

Be An Angel

BENEFIT MUSICALES AND FASHION SHOWS

Philharmonic Orchestra of Los Angeles will benefit from the three Angel Luncheons slated during the coming season at the Los Verdes Country Club by the Peninsula Committee. Artists will be presented along with new fall and winter fashions. Carrying out their theme these three members pose with two "Angels," as they plan their first event, Oct. 31. They are from left, Mmes. Edward Cleveland, James C. Foley, luncheon chairman, and C. H. Graham. Mrs. Leonard J. Heilman, 2505 Via Selva, Palos Verdes Estates, may be called for tickets. (Press-Herald Photo)

For Support of Philharmonic Orchestra Angel Luncheons Set

Peninsula Committee for the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra have just mailed their invitations for the second annual Angel Luncheon series starting Oct. 31, with the second on Jan. 31 and the final one March 29, 1967 at the Los Verdes Country Club.

Mrs. James C. Foley, the Angel Luncheon chairman, and Mrs. Peter C. Parfitt, the group's president, have planned that each luncheon will feature a fashion show and a special musical program.

The first event will have the versatile singer Salli Terri and her ensemble with a repertoire of American folk music.

The second luncheon presents Elizabeth Waldo and her musicians, playing Latin American songs; then the last event will have the Kayoko Wakita group with music from Japan.

All who attend these unusual luncheon series, the organization's only fund raising affair, in turn become an angel to the Los Angeles Philharmonic orchestra. The money raised from the series contributes to the support and continuance of this fine city orchestra.

On the committee assisting Mrs. Foley are Mmes. C. H. Graham, Marshall Bialosky, Russell B. Williams, Richard A. Kramer, Lorrin C. Tarlton, Jr., Lewis J. Ewing, Leonard J. Heilman, Edward S. Cleveland and Stanley K. Arthurs.

For ticket information, Mrs. Leonard J. Heilman, 2505 Via Selva, Palos Verdes Estates, may be called.

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

SEPT. 25, 1966

B-1

Patricia Brislin Weds in Burlingame

A wedding of local interest was solemnized at a 10 o'clock nuptial mass at the Our Lady of Angels Catholic Church in Burlingame on Sept. 10, when Miss Patricia Brislin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Brislin of Millbrae, formerly of Torrance, was married to John Thomas Glenn. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Glenn of San Mateo.

Mr. Brislin escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore an empire gown of white silk-faced peau de soie, fashioned with a scoop neckline and bell sleeves. Alencon lace appliques enhanced the gown and the long train which fell from the shoulders. The imported silk illusion ballerina bridal veil cascaded from a pearl and lace cap. The bridal bouquet was of white roses, stephanotis and orchids.

Three sisters, daughters of the Lyle O'Horas of Torrance, were included in the bridal entourage. Miss Colleen O'Hara was maid of honor and Misses Judy and Jill O'Hara were bridesmaids. Other attendants were Mrs. Rex Joslin and Miss Emily Lopretti. They were gowned in sage green crepe sheaths and wore short matching veils. Their bouquets were of orange-gold Warby Abby roses.

Alfred Ferrer stood as best man and ushers were Daniel Perry, Todd Zuker, Clyde Beffa, James Stockwell and Rex Joslin.

Rev. Richard of the Capuchin Franciscan Fathers officiated at the double ring ceremony.

A champagne reception for the 150 guests was held at the Brislin home in Millbrae. Miss Christine Donish of Torrance registered the guests. The newlyweds are now at home at 19 D South Fairways, Washington State University, Pullman, Wash.

The bride attended Bishop Montgomery High School and was graduated from Mercy High School. She received her AA degree from San Mateo City College in June.

Her husband attended the Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs for one year, the San Mateo City College and is now in his second year at Washington State, where he is a trainer for the football squad.

Others from Torrance attending the wedding were Messrs. and Mmes. Howard Hood, E. K. Cunningham and Lyle O'Hara.

DISPENSING HOSPITALITY

At the Membership Tea given Wednesday afternoon by the Torrance Woman's Club, Mrs. Lee Stamps, left, past president, serves club guests, from left, Mmes. John Howland, Vernon Nicles, Morton Diener, Verlon Bradshaw, Kenneth Veldheer, Frank Tomlinson, John Mathews and Robert Morris. Mrs. Richard Dorothy was chairman of the membership event and members of the executive board served as hostesses.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Torrance Woman's Club

Annual Membership Tea

Torrance Woman's Club, 1422 Engracia Ave., was the scene of a festive Membership Tea last Wednesday afternoon when the club entertained new and prospective members. Mrs. Richard Dorothy, membership chairman, was in charge of the event.

Members of the executive board served as hostesses for the afternoon affair. They are Mmes. Ted Olson, president; William Faulds, Richard Dorothy and Fred Sandstrom, vice presidents; R. L. Rudy, recording secretary; Clayton Lilley, corresponding secretary; Arch C. Boyd, treasurer; E. J. Lenk, auditor; H. F. Heinlein, ways and means; William Mossman, reservations; H. M. Cahill, program; R. L. Orsini, yearbook; and Dean L. Sears, parliamentarian.

New and prospective members honored were Mmes. Robert W. Morris, Kenneth Veldheer, Morton Diener, Frank Tomlinson; Verlon Bradshaw, Vernon Nicles, John Howland, J. T.

Mathews, Robert Winship and D. J. Thomson.

Mrs. Alma Smith and Mrs. C. T. Lilley welcomed the guests who signed the register at which Mrs. R. L. Orsini presided.

During the afternoon, Mrs. Olson gave a history of the growth of Torrance and the Woman's Club and introduced her executive board.

Mrs. Hugh Cahill, program chairman, outlined the club program for the coming year.

Members and guests enjoyed refreshments served from a lace covered table centered by an arrangement of gladioli, carnations and asters in graduating shades of pink, and flanked by deep pink candles in silver holders. The table decorations were done by Mrs. Roy Apey and Mrs. Victor Benstead.

Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Lee Stamps and Mrs. Andrew Acampora, both past presidents of the Torrance Woman's Club.

TURN BACK THE CLOCK

Childhood memories will abound Tuesday evening when the Torrance Ladies of the Elks don costumes of their school days and attend a "Kid's Party" at their clubhouse, 1820 Abalone. Members and guests are invited to enjoy an evening of relay races, musical chairs, pin-the-tail-on-the-donkey, and other "kid" games. There will be prizes and ice cream cones and candy. In the party mood are, from left, Mmes. Carl L. Stiles, Larry Hannan, James Holbert and Don Lemen. Mrs. Altha Lancaster is in charge of the party. (Press-Herald Photo)

CDA Juniors Take Part In Fashion Show

Junior Catholic Daughters of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles will stage a fashion show on Saturday, Oct. 8, at the Coconut Grove in the Ambassador Hotel, 3400 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles.

"The Magic of Aladdin's Lamp" is the theme of the affair and there will be genies as well as models to portray the illusion of magic.

New fall fashions for women as well as juniors will be displayed by a South Gate fashion salon. Lots of door prizes are included in the price of admission.

Torrance's Junior Court St. Catherine 1378 will take an active part in the fashion show. Junior Laurie Walker will model, as well as Mrs. Charles Butterfield, chairman of the juniors.

Genii from Court St. Catherine will include Jean Klaesges, Christine Hughes, Patty, Judy and Terry Lewellen.

The public is invited to attend the fashion show and may secure tickets by calling Mmes. Charles Butterfield, Robert Klaesges, Robert Lewellen or Mrs. Louie Derouin, grand regent.