

School to Begin Drive For Expanded Facility

Organization of a non-profit group to head a special expansion drive for Scherich's South Bay School, a school for children with learning problems, has been announced by Warren H. Scherich.

Purpose of the organization will be to seek funds for the expansion of existing facilities and the building of a residence hall and a medical and psychological evaluation center.

The school, opened six months ago, is located at 1108 S. Prospect St., Redondo Beach.

CHIEF AIM of the school's program is to identify learning problems, then provide instruction which will return the child to his chronological age level in a regular school as quickly as possible, Scherich explained.

Once a child is accepted at the school, parents are interviewed and asked to provide a complete history of the child. All medical and school records are requested so that a complete evaluation can be made. If such records are not available, medical examinations are made and a series of tests given to help determine the nature of the learning problem.

MONTHLY evaluations are made to determine the progress of a student and a parent education program is scheduled regularly at the school.

During its six years of operation, Scherich's School has enrolled 50 youngsters from kindergarten through the 11th grade. Twenty-five have returned to a regular classroom, 11 moved before completing the program, four dropped out, and 10 are still enrolled.

Individuals or groups wishing to aid the drive to expand the school's facilities may contact Scherich at the school, 1108 S. Prospect St., Redondo Beach.
