

Philharmonic Orchestra Presented Here In Fall Concert

Tickets for the "Concert by the Pacific" on Saturday Sept. 3 at the Marineland Sea Arena are now available and are being reserved at a rapid pace, according to Mrs. Jack Swain, chairman of the event.

Sponsored by the Peninsula Committee for the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, John Green will conduct the full orchestra in a program of popular favorites ranging from Wagner to Gershwin.

Miss Marni Nixon will be the soloist and will sing selections by Puccini, Lehar, Lerner and Lowe, and Jerome Kern.

Approximately 3000 seats are available, and special invitations have been sent to area clubs and social groups. All seats in every price bracket will be reserved, said Mrs. Swain.

Following the concert, holders of the Gold Seal donor tickets will be served a buffet supper at the Galley West restaurant adjacent to the arena.

Aiding Mrs. Swain with the plans are Mmes. Peter Parfitt, president of the local committee, George Babbe, Malcolm Gyllenberg, William E. Hoskin, Lawrence Willson and William Campeau.

Ticket information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Swain or Mrs. Parfitt, or by writing to the Peninsula Committee, Box 2, Palos Verdes Estates 90274.

WHAT WOMEN ARE WEARING AROUND THE WORLD

In keeping with their theme "World Fashions" for their annual Fall Kick Off Luncheon and Fashion Show to be held Aug. 27 at Edgewater Inn, Long Beach, these members of the Harbor District Chapter, American Banking Institute pose in costumes of many lands. From the left, Miss Delores Thwaitis, in Hawaiian attire, places a lei on Mrs. Edward Guerrero, wearing American fashions; while Mrs. Allen Everley, also in American clothes, receives a mantilla from Mrs. Joseph Medel, in a Spanish costume. In the foreground, Mrs. Joseph Lorenzana, in Oriental attire, makes a traditional Oriental bow. Tickets are now on sale for this major social event of the season. (Press-Herald Photo)

Banking Institute Women

Slate Fashion Luncheon

Annual Kick-off Luncheon and Fashion Show, sponsored by the Women's Committee, Harbor District Chapter, American Institute of Banking, will be held at the Edgewater Inn, Pacific Coast Hwy. and Second St., Long Beach, on Saturday, Aug. 27. This event ushers in the Chapter's Fall Educational Program.

"World of Fashion" is the theme of this year's affair, announces Millie White, Women's Committee chairman. Doris Stearns will serve as fashion coordinator and has chosen fashions, carrying out the theme, from Long Beach and Lakewood merchants. Professional models will display the fashions.

Marvin Cloyd, associated with Long Beach Civic Light Opera Association, Community Playhouse, and other Little Theater groups throughout the Long Beach area, will be commentator and will also furnish the music.

An array of door prizes, in keeping with the world theme, will be awarded, among them a set of luggage, a custom tailored suit, and tickets to Melodyland.

This is the first and one of the largest social events of the calendar year. Its purpose is to introduce the American Institute of Banking educational program sponsored by the Harbor District Chapter for the coming year. A schedule of classes will be announced by Peter Weber, United California Bank, Harbor Chapter first vice president, American Institute of Banking.

Many guests from other chapters have made reservations. All bankers and their friends as well as the general public are invited. Anyone wishing reservations may contact the Women's Committee representative in any bank.

MUSIC BY THE SEA

Delighted at the prospect of presenting the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra in concert at the Marineland Sea Arena on Saturday, Sept. 3, are members of the Peninsula Committee for the orchestra, Mrs. Jack Swain, left, and Mrs. Peter Parfitt. Mrs. Swain is chairman of the "Concert by the Pacific" and Mrs. Parfitt, is president of the organization. Tickets, now on sale, may be secured by contacting either Mrs. Swain or Mrs. Parfitt. (J. Barry Herron photo)

Jaycettes to Stage

Members Party

Board members of the Torrance Jaycettes will entertain at their annual get-acquainted party honoring new and prospective members tomorrow at the home of Mrs. Harold Lindborg, 22625 Lupine Dr., newly-installed president of the Jaycettes.

Guests will be greeted by board members wearing their official costumes, floral ponchos and white capris. These costumes, made by the Jaycettes, are worn at club functions as well as the State Convention held recently in Palm Springs.

Board members are Mmes. Lindborg, Mrs. Ronald Davis, immediate past president; James Hussey, second vice president; Mike Zappitelli, recording secretary; Ralph Grippo, corresponding secretary; Dempsey Morris, treasurer; Robert Vroman, Douglas Hedde and Ronald Davis, directors.

Luncheon will be served at poolside tables decorated with floral arrangements. Party hours are 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. during which swimming will be enjoyed.

Mrs. Ronald Davis, immediate past president, will conduct an orientation session for the prospective members.

This annual event is a prelude to the beginning of an active year for the Jaycettes, whose calendar includes a barbecue at the beach, a night at the theater, and an old-fashioned family picnic on Labor Day when they will be joined by their husbands, the Jaycees.

POOLSIDE PARTY FOR NEW MEMBERS

Torrance Jaycettes will gather tomorrow at the home of their president, Mrs. Harold Lindborg, to entertain a group of prospective new members at a swim party and luncheon. At this get-acquainted affair, Mrs. Ronald Davis, past president, will discuss the purpose of the organization and its calendar for the new year. Making last minute plans are, from left, Mmes. Ralph Grippo, corresponding secretary and Ronald Davis, going over list of details, while Mrs. Marty Lewis, prospective member, looks over the new swim suit fashions preparing to attend the event. (Press-Herald Photo)

Pilot Club Will Meet Tomorrow

The Pilot Club of Torrance, an International Business Woman's Club, will hold its business meeting tomorrow, Aug. 18, at 1335 Maple Ave.

The Executive Board meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. and the business meeting at 8 p.m.

CONVENTION PLANNERS

South Bay hostesses will entertain approximately 500 out-of-state feminine visitors to the Southland this month when the Western Electronic Show and Convention gets under way in Los Angeles Aug. 23. Helping plan a four-day social program for the guests are, from left, Mmes. John D. Vickrey, Torrance; Leo Hinchcliff, Palos Verdes; Richard Lepper, Manhattan Beach; Walter Peterson, Palos Verdes Estates; and John Melville, Westchester. Highlight of the week will be the Bienvenidas Fashion Luncheon on Aug. 25 at the Statler Hilton Pacific Ballroom. (Vanguard Photography)

Future Brides

Bertrand - Lish

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Bertrand of Lancaster, formerly of Torrance, announce the engagement of their daughter, Donna Jean, to Douglas L. Lish, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cook of Anaheim.

The wedding will be solemnized Sept. 10 in Long Beach.

The bride-elect, a 1962 graduate of North High School, attended Antelope Valley Junior College. At North High, she was Homecoming Princess and "Miss Friendship". Miss Bertrand was crowned "Miss Lancaster", 1963-64. She is employed as a secretary at Douglas, Long Beach.

Her fiancé, a 1956 Antelope Valley High graduate, attended San Jose State and was graduated from San Diego College. He served in the Counter Intelligence Corps 1962-65 and is with the Western State Life Insurance Co. in Orange County.

DONNA BERTRAND (Trehearne Studio)

LePont - Backus

Mr. and Mrs. Roger W. LePont, 25221 Eshelman Ave., Lomita, announce the engagement of their daughter, Yvonne Anne, to Lee Backus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Backus of Hawthorne.

The wedding will take place Aug. 27.

Miss LePont is a 1963 graduate of Narbonne High and is attending California State in Long Beach. She will receive her degree in June 1967.

Mr. Backus is a graduate of Narbonne High and El Camino, where he was a member of Phi Beta Chi. In June this year, he received his BS degree from California State at Long Beach. The future bridegroom is a member of the Vintage Chevrolet Club of America.

YVONNE LePONT