

Round of Activities Set at Fair

Picnics and pigeons, horses and rare birds, plus hundreds of youngsters at day camps will fill August days at the Los Angeles County Fair grounds.

Activities start next Sunday with a pigeon show to be presented by the Southern California Roller Club. The Pomona Valley Arabian Horse Club will stage a horse show on Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 13 and 14. The Tri-County Bird Club's exhibit of rare and unusual birds is planned Aug. 14.

A return engagement of the Brush Arbor Jubilee is set for Saturday evening, Aug. 20. The American Buckskin Register Association will present a horse show Aug. 23.

In between these events will be day camps, private picnics, and the regular Pomona Valley Rod and Gun Club events.

Collection Started for Paperbacks

A drive to collect paperback books was launched today by Red Cross here in an effort to meet the request for books to augment libraries aboard ships headed overseas.

The Red Cross Field Director at the U. S. Naval Station on Terminal Island brought the attention of local Red Cross leaders to this need and ask their help.

Books that will provide light reading and books that are in good shape are most in demand by the military personnel aboard ships.

The Southern District Red Cross Service Center at the corner of First Street and Western Avenue in San Pedro will serve as the collection center.

Books to be donated may be left at the Red Cross Center from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.
