'Virginia Woolf' In Final Weekend

By BETTY SCHROEDER
Final performances of "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?" by Edward Albee are scheduled Friday and Saturday at Chapel Theatre, 4184 W. Pacific Coast Hwy. Capacity crowds have witnessed the performances during the past four weekends.

George Bingham and Nick Boutikoff direct the lighting, while George Foutts is in charge of sound. Bob Morris is stage manager. Reservations for performances Friday or Saturday may be made by calling the box office at 372-9636. Curtain is 8:30 p.m.

Biggest event of the season for Chapel will be the 11th annual dinner-dance, slated Saturday, Aug. 27. Highlight of the event will be the presentation of awards for best actor and actress. Reservations may be made by calling 375-1397. The event will be held at the Indian Village Restaurant with a special hour beginning at 7 p.m. Dinner will be served at 8 p.m. Warren Lavender will be master of ceremonies for the awards.
