

MRS. RICHARD VALOT
(Seaman Portrait)

CARLSON-VALOT
Honeymooning in the east are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Joseph Valot, who were married recently at the St. Lawrence Martyr Catholic Church.

Mrs. Valot is the former Gwen Marie Carlson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carlson, 23127 Huber Ave., Torrance. Her husband is the son of the Raymond Valots, 125 Vista Del Parque.

Wearing an empire gown of organza trimmed with lace and seed pearls, the bride was escorted to the altar by her father. A headpiece of lace petals and pearls held her veil and she carried white orchids, chrysanthemums and stephanotis.

Bridal attendants were Kathy Haboush, Sheryle Enochs, Judy Call and Pam Hoy.

Jim Valot was best man and seating the guests were Greg Pischel, Al Mapes and Phil Sallas.

Rt. Rev. Msgr. Daniel P. Collins officiated at the marriage which was followed by a reception at a downtown Torrance restaurant.

The new Mrs. Valot is a graduate of South High and El Camino. Mr. Valot was graduated from Serra High in 1961.

The new address is 4853 W. 111th Pl., Inglewood

MRS. PHILIP HERRERA
(Seaman Portrait)

HICKMAN - HERRERA
Miss Roberta Louise Hickman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Hickman, 5502 Via Del Valle, Torrance, walked down the aisle of the Walteria Community Church on the arm of her father, recently to exchange marriage vows with Philip George Herrera. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hector Herrera, 3118 Cricklewood St., Torrance.

The bridal gown featured a lace bodice, and a full organza skirt over net. A three-tiered train fell from the shoulders. The bridal veil was held by a net petal headpiece studded with pearls. She carried a cascade of white glameillas.

In pink georgette gowns, attendants were Mrs. Gary Crain, Misses Frances Montney, Sylvia Duran, and Patricia Duran. Terri Herrera was flower girl.

Larry Simpkins stood as best man and ushers were Paul, Roland and Bill Herrera. Kyle Hickman was ring bearer.

Rev. T. Richards officiated at the marriage. Mrs. Robert Padelford was soloist.

A church reception followed the marriage and the honeymoon was spent at Hilton Inn, Mission Bay. The newlyweds are both 1964 graduates of South High School. The bride will remain in Torrance while her husband is serving with the United States Army at Fort Lewis, Wash.

MRS. CLINTON ALLEN

BRADY - ALLEN
Miss Carol Brady, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Brady of Torrance, became the bride of Clinton M. Allen, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Chester Allen of Worcester, Massachusetts, in a ceremony at the Christ the King Lutheran Church. Given in marriage by her father, she wore a peau de soie and Alencon lace sheath with a chapel train and a shoulder-length illusion veil. She carried white roses and baby breath surrounding a white orchid and a single red rose.

The attendants, in floor-length peacock blue chiffon over taffeta sheaths, were Miss Pamela Beck, maid of honor, and Miss Susan Yamada and the bride's sisters, Linda and Patricia Brady. The bridesmaids and maid of honor each carried a single long-stemmed red rose.

Edward Brady, brother of the bride, served as best man and the guests were seated by Jacques Parnossian of Inglewood and Fred Ralutz of Torrance. Following a garden reception at the bride's home, the couple left on a honeymoon at Yosemite. They are now living in Torrance. The bride is a graduate of North Torrance High and will graduate in December from the UCLA School of Nursing. The bridegroom is an art student at El Camino College.

That always popular autumn favorite, the chrysanthemum, was first found in Asia and brought to the Western world by Marco Polo and other early travelers. Since then, the Society of American Florists points out, mums have changed considerably. They now abound in your florist's shop in more colors and varieties than ever.
