

Gross-Kyle Marriage

Miss Shirley Ann Gross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. Gross of Sheboygan, Wis., walked down the aisle of the St. Anne's Catholic Church in Seal Beach on the arm of her father, to plight her marriage vows with Charles Terence Kyle. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Kyle of Seal Beach.

The wedding gown was of embroidered organza and was a floor length cape fashioned with a scoop neckline, and short cap sleeves. A floral headpiece of petals, outlined with seed pearls, held the shoulder length bridal veil. The bride carried a white lace-covered Bible topped with a bouquet of red roses.

The bridal entourage included Miss Lynn Sanders, maid of honor; Misses Geraldine Kyle, Joann Gross, Barbara Ellis and Mrs. Sue Laird, bridesmaids. They wore yellow organza cape gowns and carried bouquets of white daisies. Patricia Kyle, in a short yellow frock and carrying a basket of yellow and white daisies, was flower girl.

Best man duties were performed by Alfred Gauthier. Ushers were Edwin McCullagh, Brian Kyle, Michael Spatt, and John O'Dell.

Rev. G. Diamond officiated at the marriage and Gladys Anders was soloist.

The 150 guests greeted the newlyweds at a reception at the church hall.

The honeymoon was spent in Mexico and the new address is 124 1/2 8th St., Seal Beach.

Local Girls Assist At Officers Club

A discotheque becomes an officers club when the famous Ambassador Hotel, 3400 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles turns over its mod dine-and-dance spot, The Cave, for use as the Ambassador Officers Club III every Saturday afternoon, marking the third time around for the wartime entertainment activity.

General chairman is Mrs. Beverly Roman of Glendale, wife of Col. Maxwell Roman, USAF ret.

Local girls taking part in Ambassador Officers Club III, which is under the sponsorship of Stars and Bars, include Elizabeth Barchfield, Jackie Donata, and Judy Jordan, all of Torrance.
