

American Fashions We Love

May Co. salutes fashion's young talents with good old American know-how. Never have clothes been more stylish, well made and more to the point-wearable, as in this year's collection. South Bay residents will be shown the Young Designer collection on Monday, Oct. 3, at 7:30 p.m. at the May Co. South Bay. Always, the collection is suited to the American woman's casual, active way of life which has made comfort, simplicity and effortless fit the hallmark of U.S. clothing everywhere.

Pre-Nuptial Alpha Omega Luau Shows for Begins Rush Season Bride-elect

A series of pre-nuptial parties complimented Miss Gwenn Carlson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carlson of Torrance, who became the bride of Richard Valot on Sept. 17.

Mrs. Richard Clutter invited a host of Torrance friends to a shower at her home, 1916 Reynosa Dr., to honor Miss Carlson.

Appropriate games were played with prizes going to Mrs. G. J. Schultz, Jack Hoy and Miss Florence James. After the opening of gifts, refreshments were served carrying out the bridal motif.

Among the guests was the future bride's grandmother, Mrs. G. J. Schultz of Palmetto, Florida.

The Northrop Recreation Center was the scene of a miscellaneous shower given for Miss Carlson by Mrs. Dean DeGonia, Irene Chapman and Lillie Turner as hosts.

Wedding bells and miniature brides were used in decorating. The 24 guests played bridal games and enjoyed refreshments after which the shower of gifts was opened.

On Friday evening, Mrs. Leon Mincey entertained for the future bride at her Redondo Beach home. Crystal candelabra flanked a cake decorated with wedding bells and hearts. Games were played and the honor opened gifts for her new home from the 18 guests.

To begin the Fall Rushing season, a gala Hawaiian Luau was held by the membership committee of Alpha Omega, Chapter 6209, Beta Sigma Phi Sorority Saturday evening, Sept. 24, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Talbot, 1703 E. 215th St., Torrance.

Refreshments were served to the following members and guests: Mmes. Edward Anderson and Thelma Arra of Inglewood; Connie Swank of Long Beach; Francis A. Fatigante of Hermosa Beach; Dorothy Ticker, William Fieri, Kenneth Eliason, W. J. Salek and G. M. Schwale of Torrance; Henry Carlson, Frank Chiappetta, Daniel Cullett, Florence James, Paul Jordal, Pete Sund, Maurice Talbot, Delbert Ullsh, James Weatherman and Edward Santella.

"A Bid and Buy Auction" was held by the Chapter for members and guests at the regular meeting on Sept. 1 at the home of Mrs. Louis Brownlee, 21217 Water St., Torrance. Auctioneer was Mrs. Daniel Cullett. Proceeds will go toward the Chapter's many charitable projects.

Rho Xis to Plan Year Tonight

Rho Xi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority will meet this evening at 8 at the home of Mrs. James Elliott, 20526 Madison St., Torrance.

The cultural program "Self-Analysis" will be presented by Mrs. Roberto Maldonado.

Heading the business agenda will be arrangements to purchase walnuts and pecans for the pre-holiday nut sale, which is the chapter's major way and means project for the club year.

There will also be reports on the Forums, Southern California Council Breakfast, and the Wine Tasting Party.

After the business meeting, members will work on lap robes for patients at Fairview State Hospital.

Beta Alphas Will Meet This Evening

A program entitled "Self Analysis" will be presented to the members of Beta Alpha Nu Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority this evening, at 8 p.m.

The program, which will be given before the regular business meeting, will be presented by Mrs. Arthur Allone. Hostess for the evening will be Mrs. John MacLennan, 13 Diamonte Lane, Miralste. She will be assisted by Mrs. David Russell. New transferees and those interested in joining, may call Sean Ericson.

University Women Will Meet Oct. 5

San Pedro home of Mrs. Joseph Meltzer will be open to the South Bay University Women, Oct. 5 for their 7:45 p.m. general meeting.

Richard Parker, instructor at Harbor College, will speak on Contemporary American Drama. Mr. Parker, a graduate of the University of Rochester, received his MA degree from Columbia, prior to teaching at Dana Junior High and San Pedro High School.

Women graduates from accredited Universities and Colleges are invited to attend, according to Mrs. Robert Süssman, president.

Meets Oct. 5

Sam Levy Chapter, City of Hope, will meet Wednesday, Oct. 5 at the home of Mrs. Harold Wolpert, 17020 Cordary Ave., Torrance.

Nurses Will Open Year Tomorrow

South Bay Chapter of the Council of Catholic Nurses will hold its first meeting of the new season on Thursday, Sept. 29.

The group will meet at 8 p.m. at the Little Company of Mary Hospital.

All Catholic nurses are invited to attend.

Camp Fire Girls Attend County Fair

Wi Gata Camp Fire Girls attended the Los Angeles Pomona Fair on Sept. 25 where they demonstrated Indian games and showed how they achieved their individual Torch Bearers rank.

Mrs. Ricky Perkins and Mrs. Diana MacRae accompanied Kathy Merritt, Rena Nelms, Ann Perkins, Laurie Medill, Gigi Augur, Linda Green, Linda Doyle, Marilyn and Carolyn MacRae.

On the Oct. 7 weekend, Indians from the Soboba Indian Reservation will be guests of the Wi Gata Camp Fire Girls. They will spend the weekend in El Retiro Park.

The Indians will enjoy the ocean and will be taken to the Ports o'Call and a harbor cruise.

The Wi Gata Camp Fire Girls collect clothing for these Indians.

At Mission Beach

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Parks have returned from a ten-day vacation at Mission Beach near San Diego. The couple made the trip in their new trailer and visited points of interest in the area.
