

Surveyor Photos Take Audiences to the Moon

The timely show, "A Trip to the Moon," now at Griffith Park Observatory's planetarium theater, carries the spellbound audience on a simulated "charter flight" to the surface of the moon.

Dr. Clarence H. Clemens, director of the Los Angeles City Recreation and Parks Department facility, points out that the latest lunar photographs returned by Surveyor I dispel the theories that the moon surface is covered with layers of dust, but rather indicates the possibility of solid landing areas for future moon shots.

THE MOST recent Surveyor I photos are projected on the theater's 75-foot domed ceiling to clearly confirm the outer space.

Armchair travelers enjoy the exciting sensation of being "zoomed" through space by means of the giant Zeiss projector, which realistically brings into focus the vast expanse of celestial objects in outer space.

"A TRIP to the Moon" is presented daily at 3, 8 and 9:15 p.m. with extra matinees at 1:30 and 4:30 p.m. on weekends and holidays.

Admission fee to the planetarium theater is 75 cents for adults and 30 cents for students 5 through 18.

Visitors to the Observatory can also survey the collection of scientific exhibits in the Hall of Science.

A WINNER... Mrs. Alvin Miller of 5316 Bindewald Road accepts a check for $500 from Jim Gastelum, manager of Von's market at Pacific Coast Highway and Calle Mayor. Mrs. Miller won the $500 by playing "Let's Go to the Races," a television program sponsored by Von's Markets. (Press-Herald Photo)

Semi-Finals in Slo-Pitch Set For This Friday

The semi-finals of the 1966 So. California Municipal Athletic Federation's Slo-Pitch Tournament are scheduled this Friday night at 7:00 and 8:15, with the championship game Saturday night at 8:00 at Torrance Park on the corner of Arlington and Santa Fe Streets.

The tournament opened last weekend at Torrance, McMaster, and Walteria Parks. One of the pre-tourney favorites, the Gardena Royals breezed past the Silver Slippers 8-0 and the Santa Ana Rebels 16-1. The Tappa Kegs moved into the quarter finals by defeating the Beer Kegs 7-3, and the Wild Mustangs advanced by rolling past the P.V. Merchants 8-2.

One of the more exciting games of the tourney was between the L.B. Navy and Zany Zoo, with the Navy edging out a win 3-2, with the winning run coming across at the bottom of the seventh.

Other teams that advanced into the quarter finals were Kel Realty over the Pomona Fire Dept. 12-4, Hughes Hustlers crushing North American Aviation 10-0, and Fontana which ripped the Flight Division 8-0. Local No. 1117 defeated the L.B. Youngbloods by forfeit.

Lecture on Teenagers Scheduled

Al Jarvis, popular radio and television personality will speak Friday at the Torrance Family YMCA, 2900 W. Sepulveda Blvd., at 8 p.m. The lecture is the last in a series being sponsored by Wingrock School of Torrance.

"Were Your Parents a Problem When You Were Alive?" is the subject of the lecture. Jarvis will discuss teenagers, as well as his experiences in radio and television during the past 25 years.

"There are two reasons why I'm an authority on teenagers," Jarvis explains, "Jeff and Jon (his sons) are one. The other is the fact that I once attended a Beatles' concert at the Hollywood Bowl."

Lucky Market Now Under Way

Construction of a $300,000 Lucky Discount supermarket at 60th Street and Atlantic Boulevard in Long Beach is under way. The new market will contain 20,800 square feet.
