Mrs. Meyers Named New Royal Matron

Lomita Court 61, Order of the Amaranth, entertained at its annual Birthday Dinner at the Torrance Masonic Temple recently.

During the business meeting, following the dinner, Mrs. Mattie Meyers was named to serve as Royal Matron, for the next six months, filling a vacancy left by the death of Mrs. Crystal Walker.

The Court presented 25-year pins to three members, Ada Anderson, Hallie Parbois, past royal matrons, and Perry Lingren, past royal patron.

A huge birthday cake and ice cream were served at the conclusion of the meeting.

The Amaranth Court staged a bazaar and dinner at the Masonic Temple, 2326 Cabrillo Ave., Torrance, on Nov. 5.

Wayfarers Chapel in Torrance was the scene of an early evening wedding ceremony in which Miss Vivian Lorene Malin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Malin, 1426 W. 216th St., exchanged marriage promises with James Richard Chenoweth, of Torrance.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Marie Chenoweth of Memphis, Tenn. On the arm of her father, the bride came to the altar wearing a gown of nylon organza, fashioned with a cottillion silhouette revealing a double lace ruffle. Her double tiered veil was secured by a pearl and lace floral cluster and she carried a cascade of white orchids, stephanotis and roses.

Gowned in pink, attendants were Misses Susan Malin, Sherry Scott, Bonnie Bowen, Janice Wengren, Lynne Bowen was flower girl and Michael Watkins, ring bearer.

Best man duties were performed by Bill Malin, Jr., and ushers were Richard Sullivan, Raymond Sullivan, John Straub and Herb Hanes.

Rev. Robert L. Young conducted the vow exchange, which was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents. The honeymoon was spent in Santa Barbara and the newlyweds are at home at 1426 W. Carson St.

Kris Nelsen Reigns As

Queen at SCMA Game

With Homecoming Football Queen Kris Nelsen and her princesses, Camy McKee and Joyce Payne "looking on," the cadets of Southern California Military Varsity, 8th and 9th grades, defeated the San Diego Military Academy J.V.'s of Solana Beach by a score of 25 to 6.

Miss Joyce Payne, of Norwalk, were chosen by the cadets to preside over the Sixth Annual Alumni Homecoming Football Game on Nov. 12 at St. Anthony's Stadium in Lakewood.

The game played before over 1,000 highly partisan SCMA parents and alumni was a "thriller" all the way. Richard Gillies, Lakewood, Skip Williams, Costa Mesa, and Michael Spencer, Gardena, provided the scoring punch with Gillies scoring three touchdowns on passes from Skip Williams. The other touchdown was recorded on a dash of 12 yards by Michael Spencer. Other key players for SCMA were: Gren Hanson, Long Beach, Maceo Braxton, Los Angeles, Lee DeFever, Downey, Chris Lipscomb, Newport Beach, Tim Perry, Long Beach, Michael Philbrick, Torrance, Patrick Williams, Belmont, David Payne, Norwalk, William Bryson, Palos Verdes Estates, Loren Russell, La Sierra, John Pollitt, Long Beach, and Freddie Thompson, Paramount.

The cadets of SCMA are ably coached by Steve McLaren and his assistants Chuck Vershaw and Lynn Taskila. Major George V. Hurte is the Superintendent of this famous John Brown School.

Estates, Loren Russell, La Sierra, John Pollitt, Long Beach, and Freddie Thompson, Paramount.

Cardinal's Yule Party Set Dec. 11

Recognized as the introduction to the Christmas season, the Cardinal's Christmas Party for Children will be given in the Beverly Hilton Hotel International Room on Sunday, Dec. 11, 2 to 4 p.m., by His Eminence James Francis Cardinal McIntyre.

Special guests of the cardinal will be 200 children, aged 3 to 5 years, from orphanages, nurseries and Catholic foster homes of the Los Angeles Archdiocese.

Invitations have been extended to patrons and co-sponsoring organizations, through whose generosity the full purpose of the party is achieved—the provision of Christmas care for the unseen 9,147 children and 4,067 adults, beneficiaries of the party.

Places of honor will be provided for Cardinal McIntyre's tiny guests to watch a Christmas entertainment program. They will be greeted by the cardinal himself, receive balloons, fun-makers and candy canes, laugh at the many funny clowns—and shout with joy at the arrival of Santa Claus, portrayed by Richard L. Singer.

Patrons and members of co-sponsoring organizations will enjoy this heart-warming scene from terraced tables around the stage. They will be served coffee, tea, tasty sandwiches and petits fours, while the children are treated to ice cream and cookies.

To help make this party merrier, tax deductible contributions may be sent to Cardinal's Christmas Party for Children, 1400 W. Ninth St., Los Angeles.

Honors Visiting Grandmother on 87th Birthday

Mrs. Mabel Babcock and her mother, Mrs. Edith Bretton, left for their home in San Jacinto last Friday after spending a week here with Mrs. Babcock's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Pulliam, 1734 Elm.

On Nov. 17 Mrs. Pulliam's grandmother, Mrs. Bretton, celebrated her 87th birthday. She was guest of honor at a family dinner party given by Mrs. Pulliam. Also present were Mrs. Bretton's great-grandson and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. James Pulliam, and their daughter, Nancy, making five generations at the party.
