Delegates Will Attend Emblem Club Convention

Supreme Emblem Club of America will hold the annual convention at the Fantinbleau Hotel, Miami, Florida, Oct. 9 through 14. Delegates from the 423 Emblem clubs will convene in Miami for six days of meetings and workshops. Election of Supreme officers will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 11 and installation will take place Saturday, Oct. 14. A post convention tour to Jamaica is scheduled for Oct. 15 through 22. Five nights will be spent in Montego and two in Kingston. Conducted tours of the Island have been arranged for those making the trip. Mrs. William Wilhelm, president of Gardena Emblem club 257, will be accompanied to Miami by Mrs. Erwin Popp, past president of the club. Delegates elected to the convention at the Sept. 7 meeting were Mmes. Eldridge Upton, Maxwell Zeigler, and alternates, Mmes. Gemo Yakubovsky, Henry Straight and Hazel Spensley. At the September meeting charter members were honored. Of the one hundred and three charter members, sixteen were present. All past presidents of Club 257, were in attendance. Seven new members were initiated by the Charter President, Mrs. Lee T. Portis. Mrs. Portis is the state treasurer.
