Consort to Entertain at AAUW Meet

Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills branch of the American Association of University Women will highlight its cultural season with a performance by the Monrovia Recorder Consort tomorrow evening at 8 p.m. in the Art Gallery of the Palos Verdes Library.

Founded by noted musician Hans Bender — until recently performing and teaching in Heidelberg, Germany—the Consort will present a program of numbers written for the recorder (flute instrument) which has enjoyed, deservedly, a revival of interest in the past decade.

According to Mrs. H. G. Peterson, cultural interest chairman of the AAUW branch, the eight musicians composing the Consort create a unique harmony with their various voiced instruments.

The concert will be preceded by the usual social hour at 7:30 p.m. Members are invited to bring guests, eligible women interested in joining the AAUW may telephone Mrs. Robert Cook, membership chairman.

New Paintings Hung at Bank By Local Artist

A new exhibit of oils, casein and water colors has been hung at the Bank of America, 2550 Via Tejon, the Plaza, Palos Verdes, by Vera Grube, Peninsula artist.

During the month of October, art lovers may see "Reflected Reflections," a new oil; Lake Tahoe, casein; "Symphony Over the Water," "Young Horses" and "Dinner Time," featuring three horses, all in oil. The public is invited to view the display during bank hours.
