

YOU MAY SEE "MOONLIGHTING WIVES" EVERY NITE AS LATE AS 11 P.M.

HELP WANTED, FEMALE 96
YOUNG, ATTRACTIVE WOMEN
 For part-time night work. Must be broad-minded and available on short notice. High pay and glamorous surroundings. Confidential. Exciting. Box 6800.

GIRLS to $175 a week. Attract. exp. or exp. duties. ANDICAN opportunities. IBM NEED in 11, vic. 679-98

 25 rew. 49
 674
 old 484
 sam. 678
 whi.

This Is The Want-Ad That Touched Off A Disgraceful Morals Explosion... That Rocked And Shocked An Entire City With UNPRINTABLE SCANDAL!

Sorry... We Can Not Show You Scenes From This Movie In Our Ads. We Do Not Want To Offend Shy Or Prudish People.

FILMED IN COLOR...AS IT REALLY HAPPENED!

"MOONLIGHTING WIVES"

THIS PROGRAM IS RECOMMENDED FOR ADULTS

Second Feature!

TIRED OF THE OLD? GET WITH IT... THE "MOD" WAY!

PAUL NEWMAN
JOANNE WOODWARD

A NEW KIND OF LOVE

TECHNICOLOR®

ETHELMA RITTER/EVA GABOR MAURICE CHEVALIER

VERMONT DRIVE-IN VERMONT AT ARTESIA
 DA 3-4055

SAN PEDRO DRIVE-IN GAFFEY SOUTH OF ANAHEIM
 TE 1-3370

NOW SHOWING

Chapel Breaks the Rule With 'How to Succeed...'

By JERRY REYNOLDS, Press-Herald Staff Writer

As a rule, musical comedy and little theatre don't mix well. But the current production of "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying" at Chapel Theatre is a pleasant and surprising exception to the rule.

Most little theatre groups simply don't have the resources—from active players and singers to cash—to stage the big, brassy musicals with success, especially when 20 or 25 good voices are needed.

But Chapel Theatre has rewritten the rules with its current production of the Frank Loesser-Abe Burrows spoof of big business.

"How to Succeed . . ." is the story of a young man's rapid rise in the business world despite his lack of business acumen. He does it by duping everyone and he does it with such ease that one realizes what's happening until it's too late.

The young man, J. Pierpont Finch, is played superbly by Don Mallon, whose impish characterization is a genuine delight. Mallon is an accomplished performer who last appeared as Mr. Roberts in Chapel's production last season.

Mallon's singing is good and his aside smiles—usually just after he's succeeded in duping the next man—are about the best laugh-getters in the production.

Appearing in the role of J. B. Biggely, tycoon extraordinary of the World Wide Wicket Co., is Dick Jordahl. He's the perfect stuff-shirt and probably the smoothest actor on the stage. His last appearance at Chapel was in "The Big Knife" several years back.

Jordahl, this year's best actor winner at the Palos Verdes Playhouse, could be well on the way to winning Chapel's best actor award for the current season.

As Rosemary, Finch's love interest, Anne Childress is pleasant. A two-time best actress winner at Chapel, she is outstanding in such musical numbers as "Happy to Keep His Dinner Warm" and "Rosemary." But Miss Childress is occasionally guilty of over-acting—something that's easy to do in "How to Succeed . . ."

One of the best supporting casts to be assembled at Chapel backs up the trio of stars. As Frump, nephew of the boss and Finch's would-be slayer, Glenn Hoefner steals several scenes with his cavorting about the stage.

Others who contribute to the success of the show are Barbara Vrooman as Smitty; Celeste Clinton as Hedy; Mr. Biggely's weakness; Billy Creamer as Bratt, the yes-man; and Moneca Vance as Jonesy, Biggely's secretary and Finch's unwitting cohort.

Especially noteworthy are a trio of male singers who are part of the chorus for two of the show's big numbers—"The Company Way" and "The Brotherhood of Man." They are Bill Ennis, Jim by Mrs. Palmer, who designed the stage setting (they're of cardboard for easy movement since 26 scene changes are necessary) and George Bingham, the spotlight technician. Director Fred West has overcome the natural disadvantages of Chapel's small stage to present an entertaining and very professional performance.

Only one little bit of funny business continues to mar Chapel performances—the hassle for seats. That, we think, could be remedied in five minutes with a paint brush. NUMBER THOSE SEATS!

(But we work for you anyway—even if you don't own a single share.)

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA GAS COMPANY
 (Investor-owned company of the Pacific Lighting System)

...Princess

(Continued from C-4)

the country. "And it'll be an even 100 by the end of the year," says Col. Chuck.

And would you believe 41 tons of chicken served in his other two stores just during the months of July and August? Well 'tis the truth and it's a bet from here he'll better that in his third location right by the Harbor Freeway.

At a recent meeting in Chicago, the Kentucky Fried Chicken was signally honored by receiving a nomination to the Restaurant Hall of Fame and that's no mean achievement.

Attorney Heads

Sherman Forces

Lawrence (Lorry) Sherman, Democratic candidate for Congress in the 28th Congressional District, announced today the appointment of David Robertson as chairman of his 46th Assembly District Campaign Committee.

Robertson, a resident of Manhattan Beach, is an attorney with offices in Redondo Beach. He currently serves as a member of the Los Angeles County Democratic Central Committee and is a past president of the Manhattan Beach Democratic Club.

George says, "lease where the money is."

It's the soundest pitch since the dollar across the Potomac.

Del Amo Financial Center.

Three towers each with 13 floors of custom offices and plenty of parking.

A smog-free view from Mt. Wilson to the sea. (From here, not Mt. Wilson.)

Some prime office seekers have been enticed over by the non-harassed access to the airport, coastal homes and freeways.

In fact, Financial Center tenants Union Bank, United California Bank and Western Federal Savings have already picked out their interior color schemes.

Of course the real plum is the 100-plus firms already there filled with people waiting to do business.

So if you're looking for a solid business foundation (we poured ours last week) check our on-site leasing office at Hawthorne Boulevard and Carson Street (across from Bullock's).

It's stocked with brochures and consultants with all sorts of hard facts about why you should move in, too.

Just call (213) 370-5832 or write Great Lakes Realty Corp., Del Amo Financial Center, Torrance, California.

DEL AMO FINANCIAL CENTER

A PRODUCT OF GREAT LAKES PROMOTERS, INC.
 AND BUILDERS BLAZER & ASSOC.