Dear Sir: It's with great disappointment that I read there are plans being formulated to change the format gradually of "Peyton Place." My question is "Why?" Here we go again — changing a perfectly excellent program into a "go-go-go" series that will appeal only to a minority group of teenagers. If they change it, I guarantee you're going to have a lot of angry viewers. PLEASE LEAVE WELL ENOUGH ALONE! — W.E.L., Philadelphia, Penna.

Dear M.E.L.: Don't worry too much about any changes. So far, the best one is their change to color. But on the other hand, do you mean they should continue taking weeks to tell a story that could be done in two episodes? How do you keep from getting bored with it?

Dear Mr. Connolly: I would like to know where Paul Muni is. Where does he live? Will he make another movie? — F.M., San Francisco, Calif.

Dear Mrs. F.M.: Paul Muni is living in Santa Barbara, Calif. Whether he'll make another movie, I would never say no. Spencer Tracy is slated to make another film.

Dear Mike: Would you settle an argument? In "Sound of Music," I say the voice of Peggy Wood playing the part of the Mother Superior was dubbed in. My girlfriend Bess says Miss Wood is really singing. We know she comes from a musical background. Can you help? — R.K., Pompton Plains, N. J.

Dear R.K.: Hope your friendship survives the announcement that Peggy Woods voice was dubbed in for her role as the Mother Superior. It certainly didn't detract from her lovely performance.

Dear Mr. Connolly: Just what is the current marital status of Miss Jayne Mansfield? I read she filed suit to divorce her present husband, Matt Cimber, on the same day she appeared on the Merv Griffin show. I'm confused — or is this another display of Hollywood togetherness. I must say I'm quite impressed with her children. — J.E.S., San Jose, Calif.

Dear J.E.S.: You're confused? So is everyone else. To further complicate matters Jayne retains Mickey Hargitay as her personal manager. Come to think of it, maybe Jayne is confused. But let's give three cheers for the way she's raised those fine children.

Dear Mike: Could you print a picture of Don Grady? And tell me, what is it about going barefoot that gives Don a feeling of ecstasy? Does Don go barefoot in public? How can I get a picture of Don barefoot? — T.S., Dallas, Texas.

Dear T.S.: Sorry, this column doesn't print pictures, but do write Don in care of his TV show in Hollywood and ask him for his picture barefoot! I wouldn't say Don goes to the Beverly Hills Hotel barefoot but what's wrong with it? Haven't you ever had the ecstasy. You've got to try it sometime.

Dear Mike: My girlfriend says Andy Williams maintains a home here on the "main line." I say, no, I need to know. I know you frequently

Meeting Set

The Torrance Airport Commission will hold a regular meeting tomorrow at 8 p.m. in the council chambers at the city hall, 3031 Torrance Blvd. Meetings of the commission, which is an advisory group for the city council, are open to the public.

Committee For Bonds Organized

Wheels were set in motion for action to secure passage of a $9 million school bond issue when the Torrance Citizens' School Committee met last week at Torrance High School.

The community group, which had organized only a week earlier, set up its committee structure during the second in a series of weekly meetings which will continue until Nov. 8.

Heading the four major committees are: John Popovich, publicity; Richard Lambert, finances; Mrs. John Carlyle, membership, and George McMullen, speakers bureau.

Subcommittee chairmen include: Stanley Getz, Clyde Getz, Donald Christensen, Dr. John McClure, and Rev. R. W. Kornegay.

Immediate plans call for seeking bond endorsements from leading citizens and organizations throughout Torrance. Members of the speakers bureau will give talks to all groups that solicit their service.

Written material explaining the enrollment problem and need for building funds will be prepared by the public

WARRIOR TRAILS

By Robin Newcomer

We did it! Last Friday our team proved to many people that they are a winning team after all. We knew we could do it all the time — it just took a little time, a lot of spirit, and most of all, a determined coach and team. Do it again big team, and again and again — all the way to CIF.

It was also a big night for four newly elected frosh officers. Brian Vaighan was elected president of the freshman class along with Teri Gausephl as vice president. Chris Derowse will be taking notes for the class as secretary and Cindy Prescott is in charge of freshman financial business.

The PTA is conducting a membership drive with a special bonus to the class that recruits the largest percentage of parents as members. The film "Portrait in Black," starring Lana Turner and Anthony Quinn, will be shown to the ambitious class, along with a presentation of a trophy. The drive ends Friday so if your parents aren't members yet hurry and send in the envelope and help your class win.

THREE MORE students from West High have been recognized as doing especially well on the 1966 National Merit Scholarship Test. Although Neil Campbell, Steve Pearlston, and Ken Swift did not qualify as semifinalists, they received letters of commendation honoring their high achievement on the test. Congratulations.

Freshmen and juniors are doing something special this week. They have been taking the ITED Tests. Don't grumble — just think of them as a way of getting out of doing World Geography or U. S. History for a week!

The Americans Abroad program sponsored by the American Field Service is now in the process of selecting students to go abroad during the summer or the school year.

This program enabled Roy Sriwong from Thailand to come to West last year and also is the reason Selda Uster-tunali is with us this year from Turkey. Scott Steele, last year's ASB president, visited Germany during the summer of '65 also through the ASF.

By the way, if you want to buy a special West High key-chain from the junior class but can't seem to find the mysterious sellers of these handy items try asking Cindy Miller, Clare Nonoshito, or Nancy Brashear about them. They can help you.

St. Paul High will be our victim this Friday. The game will be at the St. Paul stadium. Let's not let the team down. Ride the rooters bus (it's only 75 cents), go by car, or walk if you have no other way — but be there! And keep your spirit high.

Trail's end.
