

PTA The Torrance Council Way

COUNCIL
Torrance Council PTA will hold its annual Membership Drive, Monday, Oct. 2 through Friday, Oct. 6. "Membership Information Creates Action" is the theme for the 1967-68 year and Mrs. Robert Phillips is chairman in charge.

EVELYN CARR
A paper drive is scheduled for Oct. 5 and Membership enrollment will take place from Oct. 2 to Oct. 13.

Evelyn Carr board members held their annual Pink Tea on Sept. 22 to welcome new parents and acquaint them with teachers and board members.

The theme for the coming year is "Knowing the Ropes" and at the first association meeting Mrs. Neis Weberg accompanied by her son, Biff Weberg, presented a musical skit entitled: "Premiere of 67-68."

HICKORY
"A worthwhile trip is PTA, become a member, join Today," will be the theme of the Hickory PTA membership drive Oct. 2 through 6, as announced by Mrs. Gus Dalls, membership chairman at a recent board meeting.

Hickory PTA will join the Howard Wood PTA to form a Mothersingers group. For further information call Mrs. John Berliner.

A paper drive is being scheduled for November.

HILLSIDE
Hillside PTA will hold its annual membership drive, Oct. 2 through Oct. 6. This year the theme will be "Sail with S. S. Hillside" keeping with the theme of the year. "Keep Turning World, We Are Staying On," Mrs. Robert Moser, membership chairman, and Mrs. James Richardson, art chairman, will be working on posters and progress charts.

To help kick off the membership drive, the PTA hosted the group conferences on Sept. 28, at the school.

MADRONA
Races, games, slow-pitch, egg-tossing contests are part of the fun planned at the school-wide picnic at Waleria Park by the Madrona PTA, Sunday, Oct. 1 is the date. 12 o'clock noon is the time. Bring your own lunch. Mrs. Frank Paour, president of Madrona PTA, is chairman of the picnic.

LINCOLN
First on the agenda of activities for the Lincoln Elementary PTA will be the annual membership drive under the direction of Mrs. Harold Caswell, third vice president. "Climbing the Peak of Communication" will be the theme and "Mt. Lincoln" will be the goal. Membership growth during the drive from Oct. 2 through 6 will be depicted by small mountain climbers. Assisting Mrs. Caswell on the drive will be Mmes. Raymond Doyle, Adam Voelker and A. C. Bongiorno.

PHILIP MAGRUDER
"Rodeo Roundup" will be the theme of the Philip Magruder PTA membership enrollment. The annual drive, under the direction of co-chairmen Mmes. Jack Fulton and Rudy Flores, begins Oct. 2 and ends Friday, Oct. 6. Prizes will be given to the two classes with the highest percentages of new members.

An executive board meeting is scheduled for Oct. 5 at the home of the PTA president, Mrs. Donald Matson. Plans will be completed for the carnival on Oct. 20. Room hostesses will meet early in October to discuss and plan the three yearly parties, Halloween, Christmas and Valentine Day. Mrs. Jean Dasher will be in charge and Mr. C. R. Wallner will discuss school and district policy on room parties.

HOWARD WOOD
Mrs. Dave Jones, carnival chairman, announced the carnival committee will meet to complete plans for the Halloween Parade to be held before the carnival begins on Saturday, Oct. 28, at 10:30.

Mrs. Henry Schricker will be having a paper drive on Monday, Oct. 2 from 7:30 to 1 p.m. and anyone wishing to help is asked to contact Mrs. Schricker or any board member.

Mrs. Dwight Morrison and Mrs. Clarence Richardson, Jr. hosted the PTA Kindergarten Tea in September. Mrs. Carl Kildoo introduced the board members and told about the plans and projects of the PTA. Mr. Mark Littleford, principal, and Mr. Paul J. Harenaki, vice principal, gave an orientation on the school. Mrs. Meyers, school nurse, announced plans for a measles vaccination clinic to be held at the school.

Plans for the future include a garage sale with Mrs. Henry Schricker as chairman. Contact Mrs. Schricker for a pick-up or delivery date.

TORRANCE ELEMENTARY
"Happiness," will be the theme for the Torrance Elementary PTA Membership Drive to be held the week of Oct. 2 through 6. Mrs. Fred Robison is chairman of the Membership Drive.

There will be a paper drive on Thursday and Friday, Oct. 5 and 6.

TORRANCE HIGH
Mrs. J. Davis, Torrance High PTA president, announced the first Association meeting will be held on Oct. 4 in the High School Auditorium from 7 to 7:15 p.m. preceding the Back-to-School Night activities.

Mrs. Davis further stated that Torrance High PTA will co-sponsor, with the Adult Education Department, a lecture series, entitled "England and Spain Revisited," by William Sanford and Carleton Green. The series will be held in the high school auditorium on Mondays from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., starting Oct. 9 with "The Land and The People," Oct. 16, "Historical Perspectives," Oct. 23, "The Glamour Cities: London, Madrid, Seville," Oct. 30, "English Counties, Spanish Provinces."

NORTH HIGH
Winning class of the North High PTA Membership Drive will be given a PTA sponsored "Sco-Hop" during second period.

"Cooperation through Communication" will be the theme for the drive to be held Monday, Oct. 2 through Friday, Oct. 6 as announced by Mrs. Paul Challie and Mrs. Charles Pia, membership and co-membership chairman of North High PTA.

The North High Art Department will make posters to be displayed in each room for the Membership Drive.

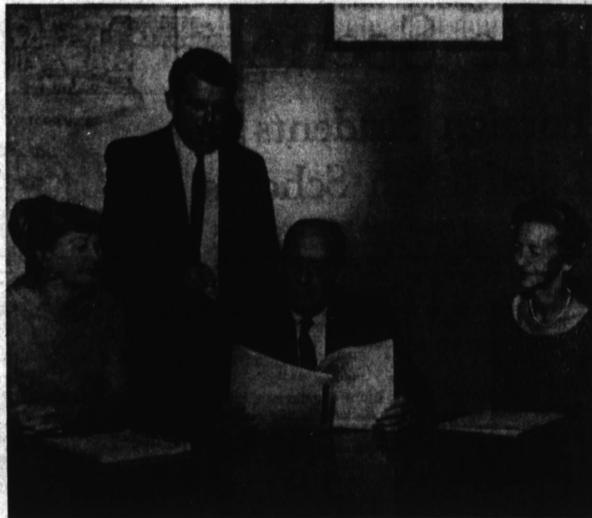

North High PTA concession stands will be in operation under the direction of Mrs. Ralph Peet at the Oct. 29 North High-Santa Ana Valley game at 8 p.m. and the Oct. 6 North High-Morningside game at 8 p.m.

Mrs. A. J. Stilwell, president, announced the ratification of Mrs. Andrew Foster, as chairman of the annual Freshman Mothers Tea held in April.

WEST HIGH
West High PTA has planned the program theme for the '67-68 year: "Parents Aware," with Mrs. Robert Mitchell, program chairman.

Open House will begin the school year on Oct. 17, with a student Council Panel participating at the Nov. 21 meeting. The Torrance Board of Education will have its monthly assemblage at West High Feb. 5. Representatives from colleges and the military will be present March 19 to advise on varied careers. Concluding the school year will be a review of Home Economics and Family Life Education on May 21.

The executive board will have its next meeting Tuesday, Oct. 10 at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. William Magaro, president. Mrs. John Ramirez was recently ratified as auditor.

EDUCATORS ON PANEL

"New Developments in Education" will be the topic for a panel discussion at the meeting of the Torrance Council PTA Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. at the Torrance Recreation Center. Panel members and their topics are, from left Mrs. Margaret Collin, curriculum consultant "Kindergarten Education"; Robert D. Allen, consultant, "Modern Developments in English"; Dr. Albert Posner, assistant superintendent, and moderator; and Mrs. Ralph Green, council representative. Others are Dr. W. B. Wagner, consultant, "New Courses in the High Schools"; and Dr. R. D. McDaniel, educational materials administrator, "Educational Media and Material — What is New?" The PTA membership is invited to hear the program. (Press-Herald Photo)

Busy Summer Enjoyed By Job's Bethel

Summer months were filled with activity for members of Bethel 36, International Order of Job's Daughters.

First there was a swim party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Atimion, the honored queen's grandparents.

Next the girls attended the Shrine North-South football game. The evening's activity began with a beautiful pageant by the Shriners and various other groups. The game was to raise money for the Shriners' Hospital for Crippled Children.

To wind up the summer activities, the girls went to Crestline for a week of bowling, miniature golf, visiting the arcade, and swimming.

Girls attending were: Nancy Stephenson, senior princess; Pat Cunerty, junior princess; Barbara Durian, guide; Carol Collins, marshal; Gayroy Rettberg, Joan Bouton, Gloria Dowden, Melanie Rickabaugh, Sue Verecke, Sharon and Nancy Putman, Debbie and Sharon Bloomhurst, Nancy Combs, Pam Maddaford, Kay Biehler, Cheryl Cleveland, Lois Deering, Nancee Hallahan, Kit Willette, Pam Jackson, Chris Eggum, Chris Cripe, Toni Stedman, Diane Durian, Lynn McCartney, Michele Martineau, Helen Dean, Renee Sotero, and Joan Pinkston.

Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Rickabaugh, Mrs. Pinkston, Mrs. Bloomhurst, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Collins.

To begin the fall activities the Bethel will have a Back to School dance for the girls and their friends. Guests will dance to records and refreshments will be served.

Col., Mrs. Fess Visiting Here

Col. and Mrs. Kenneth Fess, who are visiting relatives in Inglewood, before leaving for a three year assignment in Japan with the United States Air Force, have been visiting old friends in Torrance. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bever, Mrs. Rufus Paige and others.

Col. Fess, a native of Torrance, is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Fess, pioneer Torrance residents.

Rho Epsilon Model Meet Tomorrow

Rho Epsilon of Beta Sigma Phi will hold its Model Meeting tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. Paul Sengstock, Jr.

Highlight of the program will be a talk on "Self Estimate" by Rev. Aaron Eulich.

After the business meeting, guests will be given an opportunity to ask questions concerning the international organization and the chapter's activities.

On display will be the trophy for the achievement award and the chapter scrapbook, which won second place in the Ritual of Jewels category given by the South Bay Area Council.

Football Gala Planned By Stanford Club

Stanford Women's Club of Palos Verdes is making plans for a "Football Gala" to be held Saturday, Oct. 7. The event will kick-off a Champagne Party from 5 to 6:30 p.m. at the home of the Robert Graham's, 7 W. Ferncreek Dr. Rolling Hills. Stanfordites and friends will leave the Graham home by bus to attend the Stanford-USC game to be held at the Coliseum at 8 p.m. Box lunch will be provided and return bus trip to the Gramhams.

For further information, contact Mrs. R. Bruce Rhoades, 2805 Via Anita, Palos Verdes Estates.

At Convention In Riverside

Representing the Torrance Auxiliary to the Fire Department at the California State Fireman's Convention in Riverside last Wednesday were Mmes. Edward Simnich, president; Mark Anderson, first vice president; Bruce Smith, secretary, and Mac Oetting.

French Class For Children Opens at Y

A class for children, 8 to 12 years, in beginning conversational French is being offered by the Torrance YWCA on Saturday mornings starting Oct. 7 at 10 to 11 a.m. The class will meet for eight weeks on each Saturday.

The instructor, Miss Sally Shadle, is a French major and has just returned from a summer's study at a University in France, where conversational French was stressed. Miss Shadle has also had considerable experience in teaching children. The purpose of this class is to give children a basic knowledge of the French language before they have a chance to get it in school. Conversation and pronunciation of French sounds will be stressed. French songs and children's games will also be taught to make learning fun. A minimum of grammar will be taught.

The class will be limited in size in order to give as much individual help as possible. For the amount of the fee and registration for 8 one-hour lessons, the YWCA may be called.

Family Panel To Hear Talk On Macaroni

Cooking secrets of the macaroni products will be shared with members and guests of the Family Panel of America at the Wednesday, Oct. 4 meeting in the Community Room of the Western Federal Savings Bldg. in the Del Amo Financial Center from 10 a.m. until noon.

Angelo Guido, sales representative for the Anthony Spaghetti Co. in Los Angeles, will tell of the many varieties of macaroni products and how they are made. He will also give cooking hints on how to prepare the products correctly for the dinner table, stated Mrs. James Alcorn, Panel director for the South Bay.

It has also been announced that Mrs. Endow will present a line of cosmetics.

The Family Panel is a group of women interested in better consumer education, to become more intelligent shoppers. They are also given products monthly to test for the manufacturer.

The monthly panel meetings, held the first Wednesday of the month, are open to the public.

District Clubs Will Meet At Botanic Garden

Los Angeles Bay Harbor District of California Garden Clubs, Inc., will hold a general meeting at the South Coast Botanic Gardens Oct. 4. Business meeting will begin at 10 under the direction of District Chairman, Mrs. Jack Gates of the Silver Spur Garden Club.

Program entitled "Color Is Personal" will be presented by the vivacious and talented Mrs. John Matthews. Mrs. Matthews is the State Landscape Design Critic chairman.

Home From Europe Tour

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lougee, 1908 Reynosa Dr. and Mrs. Florence Childs, also of Torrance, have returned from a month vacation in Europe.

The trio visited in England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Sweden, Denmark, Holland and then to Paris, from where they flew home.

In Dorset, England, just out of London, they visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fisher, who had resided in Torrance for ten years, prior to moving to England two years ago.

University Women Will Hear Guest

Robert Minkus, retired architect and an inveterate traveler to Mexico, will address the South Bay University Women on Tuesday, Oct. 3. The program, "An Informal Tour with Archaeological Flavor," will be presented after refreshments at 7:45 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Joseph Meltzer, 2020 Mantis Ave., San Pedro.

Mr. Minkus has been traveling to Mexico for the past 40 years, has lived there for short periods of time, and is presently writing a book covering his studies in archaeology.

A short business meeting will be conducted by the president, Mrs. W. Richard Hughes, Torrance. Plans for the study on Australia and New Zealand will be discussed by Mrs. Gerald Giffin, Palos Verdes Peninsula, chairman of the International Relations Section.

Texas Vacation

Mrs. Del Heitzman has returned to her Torrance home after spending two weeks as guest of her sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Botkin in Harlingen, Texas.

BLIND TEEN GETS "FEEL OF FASHION"

Blind teen Linda Nolan, right, gets the "feel of fashion" with the help of, from left, Cher of the pop rock singing team of Sonny and Cher; Mrs. Ronald Reagan, wife of the Governor of California; and May Co., California high school fashion board member Barbara Woodard, at Seventeen Magazine's "Please DO Touch the Merchandise" show held in Beverly Hills. More than 200 blind Southern California teen guests at the event received programs swatched with leather and fabric, listened to rock 'n roll music and had the opportunity to "touch the merchandise" when sighted models walked among them.
