

BE AN ANGEL AND LEND YOUR SUPPORT

The Angel Musicales, sponsored by the Peninsula Committee for the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, are currently getting attention from the committee, which is arranging to bring outstanding musical programs to the South Bay as benefits. Invitations will soon be in the mail to two exciting programs, one in October and the other in January. Meeting this week to work on the programs, committee members invite residents to "Be an Angel." They are from left, Mmes. Lorrin C. Tarlton, D. B. Robinson, Lee I. Cunningham and Edward S. Cleveland. (Press-Herald Photo)

For Philharmonic Orchestra

Angel Musicales Season To Open

Busily shining their angel's halos are members of the Angel Musicales committee, which will soon have invitations winging for the 1967-68 series sponsored by the Peninsula Committee for the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra.

As the main fund-raising subscription event of the year, efforts are concentrated to bring outstanding musical programs to the community, as well as aiding in the support and maintenance of the Philharmonic, according to Mrs. James C. Foley, president.

Two gala musical programs followed by luncheons, which have become known locally as the Angel Musicales, are planned for October and January at Galley West. Guest artists will be members of the Long Beach Civic Light Opera Company and also artists from the Los Angeles Philharmonic.

Chairman of the Angel Musicales series is Mrs. Lorrin C. Tarlton, Jr. Members of her committee include Mrs. Arthur G. Kiel and Mrs. Stanley D. Owen, program chairmen; Mrs. Edward S. Cleveland and Mrs. D. B. Robinson, decorations; Mrs. Richard A. Kramer, reservations; Mrs. Lee I. Cunningham, invitations; Mrs. W. Holmes Smith, hostess; and Mrs. John G. Foster, publicity.

At Los Verdes Country Club

Fashions to Spark Junior Club Champagne Brunch Sept. 30

"Flight into Fashion," a colorful and entertaining show presenting the latest in travel costumes, resort and swimwear, daytime and play clothes, plus exciting cocktail fashions and stunning evening gowns, is being planned by Mrs. John Thayer, third vice president of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club in cooperation with Miss Cyndy Streater, travel fashion consultant for Delta Air Lines.

This presentation will be a part of the Champagne Brunch planned by the Juniors for Saturday, Sept. 30 at 10:30 a.m. at the Los Verdes Country Club, Palos Verdes. Tickets will be available in early September, however, advance reservations can be made by calling Mrs. Thayer.

Highlighting the program will be the ever popular designs of several famous California designers such as Mr. Blackwell, Sydney North and Helen Rose.

In addition, colorful Caribbean styles from the unique workrooms of Jamaica and Puerto Rico will be featured.

In the current Delta collection is the entire wardrobe from the movie "In Like Flint" as well as the outstanding creations for Doris Day in her latest pictures "Caprice" and "Do not Disturb." Some of these gowns are valued and insured at over $4,000 each.

Committees in charge of tickets, decorations and door prizes are busy working to make "Flight into Fashion" an outstanding social event. Proceeds from this Fashion Show-Brunch will aid the Torrance Junior Woman's Club philanthropies which include Harbor General Hospital, Villa Contents Convalescent Home and Operation Headstart.

DREAMING OF FARAWAY PLACES

Junior Woman's Club committee members planning their "Flight Into Fashion" Champagne Brunch for Sept. 30 at the Los Verdes Club are studying travel magazines for ideas to dominate the event. Here, Mrs. Robert Wroman, left, in resort costume, shows luggage to Mrs. John Thayer, general chairman of the event, while Mrs. Leon Taylor looks over a travel book on England. Tickets for the event will go on sale after Sept. 1. (Press-Herald Photo)

Dianas Plan

Exotic Luau

Island attire will be the order for the evening when the Redondo Beach Dianas attend a Luau Party at the Palos Verdes Peninsula home of Mrs. Jerry Hebert on Aug. 26 at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Blake Stretton, chairman of the event, has announced that there will be a cocktail hour, followed by an exotic dinner served to the members. After dinner, there will be dancing in the atmosphere of Tiki torches, firepits and tropical surroundings.

Those members assisting Mrs. Stretton with the Luau are Mmes. Dino Ruffoni, Donald Condie, Gregory Grime, Raymond Williams, Wayne Smith and George Easton.

The Dianas are affiliated with the California Federation of Women's Clubs, Marina District, Junior Membership.

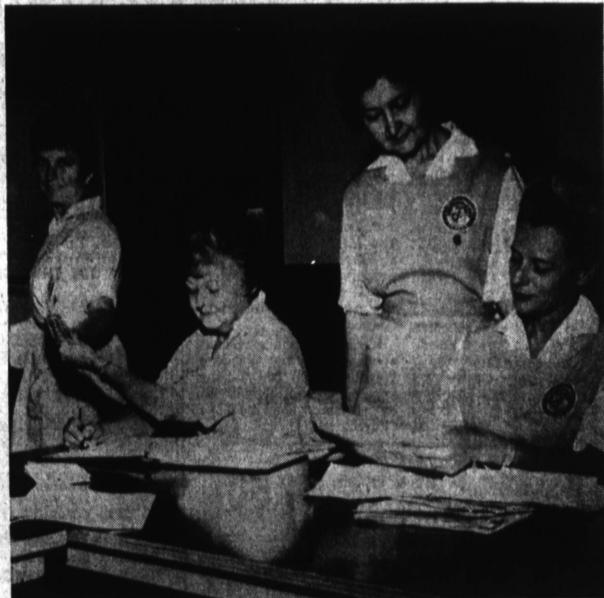

Hospital Auxiliary Completes

Follies Program

Behind the scenes work for presentation of the "Fractured Follies" by the Torrance Hospital Auxiliary on Oct. 13 and 14 at the Torrance High School auditorium is keeping auxiliary members busy during the summer months.

The advertisements for the program book have been sold and the book this week will go to the printers. Next month the call will be made for local talent and in late August or early October a New York producer will arrive to begin casting and rehearsals.

Proceeds from the production will be used by the auxiliary for the continued expansion of the diagnostic facilities including intensive care, laboratory, x-ray and emergency services at the hospital.

READY FOR THE PRESS

The program book for Torrance Hospital Auxiliary's "Fractured Follies," to be held Oct. 13 and 14 at the Torrance High School auditorium, is now being made ready for the printer by a busy committee. Checking out last minute details on the book are, from left, Mmes. Joseph Helphand, with advertising forms, John Phillips, checking the financial chart; John Popovich and Howard Walker, looking over an ad form. (Press-Herald Photo)
