

Cinema Consultant to Address Harbor Area Advisory Council

"Possibilities in TV for the Young Child," will be the topic of a talk given by Dr. Lester Beck, consultant in cinema to the Oregon Division of Higher Education and the U. S. Office of Education, at the annual dinner meeting of the Harbor Area Advisory Council of Family Service of Los Angeles, 6:30 p.m., Friday at St. Mark's Presbyterian Church, 24027 Pennsylvania Ave., Lomita.

The Rev. John V. Worthington, advisory board chairman, who is assistant minister of St. Peter's By the Sea Presbyterian Church in Portuguese Bend, pointed out that "television and its affect on young children is of great interest to parents today."

ing of films just received from Washington, D.C., that picture groups of underprivileged pre-school children and their spontaneous reactions to various types of television programs.

Child development is the special concern of Dr. Beck, along with new instructional methods for the improvement of teaching. He has done a good deal of contact work for the U. S. Office of Education, and for the past year has been working on a special pilot project involving 120 college professors.

Dr. Beck believes that two groups at the opposite ends of the educational spectrum—those teaching the child from one to six years and the college professors—have not been given help in understanding the "theory of learn-

Girl Scout Ceremonies Held Here

Girl Scout Troop 2434 held a pot luck dinner and badge ceremony at the Torrance Scout House during the monthly troop meeting.

Centerpieces for the tables featured dolls dressed in the Girl Scout uniform. The dolls, made from bowling pins, were made during a camp-out. Yellow flowers surrounded the dolls and the four Patrol Banners were placed behind the main table.

Ana del Rio, troop chair-lady, welcomed the Scouts and their mothers. Mrs. Betty Lou Gregory, assistant troop leader, and Mrs. Rose Harris, troop leader, presented badges to the girls.

Ladies serving on the committee include Joan Chap-lor, Pat Fullenwider, Jackie Barbara Jordan, and Mrs. del man, Flo Hainline, Jerri Tay-Hanson, Diane Humphreys, Rio and Mrs. Gregory.
