

CHEERFUL ALOHAS

Milt C. Makoski, sponsorship fund chairman, for Sertoma Club, arriving in out-rigger, gets warm greetings from La Sertoma members, Mmes. Ken Spencer, bulletin chairman, James Best, and Duane Marshall, sponsorship fund chairman for the auxiliary. The arrival takes place at the Latitude 20 restaurant, where the two organizations will sponsor a Grand Opening Luau on Sunday, Oct. 9. Proceeds will go to the organizations' philanthropy funds. (Press-Herald Photo)

Sertoma, La Sertoma

Sponsor Luau Benefit Oct. 9

Two new Torrance civic organizations, Sertoma and its auxiliary, La Sertoma, are sponsoring a Grand Opening Luau on Sunday, Oct. 9 at the Latitude 20 restaurant, located at 3901 W. Pacific Coast Highway in Torrance. Hours for the Luau are 3 to 9 p.m.

At 4:30 p.m. the ceremony of the Kalau pig will be held and the luau of authentic exotic island foods will be served from 5 to 7 p.m. Entertainment to begin at 7 p.m. will be "Song of the Islands" a Polynesian Revue. A nine member group of Polynesian entertainers will sing and dance. On the program are dances from all of the South Pacific islands including the fire and sword dances.

Dress for the event is casual including colorful mumuus and shirts.

Mrs. Arthur Grayson of La Sertoma and C. L. Spencer of Sertoma, ways and means chairmen, are in charge of the major benefit, proceeds from which will be used for the two clubs' South Bay philanthropies.

Mrs. James Layden is president of La Sertoma, which received its charter in June 1966. Serving with her are Mmes. R. C. Childress, first vice president; Wayne R. Watson, recording secretary; and J. W. Wallace, treasurer.

The long-term major sponsorship for La Sertoma is "Operation Head Start" at Normont Elementary school in Harbor City.

Dr. Edward O. Mitchell is president of Sertoma, which was chartered early this year. Other officers are J. P. Kirk, E. B. Collins, D. A. Marshall, vice presidents; M. A. Bowls, treasurer; J. T. Layden, secretary; and E. L. Hammer, sergeant-at-arms.

This club maintains a Sponsorship Fund for disbursement for community service and charitable projects in the South Bay area.

Tickets for the benefit luau are now on sale and may be secured by calling the Latitude 20 restaurant.

AUXILIARY HERALDS FALL SEASON

Palos Verdes Country Club will be the scene of the Torrance Hospital Auxiliary's "Brunch of Fashions," Tuesday, Oct. 11. The brunch at 10:30 a.m. will be followed by a parade of fall fashions at 11:30 a.m. Chairmen, with Mrs. James Wilkes model, visit the Levy Dept. store to select fashions. They are, from left, Mmes. Frank Bashor, program chairman, and Mrs. Howard Walker, reservations, taking dresses from hangers, as Mrs. Wilkes holds up a new fashion to check the hemline. (Press-Herald Photo)

St. Catherine's Parish

Sets Anniversary Dinner on Oct. 16

St. Catherine Labourer Parish will celebrate its 19th anniversary with a dinner on Sunday, Oct. 16 from 2 to 7 p.m. in the new parish hall located at 3846 Redondo Beach Blvd., Torrance.

Members of the Holy Name Society and the St. Catherine Women's Council have planned a barbecue steak dinner menu plus homemade apple and pumpkin pie for dessert. A child's hamburger steak plate has been planned at a nominal fee.

Mrs. Tom Kearns is serving as general chairman of the dinner. She is being assisted by Mrs. John Strom, home and school chairman. Mrs. Lee Gallegos is in charge of the decorations for the anniversary dinner. Mrs. Gerald Lytle is supervising the prizes.

William Fuller is serving as the Chief Cook and will be assisted by men of the parish. During the dinner, prizes will be awarded.

Mrs. Lewis Gleason, president of the Women's Council, invites the public to attend the dinner and help the parish celebrate its anniversary.

LAY GROUNDWORK FOR ANNIVERSARY EVENT

These members of the St. Catherine Council of Catholic Women visit their new parish hall to plan the decorations and arrangements for the dinner on Sunday, Oct. 16, celebrating the 19th anniversary of the parish. Mrs. John Strom, center, decorations chairman, points out her ideas for converting the hall into a festive dining room, to Mrs. Gerald Lytle, left, prize chairman, and Mrs. John Spencer, decorations co-chairman. (Press-Herald Photo)

Torrance Hospital Auxiliary

Fall Fashion-Brunch

A colorful Fall theme will prevail at the Palos Verdes Country Club, 331 Via Campana, Palos Verdes, when the Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary presents its "Brunch of Fashions" on Tuesday, Oct. 11.

A breakfast buffet will be served at 10 a.m. and the parade of fashions from Levy's will take place at 11:30 a.m. The season's newest fashions, in popular fall colors and designs, will be modeled by auxiliary members, Mmes. George Post, William Boswell, Don Moyer, Fred Wilkes, Naomi Mauk and P. O. Wierk. Mrs.

Sylvia Miller will serve as commentator. Door prizes will be awarded during the show.

Following the fashion parade and brunch, Mrs. James Kimble, president, will conduct a short business meeting.

All proceeds from the event will go to the auxiliary's fund for purchasing hospital equipment, according to Mrs. Jack Rice, ways and means chairman.

The Fashion Brunch is limited to 150 persons and reservations must be made with Mrs. Howard Walker.

Oriental Fashionations

Serra Mothers Club Will Present Shows

"Oriental Fashionations" is the theme for the twelfth annual Fashion Show to be presented by the Junipero Serra High School Mothers Club in the school auditorium, 14830 South Van Ness Ave., on two evenings, Oct. 17 and Oct. 18 at 8 p.m.

A social hour will precede the show. Proceeds from the benefit are earmarked for the education fund of the Society of Mary.

The oriental theme will be carried out in the decorations and the entertainment. A group of young Japanese dancers from the Gardena Parks and Recreation Dept. will open the show.

Mrs. Morrey Cant is general chairman of the two evening event. Mrs. Daniel Miroballi is co-chairman.

Other committee members assisting are Mmes. Edward Schmelder, Joseph Vizzini, Edward Regalade, Albert Suhajda, Clarence Waterkette, Alphonse Lucier, Frank Conaty, Edwin Greteman, Jerold Ruzicka, and Gilbert Mahlmeister.

Also, Mmes. Joseph Peussin, Robert Heil, Joseph Woolley, Harold Burnett, John Warbel, Harold Meziere, Louis Cissell, Bruce Delfaro, Harold Higgins, James Fitzharris, Kay Zaph and Steve Braun.

Others working on the benefit are Mmes. She Nishida, George Handa, George Stockert, Patrick Carey, Peter O'Brien, Gerald Phillips, Gene Carrington and Derck Englebert.

Models will not only display the latest in fall and winter fashions but will be wearing the latest in hair and wiglet fashions. Boys apparel from a men's shop will also be shown.

EVENINGS OF ORIENTAL GLAMOUR

Planning their annual fashion shows, to be held Oct. 17 and 18 in the Serra High School auditorium, 14830 S. Van Ness Ave., these members of the Serra Mothers Club, from left, Mmes. Daniel Miroballi, Gilbert Mahlmeister and Bruce Delfaro, tour an oriental garden. Decor and entertainment will carry out the Oriental theme. The public is invited to attend the shows, featuring fashions, entertainment, prizes and refreshments. (Press-Herald Photo)

BAZAAR TIME ROLLS AROUND

One of the major bazaars of the fall season will be staged by the Torrance Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star on Saturday, Oct. 8, at the Torrance Masonic Temple, 2326 Cabrillo. Hours for the bazaar are from 3:30 until 7 p.m. when members will have all kinds of homemade foods and gift items on sale. A Swiss steak dinner will be served from 5 to 7 p.m. The public is invited. (Press-Herald Photo)