

Volunteer Teachers Bought Here

An appeal for volunteer nursery school teachers was issued today by Mrs. J. C. Donnell, executive director of the Volunteer Bureau of the Harbor Area, 1427 S. Pacific Ave., in San Pedro. Mrs. O'Donnell said the bureau would like to find someone who can serve on a continuing basis, but that hours can be adjusted to fit almost any schedule. She urged persons interested in the project to contact her at the bureau any Monday, Wednesday, or Friday between 9 a.m. and noon.

Hollywood Reporter

By Mike Connolly

Dear Mr. Connolly: I am 12 years old but please don't be discouraged and read on. I have loved to sing all my life. My first public appearances have brought many complimentary remarks and I would like you to listen to me. I'm not a crazy kid. Or could you give me the opportunity to sing for someone? I want a pro's opinion. This really means a lot to me. Thank you. — A.S., Bellaire, Tex.

Dear A.S.: I would love to hear you sing but must say I cannot help in any professional way until you finish your schooling, and by schooling I mean all the way through college if possible. With every good wish, I remain . . .

Dear Mike: Where is Sterling Hayden living at the present time and is this his permanent address? What has become of the "Wanderer?" — S. O.T., Rockport, Mass.

Dear S. O.T.: Sterling sold the "Wanderer" which was subsequently wrecked. He now lives in a refurbished railroad car near San Francisco Bay and is working on another book. Write him care of the publisher of his last book. He has no permanent address.

Dear Mike Connolly: Christopher Plummer was so wonderful in "Sound of Music." What other pictures has he played in? I must have missed them all. — W.S., Inglewood, Calif.

Dear W.S.: Christopher Plummer has also appeared in "Daisy Clover" with Natalie Wood. If he has been in any other films, I missed them, too.

Dear Sir: Will you please give me the address of Phyllis Diller, that zingy new gal on TV who runs around like she's hunting bargain basement duds in a dime store? — C.J., Oakland, Calif.

Dear C.J.: Sorry, we don't give out home addresses. But you can write Miss Diller, the zany one, in care of General Service Studios, 1040 N. Las Palmas Ave., Hollywood. Or maybe you should write to her in care of her butler, Grady Sutton, at that same address.

Dear Friends: While we're on the subject, we'd like to tell you the procedure is the same for every performer you want to write to. Just use the address of the studios or networks they work for. Some of the letters on the desk right now ask for Elizabeth Montgomery. She's "Bewitched." Screen

Gems, Columbia Studios, Hollywood. Nell Hamilton is in care of "Batman" 20th Century-Fox, Beverly Hills. And Bill Cosby is "I Spy." Desilu Studios, Hollywood. Adam West actually received a letter from overseas addressed to Adam, Old Spanish House, Malibu, Calif.

Dear Mike: Lately I've missed seeing Ty Hardin. What is he doing professionally? He is one of my favorites, especially since I saw him give his religious testimony at a little church in Anaheim, Calif. — M.N., Garden Grove.

Dear M.N.: A couple of years ago, Ty formed his own production company, took off for Spain and made some films. What with the funny ways they finance films in Europe as versus our big business attitude, Ty's films are taking a little longer to get released in this country.

Dear Mike: Years ago I used to write to you. At the present time, I am trying to round up material on William S. Hart. Do you know of any place I can get some interviews on him from old-time magazines? — C.M., Staunton, Illinois.

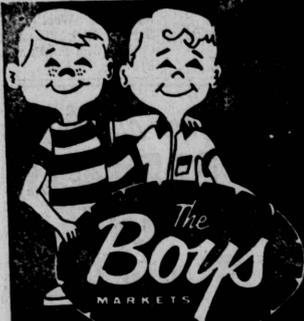

Dear C.M.: You have two good sources. First, you can write to the Academy Library, 9026 Melrose Ave., Los Angeles. Second and easier source for you would be the best local library you can find. Ask for the Readers' Guide which will list all magazine articles by subject matter going back to 1900.

Librarian Award Deadline Is Set

A Dec. 1 deadline has been set for nominations for the 1967 Librarian Award, according to Dr. Fred L. Casimir of Pepperdine College, chairman of the awards committee. All Southern California librarians actively engaged in library work with children will be considered for the tribute.

Action Taken on School Lunches

County welfare departments and boards of supervisors in California are being asked to work directly and actively with local school districts to insure that children from poor families share fully in the National School Lunch program, according to State Welfare Director Newton R. Holcomb.
