

Registrars to Visit 46th District Homes

Persons who wish to register to vote but are handicapped by illness, family duties, or lack of transportation may have special deputy registrars call at their homes.

The new service was announced this week by Lee Solomon, Redondo Beach city councilman and Democratic candidate for the State Assembly in the 46th District.

Solomon said any person who is in need of help to register may telephone his office at 525 S. Pacific Coast Hwy., Redondo Beach. He will arrange for a deputy registrar to call at the person's home.

Deputy registrars also will be on duty at his office for persons who are able to visit

Douglas Gets New Contract

Award of a $650,000 Air Force contract to the Douglas Aircraft Co., Inc., was announced today. The contract is for the development of an advanced stabilized escape system for all USAF jet aircraft.

Work on the contract will be performed at the Douglas Division's interior design section in Long Beach.

Best Band Named by Teenagers

The "Fantastic I.B.M.s" have been judged best of the bands by teenagers in the first annual "Best of the Bands" competition sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department.
