CASIMIR
The budget and finance committee of Casimir Elementary PTA met recently at the home of Mrs. Gene Fister. In addition to Mrs. Fister, those in attendance were Mr. Edwin Brown, principal; Mrs. Morton Bassin, PTA president; Mrs. Thomas Bezdeka, treasurer; and Mmes. T. E. Johnston, Lynn Thompson and Jack Davitian.

A tentative budget for the 1966-67 school year was drawn up and ways and means projects were discussed. One of the projects was a series of movies, to be shown in the school cafeteria on Wednesday afternoons during summer school.

A Halloween carnival will be held in October, and in December, a Christmas Bazaar for children only will be opened for the purchase of gifts.

It has been decided that, in addition to regular expenditures and contributions the PTA will finance parties for Casimir students at Christmas time and the end of the year.

COLUMBIA
Columbia PTA Program committee met recently at the school, with Mrs. LeRoy Forehand as chairman. Serving with her are Mmes. Theodore Sax, William Grey, Walter Witte, Charles Breaker, Kenneth Polry, president of Columbia PTA and Mr. Lester Foster, principal.

Plans for the year's program were discussed and the theme chosen. The program includes a visit from Sister John, who is head of the confraternity program for retarded children, of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles.

NEWTON
Mrs. Robert Mills, program chairman for Newton PTA, reported that her committee has decided the theme for the year is to be "Action Through Vision and Understanding."

Mrs. Dottie Hurst, president, announced the budget for the coming year is ready for approval. The Art Fair held at Newton during the summer session proved to be a success.

TOWERS
At the July Executive Board meeting, Mrs. Robert Mitchell, president of Towers PTA, introduced the new principal of Towers Elementary, Mr. Ernest Thom. Also introduced were the incoming Executive Board members.

Chairmen and committees were chosen for Budget, Ways and Means, Program, Membership, Carnival and By-Laws. These chairmen and committees plan to meet before the beginning of school.
