

Las Madrecitas Announces Debutantes

To Make Bow

At the Evergreen Ball in December, Las Madrecitas, South Bay Auxiliary to the Crippled Children's Guild of Orthopaedic Hospital, will present members of Las Ninas, junior auxiliary, who have completed their hospital volunteer requirements and community service points. At the Mother-Daughter luncheon, at which the names of the presentees were announced, white debutante ball gowns were modeled. Laurie Hippe 16, modeling a gown is being admired by Kathy Shull 17, left and Kathy Burke 17, while Nancy Cunningham is taken with the ball gown worn by Bette Raymond 17.

In Social Whirl

In the weeks ahead, the 1967 Las Madrecitas debutantes will be caught up in a whirl of social activities that have been planned for them with the Evergreen Ball climaxing an exciting Fall season. Following the announcement luncheon for the girls and their mothers held at the home of Mrs. Floyd Hathaway, these debutantes gathered in the patio to enjoy punch as they chatted about their forthcoming activities. They are from left, Kellie Lyle 17, talking to Chris Novak 17, and in the foreground, Sara Mayhall 17, chats with Stephanie Sides 17. Two debutantes not pictured are Penny Gale and Nancy Cooksey. (Press-Herald Photos)

Las Vecinas Woman's Club

Begins 19th Year of Service Tomorrow

Las Vecinas Woman's Club will begin its 19th year of philanthropic activity in the South Bay area at a luncheon meeting tomorrow at the Palos Verdes Country Club at 11 a.m.

Mrs. Ray Anderson, membership chairman, will present new provisionals and Mrs. Don D. Malone, president, will conduct a business meeting.

The hospital volunteer programs, in which Las Vecinas participates will be discussed by two guest speakers, Mrs. Jean Maxwell of Harbor General Hospital whose topic will be "Occupational Therapy" and Mrs. Beverly Rosenfeldt, who will discuss the Medi-Cal and Medicare programs.

Las Vecinas, founded in 1948 by a group of Hollywood Riviera residents, now numbers 110 members from all over the South Bay. Besides sponsoring community projects, such as park beautification and library improvement, the club sponsors Girl Scout troops and has awarded scholarships to deserving students. Individual members also contribute many hours each month as volunteers at Harbor Hospital and the Del Amo Gardens Convalescent home.

Major fund-raising projects are the annual Pancake Breakfast and Carnival in the fall; and a Fashion Show Luncheon in the spring. The Pancake Breakfast will be held at El Retiro Park, Hollywood Riviera on Oct. 15 from 7:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. and will feature a Country Fair. Mmes. Mel Heflinger and E. R. Harvey are chairmen.

New officers to preside tomorrow are Mmes. Don D. Malone, president; Wallace Peterson and David Bagozzi, vice-presidents; Jack Reed, recording secretary; Robert Ellis, corresponding secretary; Richard Cass, treasurer; Ray Anderson, membership; John Perkins, philanthropy; Norman Watson, publicity; Marion Phillips, ways and means; and Mel Heflinger, parliamentarian.

Club meetings are held at the Palos Verdes Country Club on the second Thursday of each month at 11 a.m. Provisional membership is acquired through the sponsorship of a permanent member, however the club welcomes all inquiries and the president may be contacted for information.

Invitations are out to prospective and present members of the Torrance Woman's Club, CFWC Marina District 18, to a tea at the Clubhouse from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 20. Hostessing the affair will be members of the Executive Board with Mrs. Robert J. Winship, second vice-president, and Mrs. Bernard Gold, assistant membership chairman, in charge of the first event in a membership drive.

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

SEPTEMBER 13, 1967

B-1

Torrance Woman's Club

Membership Tea Sept. 20

The program for the afternoon has been arranged to acquaint prospective and new members with the civic, philanthropic and social aims of the Club.

Mrs. R. E. Moffitt, president, will welcome the guests and members and tell something of the history of the Club, one of the oldest in the South Bay having federated with the California Federation of Women's Clubs in 1921. Mrs. J. P. Bay will speak on the philanthropic projects; Mrs. John Tweedy on Federation; and Mrs. Richard Dorothy will outline the social activities for the coming year.

Tea will be served with Past Presidents presiding at the table.

The 1967-68 Club year will officially open on Oct. 4 with an outstanding professional program and a catered luncheon.

An Important Day

The first meeting of the new year for the Las Vecinas Woman's Club will be an important day for a large number of provisionals, who will be introduced to the membership. Talking over plans for tomorrow's meeting are, from left, Mrs. Fred J. Smith, provisional and Mrs. Ray Anderson, membership chairman while Mrs. Don D. Malone, president, pours coffee for another provisional, Mrs. Henry G. Smith.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Sertoma, La Sertoma

Present Exotic Luau Benefit

Colorful and authentic in every island detail, even to the ceremonial roasting of the pig, will be the lavish luau sponsored by the Sertoma and La Sertoma Clubs of Torrance on Sunday Sept. 17 at Latitude 20, 3901 W. Pacific Coast Highway from 3 to 9 p.m.

All funds will go to community service and charitable projects in the South Bay. Sertoma, coined from the phrase "Service to Mankind," gives assistance to the needy and handicapped, provides scholarships for students and presents recognition awards to youth for community service.

La Sertoma, chartered only a year ago, has completed several minor sponsorships in the area. Its long term project is assistance to Operation Head Start at Normont School in Harbor City.

Duane Marshall is president of Sertoma and Mrs. Barbara Mitchell is La Sertoma president.

Tickets for Sunday's benefit luau may be secured at Latitude 20 or from members of either sponsoring organization.

It's A Family Affair

Sunday's Lavish Luau, sponsored by Sertoma and La Sertoma Clubs has been planned for the whole family at Latitude 20 restaurant from 3 to 9 p.m. Proceeds will be used for the two clubs' charity projects in the South Bay. Anticipating the event are from left, Duane Marshall, Sertoma president, Jamie Wallace and John Pollard. Back row, the three Pollard daughters and Mrs. Audrey (Mike Eggers Photo)

