

Life and Girls Still Thrilling

What does a retired police officer do? This one, George (Pa) Henderson, 1216 Date Ave., who celebrated his 85th birthday on June 25, still gets a big kick out of life and probably knows more people in Torrance than anybody else.

Pa lives alone and as regularly as the dawn breaks he's up and out and downtown to meet his buddies for coffee and gather up the happenings of the past 24 hours... and "believe me, nothing thrills me more than Torrance's pretty girls," he admitted, smiling broadly.

The octogenarian was born June 25, 1881 in Pike County, Mo. He came to Los Angeles in 1901. He retired May 25, 1933 after serving 22 years with the Los Angeles Police Department.

He came to Torrance in 1942, and during the war years, 1942 to '46 worked with the Torrance Police Dept. and quite often he is a visitor at the local department.

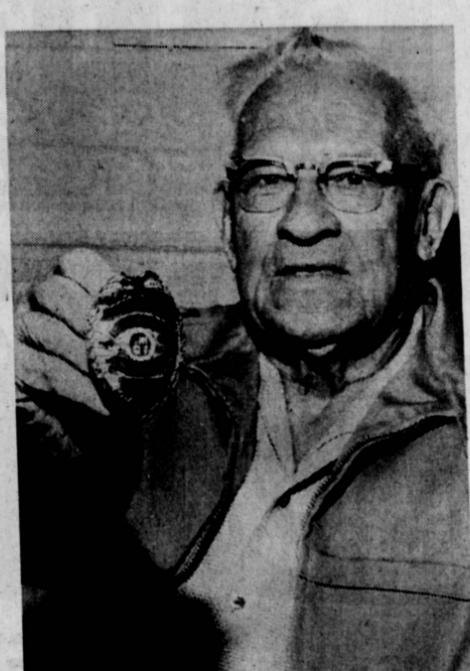

Mr. Henderson is the second oldest member of the Retired Police Officers Assn.

The birthday celebrant is the father of Mrs. Dorothy Rojo, 2503 Arlington; Wayne Henderson, Walnut Calif.; Lester of Riverside; and Gordon of Grants Pass, Oregon. He has four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

On Saturday, June 25, he was honored at a birthday party given by his daughter. A pool-side buffet was served and the honor guest was showered with gifts.

Family members present were his son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Henderson; grandchildren, Linda and Jim; a granddaughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. David MacMillan; great-grandchildren, Kathy, Tom and Cheryl Rippey, all of Fountain Valley. Lester Henderson was here on Thursday bringing birthday gifts and on Sunday, Gordon called from Grants Pass.

Among the other guests were Messrs. and Mrs. Harry Reed, Harold Hartman; Miss Nannette Hartman; Messrs. Henry Treske, Steve Gregorio and Tom Graves.

Old Fashion Ice Cream Social Slated by CDA

An old-fashion ice cream social is the next scheduled event given by Court St. Catherine 1378, Catholic Daughters of America. It will be held on Sunday afternoon, July 10 from 2 to 6 p.m. at the home of Anna Frederickson, 3419 W. 225th St., Torrance. The patio will be filled with tables and chairs, protected by large colorful umbrellas, set among fresh garden flowers. Homemade ice cream, in many flavors, along with homemade cakes or cookies, will be served while guests chat with old friends and make new ones.

A small donation from each guest will also assure the benefit of the CDA Home for retired members, "Madonna Manor" which is new being built in Salinas, and which will be opened on Oct. 1, 1966 to members of the order. The Court has already furnished a room for this home, and this social will help supply games, puzzles, card tables, etc. to enable the new occupants to pursue their favorite hobbies.

Co-chairman with Mrs. Frederickson is Mrs. Arden Landerville. On the committee are Frances Ban, Eileen Barnidge, Dorothy Butterfield, Ivy Egger, Iris Thompson, Florence Eyster, Anita Chenier, Janet Harrington, Margaret Howell, and Mercy Moreta.

Grand Regent, Noreen Derouin, extends an invitation to everyone to attend.

Midwest Houseguests

Double Ring Rites

KURZ-WENDT

In a street length white organza gown, Miss Jeanne Elizabeth Kurz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Kurz, 18402 Yukon Ave. walked down the aisle of the Bethel Lutheran Church in Los Angeles to plight marriage vows with Neil Robert Wendt. Parents of the bridegroom are Dr. and Mrs. Morell W. Wendt of Woodland Hills.

The bridal gown was enhanced with lace and a huge white organza rose held her shoulder-length veil. White roses, encircling white orchids, formed the bridal bouquet.

Miss Cathy Joan Wendt, in a turquoise crepe sheath, and carrying turquoise carnations, was the maid of honor.

C. Edward Munson stood as best man.

Pastor C. Erickson officiated at the vow exchange. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

The new Mrs. Wendt is a graduate of North High School and attended El Camino College. She is employed by the Los Angeles Times.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Lutheran High School, attended San Jose State, San Fernando Valley and California Lutheran colleges. He recently returned from a tour of duty with the United States Army in Italy and Germany. Mr. Wendt is employed by the Pacific Telephone Co.
