Eighth annual Mother-Daughter luncheon, staged by the Mothers Club of the Lutheran Church of the Resurrection, in the parish hall on Saturday, was attended by 150 mothers and their daughters.

"Shower of Blessings" was the theme of the event, which was carried out in the dining room decorations, watering cans filled with spring blossoms.

Following the luncheon, provided by a committee of mothers under the leadership of Mrs. Wilbur Kennedy, and served by the men of the church, a short sing-along was led by Mrs. Lyle Heck.

Mrs. Ed Lew presented corsages to Mrs. David Kratzer, youngest mother present; Mrs. Jess Browning, newest mother; and Mrs. Ruth Crabtree, mother with the most children. Mrs. Crabtree has nine children.

Mrs. J. Ralph Black and daughters, Valerie and Patti, presented the Mother-Daughter tribute with emphasis on love, which comes as "Showers from God."

Doris Granada, presented by Mmes. Neil Keyes and Daniel Gluck, delighted her audience with a puppet show.

Mrs. Bob Calof served as general chairman of the day assisted by Mrs. Glenn Smith. Mrs. A. Y. Kealy was ticket chairman.

Mothers of children up to six years of age are invited to join the Mothers club.

Future Brides

Falk - Boal

St. Anthony of Padua Catholic Church in Gardena will be the setting on June 11 at 1 p.m. for the wedding of Miss Renee JoAnne Falk and Lester Bryant Boal.

The announcement of their daughter's wedding plans is made this morning by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond F. Falk, 17026 Daphne Ave. Torrance.

The future bride, a 1962 graduate of Bishop Montgomery High School, received her AA degree from El Camino College in 1965. She is employed by the Pacific Telephone Co.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Boal, Hawthorne, is a graduate of Leuzinger High. He recently completed four years with the United States Army stationed in Heidelberg, Germany. Mr. Boal is employed by the Philco Corp.

RENEE FALK

Buswell - Campbell

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Langsdale Buswell of Whittier announce the engagement of their daughter, Roberta Jean, to Ronald Lawrence Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Campbell of Torrance.

June 11 has been chosen as the wedding date.

Miss Buswell, a Narbonne High graduate, attended Fullerton College. She is a National Gold Medal figure skater and is an instructor at the Olympic Ice Arena in Torrance.

Mr. Campbell is majoring in mathematics at El Camino and will continue his education at Long Beach State College next fall. He is employed at the Torrance Post Office.

ROBERTA BUSWELL

Reis - Matthews

The engagement and wedding plans of their daughter, Mary Diane, were announced by Mr. and Mrs. Jacob John Reis, 3917 W. 187th St., Torrance, at a dinner party given for the future bride on her birthday.

Miss Reiss will wed Coy Rayford Matthews of Hawthorne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lee Matthews of Detroit, Mich., at a nuptial mass on Oct. 8 at St. Catherine Labourer Church.

The bride-elect was graduated from North High School and attended El Camino College. She is employed by the Pacific Telephone Co.

Her fiancé, a graduate of the Clarenceville High School, Livonia, Mich., is also employed by Pacific Telephone.

MARY DIANE REIS