Dear Sirs: My boyfriend never read anything about him. Can you tell us if he's married and why he avoids publicity? Thank you. —E.L., Newark, N.J.

Dear E.L.: Basehart was born Aug. 31, 1914. He married Valentina Cortese and they have a son, Jackie, born in 1950. He may avoid publicity because he doesn't want to answer questions about his personal life. And then if one is working in a TV series, it means the interviews have to be done mainly on Saturdays and Sundays. Some actors prefer some time to themselves.

Dear Mike: Is Robert Vaughn a little jealous that David McCallum got most of the publicity when Robert should have gotten it? I saw Frank Sinatra in "Assault on the Queen" and I think he's wonderful. Will he be making any more movies? How does Judy Garland really feel about her daughter's wonderful success? —D. H., Short Hills, N.J.

Dear D.H.: You've given us a page full. Vaughn may be a little jealous of David but I don't think anyone will ever really find out. Besides, who's to say who should get the most publicity? Frank Sinatra is now making "The Naked Runner" in Denmark. And he plans to make "The Chairman" and "The Detective" in the near future. You can bet that Judy feels toward her daughter Liza's success the same way any mother would feel . . . very happy.

Dear D.K.: You are right. Almost. She was born Nov. 5, 1940.

Dear Question Box: Are Bing Crosby's four oldest boys his own or are they adopted?—Y.B.M., Westville, N.H.

Dear M.O.: Mr. Rennie was born August 25, 1909. He has one son, David Rennie, born in 1953 to his wife, Maggie McGrath. He then sued Maggie for divorce in 1959 and some years later married Mary Gardner, the ex-Mrs. Otto Preminger. Mike Rennie appears in the TV series "Lost in Space."

Dear Mr. Connolly: While listening to the radio, I realized the similarity between Trini Lopez and Roy Orbison. Then I thought how great Trini would sound doing Roy's songs. I got the idea of writing to you because you wrote the notes on Trini's albums. So could you possibly send me the address of Reprise records so I could write to them about Trini?—L.F., Millbourne, Penna.

Dear L.F.: You may have something there. Please write to Trini in care of: Warner Bros. Reprise Records, 4000 Warner Blvd., Burbank, Calif.

Dear Mike: What has happened to Richard Egan since "Empire" went off TV? Does he have a new TV show? Where can I write to him?—L.B., Houston, Tex.

Dear L.B.: Richard Egan, as of the moment, is busy working in his new movie, "Chubasco" off the coast of Mexico. You may write to him in care of Warner Warner Bros., 4000 Warner Blvd., Burbank, Calif.

Dear Mike: The girls in my office are crazy about a fine actor by the name of Richard Basehart. We've

Bank Aide Gets Trip To Hawaii

Shirley Wernecke of 3754 W. Artesia Blvd., is one of 22 United California Bank employees throughout the state who have won two-week vacations for two in Hawaii in the bank's "Yours for the Asking" sales incentive contest.

Miss Wernecke, assigned to the bank's Los Angeles Headquarters tabulating department, left Sunday on the two-week island excursion.

The contest, held Feb. 14 through July 30 of this year, offered UCB employees at more than 190 branch offices throughout California a wide variety of prizes in exchange for banking services sold.

All participants were assigned to teams which competed in 22 leagues. A specific number of points was awarded for each service sold, and the top point winner in each league won a trip to Hawaii.

UCB employees received prizes ranging from color television sets to outboard motors by selling such banking services as checking and savings accounts, loans, safe deposit boxes, and trust services.
