

Harbor City Businessman To Head Lomita Chamber

The Lomita Chamber of Commerce will begin the new year 1967 with new officers and a new manager as the result of action taken by the group this week.

Elected to serve as new president of the group is Russell Fitzer, operator of Russell's Burgers in Lomita and Lynwood. He will succeed James Becker, Southern California Gas Co. Torrance manager, who has served during the past year.

At the same time, the Chamber directors accepted the resignation of Ray H. Reed as manager and named E. R. Beck of Harbor City to succeed him. Reed, who has retired as a newspaper publisher, resides on the Palos Verdes Peninsula and plans a trip to Hawaii soon with Mrs. Reed. The new manager is the owner of a service station in Harbor City.

Elected to serve with President Fitzer were Jake Jacobson, mortuary manager, first vice president; H. P. Osborne Jr., co-owner of a Lomita re-

Applications Show Increase

GI home loan applications increased from 1,700 in October to 1,761 in November, Mort Webster, VA's Southern California manager, reported today.

Appraisal requests for new homes decreased from 1,111 in October to 781 in November, and appraisal requests for existing homes decreased from 1,360 in October to 1,090 in November.

Chamber Sets Holiday Mixer For Afternoon

Plans for a Torrance Chamber of Commerce "Membership Mixer," to be held today, were announced by Charles Cederlof.

Cederlof, vice president of Glendale Federal Savings and Loan Association and membership chairman of the chamber, said the mixer will be held at the chamber offices, 1510 Cravens Ave.

Area Agency Seeking New Volunteers

Volunteer help to establish and direct a special volunteer program is needed by a local agency, according to Mrs. Jack C. O'Donnell, executive director of the Volunteer Bureau of the Harbor Area.

Most of the local service agencies cannot survive without help of volunteers, Mrs. O'Donnell explained, but at the same time volunteer help must be directed and used effectively.

Any person interested in devoting some time to the organization of a volunteer program is asked to contact Mrs. O'Donnell at 1427 S. Pacific Ave., San Pedro. The Volunteer Bureau is open Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 9 a.m. until noon.

Members of the chamber and their guests are invited to attend the holiday gathering, he said.

WITHDRAWALS FOR YEAR Torrance to Enter No Float in Rose Parade

Torrance will not enter a larger float for the 1968 parade. Many local firms budget funds for the float each year, he said, accrual of the funds will put the city in a position "to make a far better appearance" in the 1968 parade.

Contributions can be sent to the Torrance Chamber of Commerce at 1510 Cravens Ave. Checks should be made payable to the Torrance Tournament of Roses Association.

The parade, he explained, traditionally is limited to 60 floats. Six other cities probably will be eliminated from the 1968 event to make room for six new international entries.

Vroman explained the Torrance Tournament of Roses Association will solicit funds this year and place those funds in a trust to construct
