

Pre-Holiday Affairs Flourishing

JAYCETTES PLAN CRAFT SALE

Mrs. Ralph Grippio, one of the hostesses for the Christmas Crafts Shoppe to be held Thursday evening at her home, shows off some of the fancy package decorations, ribbons, and such which will be on display. Looking on are Mrs. Jim Hussey, chairman of the affair, and Mrs. Charles Battelle, who will be a hostess with Mrs. Grippio.

Jaycettes Set 'Gift Shoppe'

Busy fingers are flying this pre-holiday season as Torrance Jaycettes prepare for their Christmas Crafts Shoppe Thursday.

Following the 8 p.m. business meeting, conducted by Mrs. Harold Lindborg, president, the crafts will be displayed at the home of Mrs. Ralph Grippio, 22039 Cerise Ave.

Members and their guests will secretly bid on the Christmas decorative pieces, home-fashioned novelties and baked goods, with the item going to the highest bidder.

The Grippio home will be gaily decorated in the holiday motif, and Mrs. Freda Groves will have toy items displayed giving Jaycettes an opportunity to shop for the younger set!

Hostess duties will be shared by Mrs. Charles Battelle, Mrs. Jim Hussey, and Mrs. Marty Lewis. Dessert and coffee will be served to Jaycettes and their guests during the "shopping trip" through the Christmas Crafts Shoppe.

Walteria Festival Slated

The annual Harvest Festival will be presented at the Walteria Community Methodist Church from 1 to 8 p.m. Saturday by the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

The women will have Christmas decorations, kitchen, patio, and room decorations, homebaked goods, and jams, jellies, pickles, and candy.

During early afternoon the Sunday School rooms will be turned into a games and craft center as a fund-raising project sponsored by the Methodist Youth Fellowship.

Dinner will be served in the evening. Mrs. Dave Lewis is dinner chairman and warns that reservations must be made today for dinner tickets.

Chairmen of the event include Mrs. Nate Gordon, candy; Mrs. C. E. Seppanen, homebaking; Mrs. Hugh Cosby, decorations, and Mrs. Herbert Pemble, tickets.

Hospital Guild Slates Week-Long Gift Show

Christmas preview is in store for early shoppers who plan to attend the gift show to be held during the week of Nov. 14 through 19, from 10 a.m. until 9 p.m. in the auditorium of the Bay Harbor Hospital located at 1437 Lomita Blvd. in Harbor City.

The show is being put on by the gift shop committee of the Hospital Guild under the chairmanship of Mrs. Ted Springfield.

Gifts ranging from many items for father, beautiful peignoirs, jewelry, and bou-tiques for mother, and exciting new toys for the "romping set" will be for sale.

The show is open to the public and all are invited to drop in and browse, its sponsors say.

Committee members working on the show are Mrs. William Russell, Mrs. Joe Pilgreen, Mrs. Thomas Yoshida, Mrs. Glenn Wymore, Mrs. Olin Grubbs, Mrs. Van B. Lisman, and Mrs. Wade H. White.

All proceeds received from the event will go toward life saving equipment for the hospital.

ENTICEMENT FOR EARLY SHOPPERS

Members of the Bay Harbor Hospital Guild will offer special inducements for early shoppers during the week of Nov. 14-19 when the annual gift show is held from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. in the auditorium of hospital at 1437 Lomita Blvd., Harbor City. Showing some of the gifts to be offered here are Mrs. Wade H. White
