COUNCIL
The Torrance Council of PTA Executive Board will meet Wednesday, Nov. 1, 9:30 a.m.

Mrs. Perry Baker, Council president, will have on her agenda the election of the Council Honorary Life committee, and the featured chairmen for the month will be, Mmes. R. Schruben, student welfare; James Morris, library; and Thomas Lemley, ways and means.

The annual Holiday Workshop held by the Torrance Council with unit participation will be held at the Torrance Recreation Center on Wednesday, Nov. 8, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. Also Thursday, Sept. 9, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Mrs. Thomas Lemley, ways and means chairman, is in charge of this event.

TORRANCE HIGH
Mrs. J. A. Davis, president of Torrance High School PTA, announced the next Association meeting will be held Nov. 1, in the Torrance High Girls' Gym. The subject covered this month is how and what your children are taught in the Health and Driver Training classes.

A special invitation is given to all parents of Sophomores, as their children will be offered this class sometime during this year, but everyone is cordially invited. To be better informed on just what your schools are teaching, YOU plan on attending.

Mrs. M. Love, membership chairman, was delighted to announce a very successful membership drive. Total members to date, 1307. The Senior class won the $50 prize for bringing in the most memberships.

YUKON
The Yukon Elementary PTA board will meet at 7:30 p.m. in the teachers' lounge at the school.

Plans for the group's entries in the Holiday Workshop to be held Nov. 8 and 9 will be completed. Mrs. James Henson is chairman.

EDISON
Mrs. Denny Haas is chairman of a committee which is making articles for the Torrance Council Holiday Workshop to be held Nov. 8 and 9, at Torrance Recreation Center.

Mrs. Kenneth Kuykendall, president, is attending the 33rd District all Conference to be held in Norwalk. Featured speaker will be the Rev. Daniel L. Fowler. The topic is "Leading the Way."

There will be an executive board meeting of Edison PTA Nov. 2 at 9:30 a.m. in the school cafeteria. There will be reports on the carnival and discussion of the paper drive and the toy loan project. A drive will be conducted at school the week of Nov. 6, for repairable toys, children's books, dolls, etc. The annual Paper Drive will be held Nov. 6 from 7 until 11 a.m.

Local Girls Pledge at Berkeley U

Sorority pledges at the University of California in Berkeley numbering 371 coeds were presented to their families and campus friends at the gala annual festivity known as "Pre-Sents."

As a gay finale to the activities of Fall Rush Week, the happy new pledges of the 20 sororities received the best wishes of the campus community at the traditional open house event held in their honor.

Among the honored pledges were Mary Louise Boughen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Boughen of 3115 Merrill Dr. in Torrance, a graduate of Torrance High who pledged Alpha Gamma Delta; and Susan Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Peterson of 5506 Paseo de Pablo, Torrance, a graduate of South High, who pledged Sigma Kappa.

Mrs. David Hagan, membership chairman, with Dr. rank Tyrrel, principal, presented prizes to Mrs. Thomas' Room 7 of the lower grade division and Mrs. Osman's Room 10 for the upper grade division.

PARKWAY
Two autumn events are being planned by the Parkway PTA. The first is the annual Faculty Tea to be held at the home of Mrs. Richard Jones, 305 Calle Mayor, Oct. 30, from 3 to 5 p.m.

There will be a Room Mothers' Coffee on Tuesday, Nov. 7, from 10 to 12 noon in the home of Mrs. John Spencer, 264 Via Linda Vista. Room mother representatives are planning the event.

CASIMIR
"Costume Capers at Casimir Carnival," is the theme announced by Mrs. Gene Fister and George Willis, co-chairmen of Casimir PTA's fall carnival on Nov. 3 from 5 to 9 p.m. Highlighting the evening will be a costume parade with prizes given to the funniest, prettiest, and most original. This year all new games are planned with an exciting new line of prizes.

Of special interest to the sixth, seventh, and eighth graders will be a drawing for "Curfew Prize." The student whose name is drawn must be home by 9:30 in order to win the prize. How about joining us for dinner and an evening of fun.

HOWARD WOOD
On Wednesday, Oct. 25, at 7:30 in the cafeteria of Howard Wood Elementary School, Officer Robinson of the Torrance Vice Squad, will present the movie, "Pit of Despair." Officer Robinson will give a talk on the use of narcotics and answer questions.

CARL STEELE
Officers of the Carl Steele PTA have been installed for the current year. They are Mrs. John Johnson, president; Mmes. Charles Albright, Dale Ward, Thomas Cunningham, and Edgar Wambolt, vice presidents; Mrs. Donald Sugden, secretary; Mrs. Vernon Carrig, treasurer; Mrs. Thomas Everett, historian; Mrs. Leslie Fullerton, auditor; Mrs. Thomas Lemley, parliamentarian.

St. Philomena's Plans Carnival This Afternoon

The annual Halloween carnival sponsored by St. Philomena School will be held today from 1 to 6 p.m. on the school grounds, 21900 S. Main St.

Events will include the children's costume parade at 1:30, games, booths, baked goods, and white elephant sales. Prizes will be awarded following the parade and presentation of a color television set and bicycle will be held.

Dinner, including Sloppy Joes, potato chips, baked beans, home-made pumpkin or apple pie with whipped cream, and coffee or punch, will be served from 2 until 5 p.m.

Tickets will be 75 cents for adults and 50 cents for children, according to Mrs. John McCarthy president of the Women's Council.

Goal Exceeded

Halldale School PTA is doing yeoman's service on behalf of the United Crusade. Mrs. Gene MacKay, United Crusade chairman of the Halldale PTA, and her 37 campaigners have canvassed the Halldale School area for funds to help 244 United Way agencies and 12 American Red Cross chapters in Los Angeles County. So far, the PTA has exceeded its collection goals.

HONORED AT DINNER
For her work in improving conditions for women prisoners, Capt. Ruth Johns (seated) received the 1967 Business Woman of the Year Resolution from the Business and Professional Women's Club of Torrance. Shown introducing Capt. Johns is Flora Hameetman. Capt. Ladies of the Elks Present Art Exhibit

Torrance Ladies of the Elks are presenting a premiere exhibit of "Portraits in Oil" by Marion Jones on Sunday, Nov. 5, from 1-6 p.m.

The exhibit will be held at the Elks Lodge, 1820 Abalone Ave., Torrance. It is open to the public and refreshments will be served.

Chairman for the exhibit committee is Mrs. Anthony Rembis. Other members of the committee are Mmes. Edward Ward, president; Harold Berry, Marvin Pike, and Curt Harmon.

Mrs. Jones is the wife of Marvin C. Jones, and has been a member of the Ladies of the Elks for the past eight years.

She was born in Greeley, Colo., graduated from high school in Aitua, Okla., and studied art at the University of Oklahoma. She has been employed as a Technical Illustrator by Douglas Aircraft, and as a designer of children's cards by the American Greeting Card Co. of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones have three daughters and have been residents of Torrance for 15 years. Mrs. Jones will have more than 40 canvases on display.

Elmo Millers Honored On 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. W. Elmo Miller, 1614 Cota Ave. were guests of honor at a dinner party in celebration of their 25th wedding anniversary. The party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Stokoe, 28315 Rothrock Dr., Palos Verdes Peninsula.

The Millers were married in Maine on Sept. 20, 1942. They spent the first few years of marriage there and came to California in 1945. They have been residents of Torrance for the past 18 years.

For the party, a three-tiered silver and white anniversary cake centered the dining table, flanked by silver candelers in antique crystal holders.

A toast to the anniversary celebrants was proposed by Mr. Miller's brother, Earl Miller of Long Beach.

A buffet supper was served and guests were seated at individual tables covered with linen and centered by single candelers.

Out-of-town guests here to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Miller were Mrs. Phyllis Campbell, San Diego; Miss Magda Lilly, West Los Angeles; H. Earl Miller, Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Merle McDowell, Long Beach; and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lund Sr. and son, Harry, of Selma.

Other guests attending were Dr. and Mrs. O. E. Fossun; Messrs. and Mmes. Walter A. Beecher, George Santo, Homer J. Harris, Eugene Norrad, Merritt E. Stokoe, Cary E. Stokoe, Gerald Campbell.

Also, Mmes. Mary Myerscough, Annie Collier and Mr. Charles Stokoe.

Mrs. Bridges To Speak At WSCS Meet

Women's Society of Christian Service of the Walteria Community Methodist Church invites the public to hear its guest speaker, Mrs. Henry Bridges, the former Mrs. Paul Carlson, at their meeting Tuesday, Oct. 24, at 8 p.m. in the church sanctuary.

Mrs. Bridges and her martyred husband Paul Carlson, were engaged in medical mission work in the Congo until he was slain by Congolese in 1964.

She will speak of the Congo and the projected future work of the Paul Carlson Foundation.

Refreshments will be served following the program.

Essay Winners

Winners of the Christopher Columbus Essay Contest sponsored by St. Gerard's Knight of Columbus Council No. 4919, Torrance, were: First Prize: ($30) Jim Stetson, Nativity School; Second Prize: ($20) Gretchen Carter, St. Catherine's, Redondo; Third Prize: ($10) Jane Simon, St. Catherine's. Besides the three winners, honorable mention, certificates were given to seven other contestants.

Halloween Goblins

The annual Halloween party of Court St. Catherine was held recently in the home of the Grant Regent, Mrs. Elles Cook. Witches, goblins, hippies, and even the "Monkees" were present to share in the gay festivities.

Costume Festivities

Members of Eta Kappa chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha honored their husbands Saturday night with a costume party in the home of Mrs. Michael Quadrato.

Las Vecinas Models Schedule Fashion Date

Members of the Las Vecinas Women's Club will have a head start in planning their holiday wardrobes when "Holiday Fashions from Helen Morgan" are presented at the Nov. 9 general meeting.

Following an 11 a.m. luncheon gathering at the Palos Verdes Country Club, Las Vecinas members will informally model a variety of sportswear and evening styles provided by the Helen Morgan Del Amo dress shop. Cocktail dresses and gowns for the Las Vecinas Christmas Ball will be a special feature.

Arrangements for the show are under the direction of Mrs. Robert Johnson, a former professional fashion coordinator. Commentary will be furnished by Mrs. Wallace Peterson, program chairman, and musical background by Mrs. Robert Padelford, club accompanist.

Las Vecinas models will include Mmes. Stephen Brixey, Richard Cass, Donald Edwards, Joseph Jay and Robert Johnson. More are Mmes. Robert Martin, Boyd O'Dell, Thomas O'Malley, Charles Sturgill, and Leslie Wheeler.

Russian Culture Study Prompts Menu Theme

An authentic Russian dinner is in store for the husbands of South Bay University Women's Club members on Saturday, Nov. 4. The dinner will take place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Shrier, 24221 Stanhurst, Lomita.

The theme for the dinner was chosen as a result of an intensive six month study of Russia by the international relations section led by Mrs. Marc Koplan. The group began its survey with an historical approach and brought it up to the present with an emphasis on the culture of Russia.

Husbands will be treated to such delicacies as fish pirozhky, mushroom with smetana, caviar, pozharshy chicken, and two kinds of borsch.
