

'Angel' To Open At ECC

"Look Homeward, Angel," winner of the New York Critic's Award and the Pulitzer Prize for drama, will open Friday, Oct. 28, in the El Camino College theater. William Buck, ECC drama instructor, will direct.

Adapted by Ketti Frings from a novel by Thomas Wolfe, the play is "an honest, outspoken, meaningful, and sometimes humorous study of a youngster trying to break away from his decadent family and become a man," Buck said.

The cast includes Martin Lair, Rebecca Goldstein, Todd Bingham, Ken Heckman, Christine Vasquez, Kim Turner, William Byrne, Barbara Burns, Robert Giovannucci, Don Miller, Roger Werner, Thomas Eberhardt, Ellen Shepard, Pamela Colbert, Karen Riviera, Richard Ulrich, Valerie Humphreys, and Floyd Hansen. Carolyn Eubank is the student director.

Performances are scheduled Oct. 28 and 29 and Nov. 4 and 5. Tickets, at $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for students with an activity book, will be on sale in the student store beginning Oct. 4. Tickets also will be available at the box office prior to each performance.

Viet Nam Still Tops Mail List

The war in Viet Nam, fears of increasing inflation, and recent riots in major United States cities topped the mail from constituents during August, Congressman Alphonzo Bell (R-28th District), said today.

The ten subjects which drew the heaviest mail in the month include:

- Express concern about the war in South Viet Nam.
- Express concern about the dangers of rising inflation.
- Express concern about the recent riots in U.S. cities.
- Support the present conduct of the war in South Viet Nam.
- Oppose a future increase in federal income taxes.
- Express support for "truth in packaging" legislation.
- Oppose the proposed Lower Colorado River Basin Project.
- Oppose the Administration's conduct of the war in Viet Nam.
- Favor final passage of the House version of the minimum wage bill.
- Express concern about the recent House Un-American Activities Committee hearings.

Grace Stringer

Funeral services for Grace Stringer, 69, who died Oct. 12, were held last Friday in the Inglewood Cemetery Mortuary Manchester Chapel. Interment followed in Roosevelt Cemetery.

Born in Poplar Bluff, Mo., Mrs. Stringer lived at 18416 Ermanita St. and had been a resident of this area 25 years.

Surviving are two sons, William P. Stringer of Hawthorne and Robert E. Stringer of Crescent, Ore.; two daughters, Lucille Lester of Torrance and Georgia Archer of Crescent, Ore., and 20 grandchildren and great-grandchildren.
