LITTLE LEAGUE

Regionals Approaching

Eight of the 19 Little League teams remaining in the tournament chase for the Western Regional title are from California. Two of them will compete in the regionals next week (Aug. 17, 18, and 19) at Sportsmen's Little League Tidewater Field in Inglewood.

Torrance Bowler Takes 2nd

Mike Seaver, of Torrance placed second in the final round of the Boys' Scratch division competition at the seventh annual BPAA All-America Youth Bowling Championships in Washington, D. C.

The event was sponsored by the Bowling Proprietors' Association of America and the Sports Bowling Council.

A total of 108 youngsters from 37 states competed for national youth bowling championships in three divisions—girls' handicap, boys' handicap and boys' scratch—and a total of $21,000 in college scholarships.

In order to comply with eligibility rules for state high school and college groups, the scholarships were awarded on the basis of both scholastic and bowling achievement, with 70 per cent of the emphasis on scholastic abilities.

Dodger Game To Benefit CYO Group

When the Dodgers play the Cincinnati Reds Wednesday, Aug. 23, at Dodger Stadium, it will be "CYO Dodger Night."

Reserved seats have been made available to the Catholic Youth Organization for sale at the regular price of $2.50 each.

CYO will receive all funds over 75 cents on each ticket sold in advance or approximately $4,375 if a sellout is reached.

Funds will be used for the agency's services to youth, according to Rev. William G. Hudson, CYO director.

Those interested in helping the cause, and at the same time enjoying a ball game, are asked to write "CYO Dodger Night" 1400 W. Ninth St., Los Angeles, Calif. 90015, sending check or money order to cover number of tickets desired.

YOUNGSTERS TO PLAY IN TOURNAMENT

More than 100 Torrance youngsters are expected to participate in the youth golf tournament at Sea Air Golf Course in Torrance Tuesday, Aug. 22, climaxing their participation in beginning golf lessons sponsored by the City of Torrance Recreation Department.

Golfers eligible for this year's tournament will be boys and girls who took six lessons of beginning golf at one of the Torrance parks or playgrounds.

Youngsters participating in the tournament must provide their own golf balls and an entry fee of 50 cents. Registration for the tournament will begin promptly at 9 a.m. at Sea Air Golf Course, 22730 Lupine Drive, on Tuesday, Aug. 22.

More than 900 of the original field of 1,452 leagues are from California. Surviving teams in the sudden death playoffs took part in eight sectional playoffs last week and the winners were Ravenswood Little League (East Palo Alto); Citrus Heights Little League (Citrus Heights, Vallejo); Union City Little League (Hayward); Southeastern Little League (San Diego); Northridge Little League (Northridge); Cypress Federal Little League (Norwalk); and San-Ri Little League (Rialto).

To remain in the running, each team has won from 6 to 8 games.

One of the teams, Cypress Federal, eliminated Westchester National Little League, District 36 finalist. The Norwalk team also beat Victory Park of Compton which had bounced Hawthorne National (District 37), 3 to 2.

After Rolling Hills (District 26) beat North Torrance East (District 27) in a 1-0 game, Rolling Hills went to San Diego for the Section 8 playoffs and lost to San Diego Cowles Mountain Little League, 3-2.

Cowles Mountain, lost to Southeastern San Diego, 5-1.

The New Mexico state title was won by Raton Little League with a 2-0 win over Silver City. Rain interrupted the championship contest Saturday, but by moving the teams and 1,000 spectators to the Roswell diamond to the outskirts of town, the game was finally brought to its conclusion.

Rain also postponed the Utah-Nevada playoff from Saturday to Monday of this week.

In the California Section 7 tournament at Rialto, Claremont National was upset by Yucaipa, 1-0. It was the only run along with only two hits given up by Claremont in six games.

Yucaipa, however, was beaten by San-Ri, 2-0, Saturday. Among the 35 Little Leagues in Hawaii, Wahiawa American Little League won the state crown and will compete this week in the Division 1 playoffs at Kirkland, Washington.

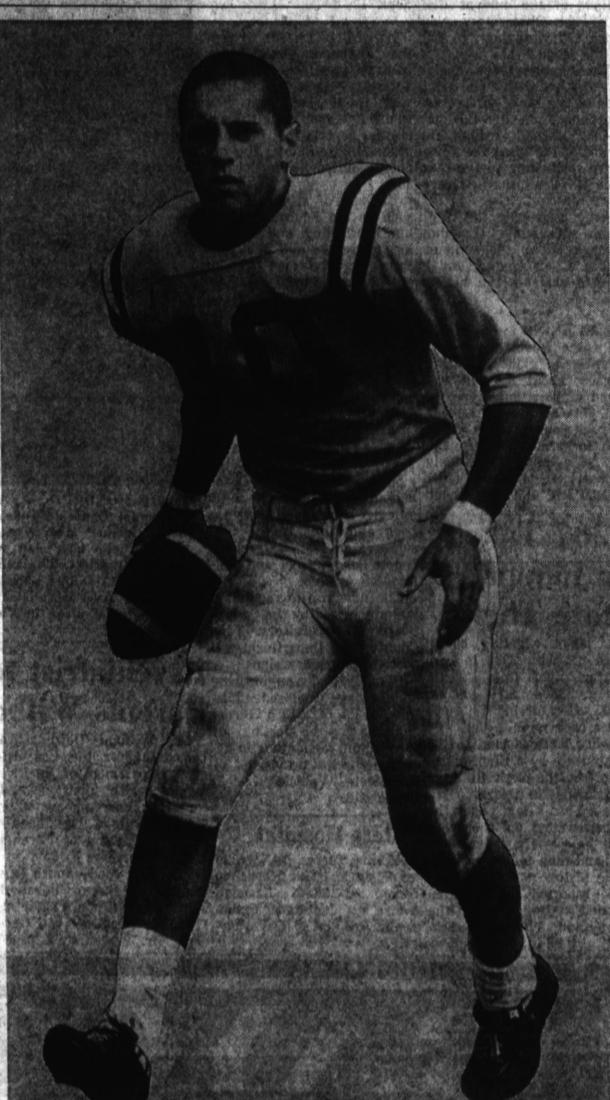

The other three divisionals are at Mountain View (northern California), Montclair (southern California), and Winslow, Arizona.

Winners will arrive at Los Angeles International Airport Monday (Aug. 14) between 1 p.m. and 2:30 p.m. for the regionals.

The players will be billeted in Inglewood with Little League families. The managers and coaches will stay at the New Orleans Hotel, tournament headquarters.

Jack Schroeder of Sportsman's Little League is in charge of field preparations. He said the ballpark is in excellent shape for the tournament.

A 32-page souvenir program has been prepared for the ball games. Judge Burch Donahue of Inglewood Municipal Court is in charge of the publication. Following the championship game on Saturday a banquet will be held at Morning-side High School under the organization of Irv Neff. The winner of the Western Regional will then leave at midnight on a flight for Williamsport, Pa., for the 21st annual World Series.

ALL-AMERICAN QUARTERBACK... Danny Graham of Bishop Montgomery High School will be at the helm for his second all-star prep football game tomorrow when the West Torrance Lions Club puts on its third charity game. Graham's West eleven is a 6-point underdog against the Gardens-Carson led East squad. The game will begin at 8:30 at El Camino Stadium. (Press-Herald Photo).

SWIM MEET TO BE HELD AT PLUNGE

Torrance will hold its first invitational swimming meet Saturday and Sunday, at the Victor E. Benstead Plunge beginning at 9 a.m. both mornings.

Approximately 400 participants from 12 cities in the Los Angeles area are expected to participate in the two days of competition along with the 55-member Torrance team.

In a recent tri-meet held at the Torrance Plunge, the Torrance team finished in first place ahead of San Fernando and Bell. They also placed second at two previous tri-meets.

In the SCMAF (Southern California Municipal Athletic Federation) Regionals held July 29, Torrance qualified for the finals to be held on Aug. 19. Twenty-six Torrance swimmers in 49 events will participate in the B and C divisions.

The schedule for Torrance's invitational meet will be as follows: Saturday—individual butterfly, breast stroke, distance free style and free style relays. Sunday—short free style, back stroke, individual medleys and medley relays.

Cooke Names New Member

Ralph A. Hart, chairman of the board of Heublein, Hartford, Conn., has been appointed to the board of directors of California Sports, Incorporated, which owns the Los Angeles Lakers of the NBA, the Los Angeles Kings of the NHL, the Los Angeles Wolves of the USA, the Springfield Kings of the AHL and is presently constructing The Forum, a $16 million sports facility in metropolitan Los Angeles. Jack Kent Cooke is owner of California Sports, Inc.

Stars Play Golf

A multitude of celebrities is expected to attend the first annual Alondra Park member-guest charity golf invitation Saturday and Sunday.

The tournament is under the sponsorship of the Alondra Park Men's Golf Club.

A $1,250 prize pool will go to the winning golfers. The entry fee is $15 for the 36-hole event.

Proceeds will go to the Anchors Guild of the Children's Hospital.

The first day will be best ball of the partners and the second day is the combined low net.

Football Game Set for TV

The Oakland Raiders pro football team will take on the Houston Oilers next Saturday in a game to be televised live and in color from Oakland at 8 p.m. on KTTV, Channel 11.

Calling all the color and excitement of the play-by-play for the football encounter will be Tom Kelly.

All-Stars Clash At El Camino

Sixty of the South Bay's outstanding high school football stars will be in the spotlight tomorrow night when the West Torrance Lions Club stages its third annual East-West Football Classic.

A crowd of more than 7,500 is expected for the game, which starts at 8:15 p.m. in El Camino College Stadium.

The East team, coached by Carson High's Gene Vollnogle, has been installed as a six-point favorite to win its first game in the midsummer classic's three-year history.

Don Banker, co-game chairman, said 15-minute quarters will prevail. To create an exciting climax to the game, the team behind by more than one touchdown in the fourth quarter will be the receiving team after scoring a touchdown. Two-point conversions will be allowed.

West Coach George Swade, who led Bishop Montgomery to an 11-1 season in 1966, finds himself in the rare role of the underdog. He has been staging closed practices in an effort to come up with a combination to derail the East powerhouse.

Stars in the East backfield figure to be Jim Bouton of Morningside, a team leader who is a threat both on the ground and in the air. Since the East is working out of Morningside's Split-T formation, Bouton should feel right at home.

Also expected to grab some of the East's limelight is Bob Bartlett of Carson High. All-Los Angeles City co-player of the year, Fullback Bartlett will be playing in his final prep game before entering UCLA this fall.

Over on the West, All-American Quarterback Danny Graham will spearhead the attack. The team will work from an I-formation.

Ed Gilles, Montgomery's crunching fullback, will provide plenty of assistance for teammate Graham in the West backfield. Rounding out the starting West foursome will be halfback Pat Hamman of Hawthorne and Randy Hayes of El Segundo.

Tickets for the contest will be sold at the gate. They are priced at $3 for adults and $1.50 for students. There are no reserved seats.

Proceeds from the game go to the Southwest Association for Retarded Children. In the previous years of the game, the West Torrance Lions Club has donated more than $11,000 to this cause.

The San Fernando Youth Band will perform at halftime, and Homecoming Queens from 11 South Bay High schools will assist in the pre-game and halftime ceremonies.

Schools which will staff the West include El Segundo, Aviation, Lennox, Inglewood, Hawthorne, West, South, Redondo, Lawndale, Mira Costa, Palos Verdes and Montgomery.
