

Mothers of Twins Set New Club Year Into Full Motion

Mrs. Jerry Steinbrecher, newly-installed president of the South Bay Mothers of Twins Club, has appointed her chairmen for the coming year. They are Mmes. Sydney Smith, Torrance, bulletin editor; Ralph Coolidge and Lewis Eldredge, Torrance, philanthropy I; Tom Prevo, Torrance, philanthropy III; Tom Leonard, Harbor City, ways and means; Layton Carr, Palos Verdes and Warren Gray, membership.

Others are Mmes. Leroy Cramer, hospitality; W. R. Campbell, Torrance, publicity; Glenn Smith, San Pedro, record book; Thomas Webb, Torrance, social; John Mancuso and Selmer Peterson, Gardena, sunshine; Jack McLaughlin, Redondo Beach, telephone; Samuel Plon, Torrance, exchange table; Jerry Griffith, Redondo Beach, librarian; Joseph Narr, Torrance, floral; William Brodsley, San Pedro, auditor; and Andy Meier, chorus director.

South Bay Mothers of Twins Club will hold its monthly dinner meeting on Monday, July 18, at 7:30 p.m. at the Golden Bull, 198th and Main St., Torrance. Mrs. Steinbrecher will conduct the business meeting at which the budget for the coming year will be presented to the membership for approval. Final details for the family picnic to be held July 24 will also be discussed.

Mrs. Fred Casstevens, first vice-president, announced that Mrs. Marguerite Broen McAllister, chief of patient services at Harbor General Hospital will be the guest speaker. Also on the program will be slides of the past year's club activities.

The monthly exchange table featuring twin clothing and equipment will be available at this meeting, announces Mrs. Samuel Plon, Torrance, chairman.

Any mother of twins or triplets interested in this club may secure additional information from Mrs. Layton Carr, Palos Verdes, membership chairman.

PLOTTING AND PLANNING IN DOUBLE TIME

They think "double" and these new officers of the South Bay Mothers of Twins Club are going to double their work, pleasure and philanthropies for the coming year. This was emphasized as these newly-installed club leaders arrived with two sheets of paper and two pencils to outline their year. They are from left, Mmes. Fred Casstevens, first vice president; Jerry Steinbrecher, president; Bill Strub, second vice president; and James Alexander, treasurer.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Mount St. Mary's Alums Announce New Board

Mrs. Daniel Finnegan of Gardena has been elected 1966-67 president of the Mount St. Mary's College Alumnae Assn. She succeeds Mrs. John Garvin of Manhattan Beach, who remains on the board of directors.

Other officers and board members are Mrs. Robert Stapleford, Torrance, first vice president; Mrs. Charles Sorrentino, San Pedro, second vice president and Mrs. Leonard Carracio, Santa Ana, third vice president.

Mrs. Richard Horst, Santa Monica, is alumnae fund director.

Other board officers include Miss Sherianne Chapman, Van Nuys, recording secretary; Miss Alene Finn, Los Angeles, assistant recording secretary; Mrs. John Haggerty, Van Nuys, treasurer and Mrs. Robert Enos, Granada Hills, publicity chairman.

More are Mrs. John Manning, Sherman Oaks, historian; Miss Margaret Wewer, Downey, campus coordinator; Mrs. William Ambrose, Canoga Park, editorial chairman and Mrs. James MacDonald, Canoga Park, executive secretary.

Sister Rose de Lima, CSJ, is moderator of the 2,000-member organization which won a 1966 honor citation from the American Alumni Council for establishing and maintaining a continuing education program for married women. Mount St. Mary's was the only women's college so honored in the nation.

Local Couples Enjoy Laguna Art Festival

Five local couples spent last Monday in Laguna Beach where they viewed the art exhibits during the day and in the evening had dinner at the Hotel Laguna.

After dinner, the localites attended the "Pageant of the Masters" presented for its 31st year by the city of Laguna.

Enjoying the day in the famous art colony were Messrs. and Mmes. Walter West, Don Lamb, Bill Slonecker, Richard Sprout and James Wass.

SUMMER BRINGS PICNIC IN THE PARK

Paradise Park was the setting Thursday for the Torrance Welcome Wagon Club's annual family picnic. The club furnished the fried chicken dinner and members brought baskets of other goodies and cold drinks. Arriving for the day of fun is the Joseph Fleming family and their guests, from left, Barbara Alexander of Canada, Debbie Barrett, Santa Monica, Mrs. Fleming, publicity chairman for the club, and her son Bobbie. At the right, Mrs. Donald Sturt unpacks a picnic basket.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

JULY 17, 1966

B-1

HONEST IT WON'T HURTI

Mrs. Paul Mitchell, president of the Redondo Beach Dianas, who assisted with the Rabies Clinic held Thursday at the Redondo Beach Bandshell from 6:30 until 9 p.m., explains the procedure to her six-year-old son Scott, who "has to know" before he will allow his cocker spaniel, Meg, to participate. Mrs. Raymond Williams, Diana health chairman, directed Mmes. Christ Saunders, Paul Mitchell, Raymond Shortridge and Peter Kiefer, in assisting with registrations for dogs to be inoculated.

(Press-Herald Photo)

District Legion Auxiliary

Installation Set Tuesday

A local resident, Mrs. Margaret Howell, 20335 Anza Ave., will be installed as president of the 19th District American Legion Auxiliary, Department of California, at an installation ceremony Tuesday evening at 8 p.m. at the Bert S. Crossland Post Legion Hall in Torrance.

Mrs. Howell is a past president of the Bert S. Crossland Unit 170, American Legion Auxiliary.

To be installed with the new district president are Virginia Diez, district first vice president; and Esther Steen, district second vice president. Both are members of the Long Beach American Legion auxiliary.

Lomita Unit 645 Ritual Team will conduct the installation service for the new officers. Jean Keene, Department of California Auxiliary Rehabilitation chairman, will be the installing officer. Bea Truman will give the welcome address and Verna Wynekop, the response.

Among the 250 guests expected will be Mayor and Mrs. Albert Ison; Mrs. Benedict Vomenzind, department president; Mrs. Doyle Keyser, past department president and many past department officers.

MRS. MARGARET HOWELL
... New District President

Join Ranks of Summer Brides

James - Chmara

Miss Terry Lee James, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis C. James, 23201 Ocean Ave., Torrance, walked down the aisle of the St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, on the arm of her father, to exchange her marriage vows with Stefan Chmara. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Karen Chmara, 835 Bay View, Wilmington, and Mr. Stephen Chmara, Yonkers, New York.

Rev. Paul Cox officiated at the double ring ceremony for which the bride was gowned in Chantilly lace sprinkled with opalescent sequins. The full skirt fell into a train and a pearl princess tiara held the illusion veil. She carried a cascade of white roses and orchids.

In shell pink gowns and short veils, attendants were Mrs. Cheryl Gove, her sister's matron of honor; and Mrs. Diedre Simpkin, bridesmaid.

Larry Simpkin was best man and ushers were Louis Kulis and Ralph Gove.

Mrs. Dorothy Tully played the nuptial music. Stanley Porter was soloist.

The reception was held in the church social hall. The honeymoon was spent in Laguna enroute to San Diego where the bridegroom is serving with the United States Army.

The bride attend South High. Her husband is a graduate of South High and attended Harbor College. After his discharge, he will return to Douglas Aircraft.

MRS. STEFAN CHMARA
(Art's Photography)

MRS. RONALD DRYVA
(Photo Arts Studio)

Bridle - Dryva

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald G. Dryva are now at home at 23611 Arlington Ave., Torrance, following their recent wedding at the First Methodist Church in Torrance. Mrs. Dryva is the former Teresa Ann Bridle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Bridle, 22018 Harvard Blvd. Mr. and Mrs. Alex T. Dryva, 1564 223rd St., are parents of the bridegroom.

The bridal gown of white peau de soie was fashioned with a round neckline and elbow sleeves. A lace petal and pearl headpiece held her shoulder-length veil and she carried a Colonial bouquet of white orchids and roses.

Bridal attendants were Miss Diane Berger, maid of honor, and Miss Linda Morris, bridesmaid.

Charles Le Fever stood as best man and Tom Dryva was the usher.

Rev. Arthur Nagel, pastor, conducted the double ring marriage ceremony.

A reception followed at the Jump 'n Jack restaurant.

The bride is a graduate of Narbonne High school and Harbor Junior College. Her husband attended North High School prior to entering the United States Marine Corps serving in Okinawa. He is now employed as a machinist.