

City, Woman's Club Plan Exhibit

The work of students enrolled in the fine arts program at the Torrance Recreation Department will be exhibited Nov. 22 through 26 under the sponsorship of the department and the Torrance Woman's Club.

The first in what is hoped will be an annual cultural event for the community, the "Art in Recreation" exhibit reflects the year-round program offered Southwest residents in the field of fine arts at the Joslyn Recreation Center.

Instructors from the center whose students are exhibiting are Dr. Howard Hitchcock, sculpture; Gary Owens, ceramics and jewelry; Mildred Draper, ceramics and creative stitching; Peter Mays, oil painting and drawing; Mary Jane Leland, textile design; Marian Cummings, water color; Arden von Dewitz, oil painting; and Jack King, oil painting.

Erika Muhl is director of the fine arts program.

Members of the Torrance Woman's Club will act as hostesses and guides for the exhibit. Volunteers from the Torrance Senior Woman's Club are Mmes. H. Ted Olson, president; R. J. Forestal, Richard Corothy, R. L. Rudy, and Dean L. Sears.

Torrance Junior Woman's Club volunteers are Mmes. Larry Smith, Jill Ritchie, James Burger, Robert Valencia, Diane Bishop, Leon Taylor, Jack Thayer, Kenneth Jett, William Trommald, Robert Vroman, Leo Large, Michael Riley, Richard Spain, Mary Wilkinson, Wayne Lynch, and Martha Smart.

Exhibit center, the Joslyn Center, 3335 Torrance Blvd., will have the following schedule: Nov. 22 and 23, 10 a.m. to 12 noon and 7 to 9 p.m.; Nov. 24, 7 to 9 p.m.; Nov. 25, 10 a.m. to 12 noon and 7 to 9 p.m.; and Nov. 26, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

SHE DEMONSTRATES LATEST STEPS

Mrs. Edward Siminich takes a few minutes away from her duties as chairman of the annual fall dance of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Torrance Fire Department to show her colleagues one of the latest dance steps. Watching are Mrs. Kenneth Spain (seated), food chairman for the event, and Mrs. Denny Haas, who is charged with decorating the ballroom. This year's event will be called the "Cantina Baile," and will be a benefit for the Harry Drake Widow's Fund. (Press-Herald Photo)

Fireladies Plan Fall Benefit

The annual fall dance, "Cantina Baile," will be sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Torrance Fire Department Nov. 19 in the upstairs banquet room of the Queen's Kitchen, 1332 Sartori Ave. Proceeds will go to the Harry Drake Widow's Fund.

Dancing will begin at 9 p.m. to the music of Charlie Green's orchestra. A midnight buffet will be served and dancing will continue until 1 a.m.

Mrs. Edward Siminich is in charge of arrangements. She will be assisted by Mmes. Denny Haas, Mark Andersen, John Spain, and Ronald Wiener.

The public is cordially invited to attend and tickets may be purchased at the door or from any committee or auxiliary member.

Fashion Show Slated

The Harbor General Hospital Interns and Residents Wives Club will present a fashion show Wednesday in the hospital auditorium at 8:30 p.m.

Featured will be hair styles by Hal Trujillo and "Cavalcade of Cottons" by McCalls and the National Cotton Council emphasizing the versatility of home sewing.

The wardrobe will include casual wear, tailored suits and coats, late day dresses, and children's clothes. Models will be Mmes. Peter Bergreen, Harold Rosenfield, Fred Workmon, John Leonard, Mathew Sloan, John May, Gilbert Faustina, Thomas Christianson, and William Grandolfo. Children modeling will be Jeff Nemhauser, Jennifer Rosenfield, and Cathy Daves.

Commentator and chairman of the fashion show is Mrs. Gary Nemhauser, club vice president. Mrs. Harold Rosenfield is serving as co-chairman.

MOTHERS PREPARE FOR 'MISTLETOE MART'

Mrs. James McClain, chairman, and Mrs. Victor Ault, co-chairman, look over Christmas decorations being held up by Mrs. William Sandstrom, decorations chairman, as members of the Nativity School Mothers Club work towards the club's "Mistletoe Mart" to be held at the Nativity Church Annex, Engracia and Arlington, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Dec. 4. In addition to the decorations, the affair will feature baked goods, fancy work, aprons, needlework, and other items plus games and prizes. Proceeds are used in the operation of Nativity School in Torrance. (Press-Herald Photo)

Y-Wives to Hear Talk On Music

"Our Musical Heritage" will be discussed by music leader John Arnold Ford before the Y-Wives Wednesday, at 9:30 a.m., at the Torrance YWCA, 2320 W. Carson.

Ford, whose appearance is sponsored by the Southern California Gas Co. and Greek Theatre Association as a community service project will discuss the cultural assets of the Southland at the meeting. He is founder of the Educational Opera Association.

The speaker, son of retired Los Angeles County Supervisor John Anson Ford, will illustrate his talk with slides and vocal selections.

TO EXHIBIT LATEST FASHIONS

De Fussi-Marsden Vows Read

In an 11 o'clock ceremony at the St. James Catholic Church on Sept. 10, Miss Mary Louise De Fussi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard De Fussi, 21925 Marjorie Ave., became the bride of John Michael Marsden, whose parents are the Stewart D. Marsdens, 5201 Arvada St., Torrance.

Rev. Joseph J. Pollard stood before the flower-decked altar to officiate at the ceremony, for which the bride wore a white crepe gown enhanced with Swiss lace and fashioned with a cathedral train. Her Swiss net fingertip veil was held by a satin rose and she carried a shower bouquet of white glameillas and orchids.

Maid of honor was her sister, Miss Patricia Lynne De Fussi. Bridesmaids were Mmes. Judy Gibbs, Toni Marsden; Misses Gaye Suddarth and Canny Cochran.

Best man duties were performed by David Marsden. Ushers were Ron Sela, John Cochran, Bill Shenkel, Dan Thomas and Jim De Fussi.

The newlyweds were greeted by the 200 guests at a reception in the church hall prior to leaving for a honeymoon in Santa Rosa. Torrance is their new home.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Marsden are 1965 graduates of West High School. Mrs. Marsden is attending El Camino College majoring in home economics. Mr. Marsden has been signed with the San Francisco Giants' farm system.
