Spartans Speak

By Terry Dorn

It looks like it's the same old routine again, huh, Spartans? There'll be lots of studying (ugh!), lost of cramming (choke!), and plenty of now jobs, too. I know that sounds very exciting but try and calm yourself down. It'll be all over in a year. But don't let that get you down.

Try and remember all the activities that will come on the way. If you get too distraught just try and think about how nice the beach it, and that will soothe your mind. Anyway, speaking about activities, for openers, last Friday night South held its annual Green and White Game. The Spartans were introduced to their new football squad and drill team. The response was fantastic! Of course the Spartans were victorious. What else could they have done? Anyway, there'll be more games ahead—and dances, too.

It seems to me that the senior class surpasses any previously. No offense alumni, I seems to be a little biased. I guess you were pretty good in your day. Also, I'd like to say a special hello to all the freshman class. Hello freshman class, I've got something very important to say that should involve all of you. Coming up soon will be the freshman elections. Let's have a big turn out.

BY THE WAY, I was in the in the activities office Friday afternoon and already it is buzzing with the sound of people running around crazy-wild. There were about 20 people in there making posters such as: "The South Will Rise Again" and "Support Your Local Football Team." Be sure and join Boys' and Girls' League activities as fast as you can. Don't be surprised if they decide to take over the Student Council. No, no, just kidding.

Student body cards and annuals are on sale for $4.50. Be sure to purchase them now. Remember with an ASB card Spartans can get in free to all the football games and other activities as well.

SENIOR RINGS can be ordered in K-1. If you didn't get around to buy one last year, here is your big chance. This Friday night when South meets Jordan High there will be an after-game dance. Don't miss it. It promises to be one of the highlights of the year.

Okay, now, I expect to see all of you at our football games and yelling, "We're from South High, couldn't be prouder."
