Closing in On Tanner

The battling for seasonal leadership is getting closer as the motorcycles prepare for the Friday night meet at Ascot Park in Gardena.

First race is set for 8:15 p.m., with gates opening at 7. Dan Haaby, Ralph White, and Guy Louis have moved up to make things interesting for Sammy Turner in the expert class.

The amateur division is wide open in the absence of Pete Bodette, the early season leader, who is out of action with injuries. Tim Harris, Casper (Good) Grief, Bert Ershig and Ron Kruseman are in a tight struggle.

Either the Ascot track is getting faster or the riders are getting better, or maybe it is a combination of the two. But at any rate, the riders have been threatening track records in several races the past couple of Friday evenings.

EDDIE BROWN . . . of Torrance (220) battles Larry Williams of Lawndale and Chuck Phelps of Pacoima during a "thrill-filled" ARA Figure 8 Stock Car races at Gardena's Ascot Park. Racing starts at 7 p.m. Sunday, preceded by time trials.

Two Nights Of Racing Scheduled

Auto racing fans will have two big nights of racing this week-end at Ascot Park in Gardena. A tripleheader program of stock car team races, girl races and a destruction derby are planned for Saturday night at 8:15 p. m., followed by the regular weekly ARA figure 8 stock car races on Sunday evening at 7 p. m.

Sunday evening a 100-car field is expected for the weekly 14-event program of ARAers include Ron Carmen, Dennis and Jerry Meisenzahl, all of Redondo Beach; Jim Lippen and Ed Ferro of Long Beach; Ed Sauer, Bob Queener and Al Knapp of Torrance; Ben Steele, Roy Romo and Lloyd Brooks, all of Gardena.

Festival of Speed Unfolds at Riverside

Southern California drag racing enthusiasts will be treated to a three-day festival of speed and competition June 17, 18 and 19 when the Hot Rod Magazine Drag Racing championships unfold at Riverside International Raceway.

One of the nation's top five drag meets, the Hot Rod Magazine-sponsored event has already drawn nearly 200 entries from all parts of the nation, including popular Tom McEwen of Long Beach, first driver to sign an official entry form.

McEwen, known in drag racing circles as the "Mongoose," will be at the helm of a Class A fuel dragster, a snarling machine in which he has hit speeds in excess of 214 mph.

More than 20 Class AA fuel dragsters already have been entered, and event director Les Richter is predicting the largest field in the three-year history of the meet. Other top ranking names include Mike Sorokin's "The Surfers," Ed Pink's "Old Master," The Green Mountain Boys,

Chuck Griffith in the "Starlite IV," and Dusty Rhodes with the "Rhode Runner."

This year's event is worth more than $20,000 to competitors who will be shooting for honors in the 76 competition classes recognized by National Hot Rod Association. Nine major eliminator titles also will be up for grabs, including the coveted Top Eliminator crown.
