

New Sale Of Bonds Ordered

County supervisors have authorized sale of another $55 million in 1958 and 1964 storm rain bonds to finance construction work on the programs. Board Chairman Burton W. Chace has announced. The action was recommended by County Flood Control District Chief Engineer Walter J. Wood. Chace said $30 million in 1958 bonds will be offered which represent the final block under the program. Proceeds will underwrite cost of the remaining projects said to be built as part of the $225 million undertaking. Thirteen previous sales have been held. An additional $25 million in 1964 bonds will go on the block which is expected to finance construction through the spring of next year. Chace said.

Dear Mike: Never having written in about ANY movie personality, I feel you best could answer my interest. Have just seen Sidney Poitier in "Patch of Blue" and have never been so impressed by an actor. He plays such a warm, understanding and yet swinging person on the screen. I can't help but wonder if he is in reality the same kind of person. J. N. Mill Valley, Calif.

Dear J.N.: In our talking with Sidney, he's always proved to be exactly that: "warm, understanding and yet a swinging" individual. And we're sure that because of these qualities, his fine talent comes forth and makes him the actor so much in demand that he is.

Dear Mr. Connolly: Why are you always picking on us longhaired kids? D.Z. Memphis.

Dear D.Z.: I'm not always picking on you. I think it's wonderful that you never have to comb your hair or wash.

Dear Sir: Please tell us what ever happened to Randolph Scott? My husband and I always enjoyed his acting and thought he and John Wayne the best of the "westerners." C. and R.S., El Monte.

Dear C. and R.S.: Randolph Scott invested his earnings most wisely in real estate in San Fernando Valley and in Palm Springs. As a result, he and his wife live like the multimillionaires they are.

Dear Mr. C.: Is Robert Vaughn married? If so, does he have any children? How many? Etc.? A.B. Houston.

Dear A.B.: Don't mean to be harsh with you A.B., but with the reams of publicity on Vaughn in "Man From U.N.C.L.E.," we'd think you'd know Bob's never married but that he dated actress Joyce Jameson for years and is now dating many of the young actresses.

Dear Mike: We are having several arguments (discussions). Here are a few. Is Elsa Martinelli the daughter of Marlene Dietrich? Is Eva Marie Saint? How old was Robert Walker Sr. when he died? R.R.C. & S.R., Mountain View, Calif.

Dear R.R.C. & S.R.: Neither Elsa nor Eva Marie are daughters of Marlene Dietrich. Your confusion stems from fact that Marlene's daughter is Marie Steber Riva. Robert Walker Sr. was about 33 when he died.

Dear Mike: Could you please tell me how the Italian mouse — Topo Gijo — on the Ed Sullivan Show, works? Mrs. F.M.J., Daly City, Calif.

Dear Mrs. F.M.J.: I'm sorry I can't reveal the secret and spoil everybody's fun. However, if you write Ed Sullivan in New York at CBS and he tells you, that's another story.

Dear Mike: Would you please settle a bet and I hope I win. My friend says Robert Lansing is married. I claim he's divorced as I read and saw a photograph of him with Mia Farrow at a social gathering. Mrs. F.N. Kaiser, Lautern, Germany.

Dear Mrs. F.N.: I believe this is one way rumors get started. Many Hollywood stars get together at social gatherings and some are very close friends. Lansing has been married to actress Emily McLaughlin for more than ten years and they have one son, Bob Jr. And even if you live in Germany you know that Mia married Frank Sinatra! At present Bob Lansing is filming his new series, "The Man Who Never Was" in Germany, and if you watch your papers and magazines carefully, you might be able to locate and meet him in person.

Dear Mike: I would like to know how the late Jeff Chandler was rated as an actor? Good? Fair? Poor? Where can I obtain a picture of him if they are still available? S.W., Houston.

Dear S.W.: You could safely rate Jeff Chandler as a very good actor and I don't think you should get any arguments. His fellow actors held a very high opinion of him. For his photograph, please write to: The Publicity Department, Universal Studios, Universal City, Calif.
