Dear R.G.: From the most reliable source on the West Coast (The Marin County Beatles Fan Club), we learn Paul fell off his bike two months ago while visiting John Lennon. And 12 stitches put his upper lip together. Paul might have been speeding away from John in anger as a result of their argument over John's anti-religious views.

Dear Mr. Connolly: I was wondering if you could tell me if George and Steve Reeves are any relations? I watch George as Superman—could you tell me what happened to him? — J. N., San Mateo, Calif.

Dear J.N.: Steve and George Reeves are no relation. Regarding George, he committed suicide six years ago. We're sorry to tell you that, if you're a fan of his.

Dear Sir: As the spokesman for a law firm employing many "Peyton Place" fans, we are against any change in their format. Please don't let them "kill off" Dorothy Malone. There are enough young people in the show now. At present it appeals to all ages. If they want to change "P P" into another "Hullabaloo," they can forget it. — D.M.L.V., Philadelphia, Penn.

Dear D.M.L.V.: You've said it — let's hope your point is well taken.

Dear Mike: I've always wanted to be a star in a movie but my acting ability is unknown. Could you tell me where I could act and

Dear C.K.: Since I don't know your age, we'll have to start at the beginning. First, get parts in your school plays. This is the most important. If your directors encourage you, try for roles in plays given by your city's local dramatic societies. Then if you are still eager, search out a dramatic coach. But above all, learn as much about acting as possible AT HOME. When you become rich enough to strike out on your own ready to win every beauty contest being, try Hollywood, being fully prepared for at least five years of struggling. "Success overnight" is just a catch phrase and never true.

Dear Mike: We have a very ardent fan in our family of "Combat." He believes it to be filmed in the World War II zone of France and Germany. I think it must be filmed in Hollywood — can you help us? Thank you. — P.A., San Francisco, Calif.

Dear P. A.: Dislike disillusioning anyone, but "Combat" is filmed on the backlot of Metro. The sets are most realistic, we saw just last week.

Dear Sir: Would you please settle a discussion regarding Frank Sinatra? I say his children's mother's name is Nancy Sinatra, the same as his daughter and his son's is the same as his. I say he's been married since his divorce from Nancy and my sister says it's not true. Right or wrong? — S.W., Dallas, Texas.

Dear S.W.: You're right all the way. Frank married and divorced Ava Gardner.

Dear Sir: In the movie, "Doctor Zhivago" Farek Sharif plays Yuri Zhivago at the age of 8. Could you please tell me if he is the son of Omar Sharif? — M. W., Oakland, Calif.

Dear M.W.: Yes, that is Omar's son in the movie—how could you possibly miss the resemblance?
