

Auxiliary Honors New Members

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

SEPTEMBER 17, 1967

B-1

New Hospital Lights Future For Auxiliary

"New Bids Added to the Torrance Hospital Auxiliary Bouquet" will set the theme for the Membership Luncheon to be given by the Auxiliary on Sept. 19 at the home of Mrs. C. D. Virden, 22803 Cypress Ave., Torrance.

In the receiving line, welcoming new members, will be Mrs. John Rice, president of the Auxiliary; Mrs. Jay R. Stroh, membership chairman; and Mrs. John Phillips, hospitality chairman.

Mrs. Stroh is in charge of luncheon arrangements.

"We have 120 members at present and our goal is to double our membership within the next two years as construction of our new hospital begins April, 1968," stated Mrs. Rice, auxiliary president.

Spotlight New Members

A Membership Luncheon Tuesday at the C. D. Virden home will welcome new members to the Torrance Hospital Auxiliary. Completing plans for the event are, from left, Mrs. Arch Boyd, new member, served punch by Mrs. Jay R. Stroh, membership chairman, as two other new members, Mmes. Al Florez and Daniel Murray talk over the party. (Press-Herald Photo)

Saw Europe--Loved It

Arriving today from a three weeks trip through Europe will be Mr. and Mrs. William Faulds, 22916 Juniper Ave.

elling through the Swiss Alps, they visited Liechtenstein en route to Innsbruck, Austria.

The couple left Torrance Aug. 27 and flew to London, where they visited the Palladium, Westminster Abbey, saw the changing of the guard at Buckingham, Trafalgar Square, and St. Paul's Cathedral.

Through Brenner Pass, the travelers crossed the Italian border and headed for Venice, Florence and on to Rome, and the Isle of Capri. In Rome, they visited former Torrance residents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Acampora, now living in Italy.

They saw the Grand Palace in Brussels and by car drove through Holland to Cologne, Germany for a cruise on the Rhine. In historic Heidelberg, they attended the Students Variety Show and continued on through the Black Forest to Lucerne, Switzerland. Trav-

Traveling the Riviera en route to Paris, the vacationers made stops in Monte Carlo, Nice, and Cannes. In Versailles, they were guests of Mr. Faulds' nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adams. Mr. Adams is with IBM in Paris.

From Paris, they are flying home.

FUN AT THE STADTKELLER

Mr. and Mrs. William Faulds, due home today from Europe, are pictured with Trudy Rorna, Swiss entertainer at the Stadtkeller in Lucerne. The Faulds were invited to participate in the show, which they did, and they send word from Lucerne that they will be in good shape for Torrance Hospital Auxiliary's "Fractured Follies" on their return.

School Daze Theme

Southview Chapter, B'nai B'rith, will stage its annual membership event Wednesday, Sept. 20 at 8 p.m. at the Bay Village Recreation room, 20530 Anza Ave. The "Story of B'nai B'rith," will be told in a skit presented by members dressed as animated dolls. Mrs. Harvey Herz, left, narrator, works with three members, Mmes. Robert Berman, an elf; Jack Katanick, Aunt Jemima, Ben Rosen, Tiny Tears, and Myron Feldman, Raggedy Ann. There will be a business meeting and social hour. (Press-Herald Photo)

GOP Women Open Year

Del Amo Republican Woman's Club Federated will begin a membership drive with a potluck luncheon on Thursday, Sept. 21 at the home of Mrs. Quinton C. Johnson, 5351 Carol Drive in Torrance.

Members of the Congressional District, are invited to attend the luncheon and become members of the club.

Goals of the club and its participation in the coming election year will be discussed.

Women of the South Bay, interested in the Republican Party and in this Congressional District, are invited to attend from 11:30 until 2 p.m.

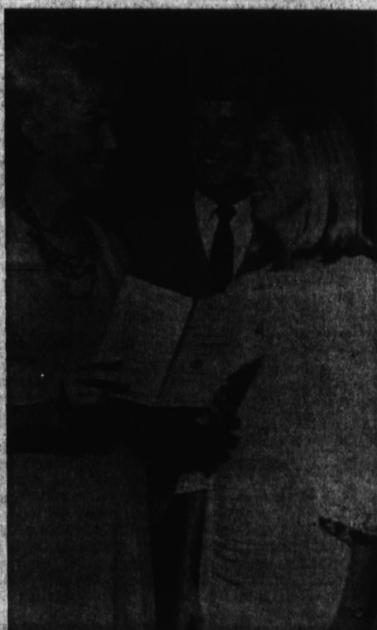

A nominal fee will be charged for the luncheon and those interested are asked to attend from 11:30 until 2 p.m.

New Teachers Honored at PTA Reception

THE HEAD START PROJECT

The 200 new teachers joining Torrance schools this month were honored at a reception last Wednesday given by the Torrance PTA Council. Here, Dr. J. H. Hull, superintendent of Torrance Schools, left, and Mrs. Perry Baker, right, Council president, discuss the PTA's involvement in the Head Start program with two new West High School teachers, from left Mmes. Grace Smith and Virginia Lindford.

GLORIES OF THE PAST

Mrs. Benjamin Hatfield, chairman for the New Teachers Reception, shows a pamphlet of past PTA accomplishments to two new teachers, Dick Nelson, a new member of the Casimir school faculty, and Miss Jesse Barstow, who began her duties at Madison school. (Press-Herald Photos)

GOALS OF THE PTA

Three new teachers, from left, Mary Ann Dowdy, at Flavian; John Braccia, Perry faculty member; and Lynn Robson, who began her teaching duties at Seaside, hear of the values of the Parent and Teacher Association at the District level, told to them by Mrs. L. K. Bright, president of the 33rd District PTA. Mrs. Bright was guest speaker for the afternoon.