The
Torrance Council Way

Mrs. Ralph Gring

COUNCIL
Participation in the TOY DRIVE sponsored by Torrance Council is still possible by bringing your new or repairable toys to Torrance City Parks or the Torrance Recreation Center, November 13th and 14th.

Mr. Joe Marmolejo, Juvenile Protection chairman of Torrance council announced the response has been wonderful, but many toys are needed at the Los Angeles Toy Loan Centers, and the Torrance Recreation Department has provided boxes in all Torrance City Parks for your convenience. The toys need not be new, just repairable.

TORRANCE ELEMENTARY
"Happiness is Thanksgiving," is the theme for the November PTA meeting to be held on Monday, November 13, at 7:30 p.m. Dr. A. N. Posner, Assistant Superintendent of the Torrance Unified School District, will be the guest speaker for the evening.

GRACE WRIGHT
One of the major topics of our day will be discussed at the monthly PTA meeting of the Grace Wright School, Wednesday, Nov. 15, at 7:30 p.m. A speaker from the Narcotics Bureau will present facts and figures of interest to parents and youngsters, and also show an LSD movie entitled, "Insight or Insanity." John Kirby, Torrance Police Department officer, will also be present to answer questions. Seventh and eighth grade students of Grace Wright School are welcome to attend, accompanied by a parent.

MADRONA
"New Methods and Materials" will be the program for the Madrona PTA meeting Thursday, November 16, featuring C. W. Newberry, principal and the faculty. First Grade Mothers will hostess.

NEWTON
Sheriff Peter J. Pitchess, in conjunction with the Torrance Unified School District, today announced the latest activity in his long-established program of maintaining working relationships with the schools, the parents and the police.

On November 16, 1967, 7:30 p.m. at Newton Elementary School, Inspector Harold B. Cramer and Captain Walter Allison will meet with the PTA to discuss the topic entitled, "Investigating the Generation Gap."

Inspector Cramer, of the Sheriff's personal staff, has a long and varied career in law enforcement and presently has the responsibility of coordinating the Community Relations program of the Sheriff's Department.

VICTOR
A Learning Festival sponsored by Victor PTA, is slated for Nov. 13 to 15. This program under the direction of Mrs. James Melcher, ways and means chairman, will present educational toys, with areas of interest to students of all ages. Mrs. Melcher will display these toys in the cafeteria between the hours of 2:30 to 4:30 each afternoon and also Monday and Wednesday between 8:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. Materials may be purchased with proceeds going to Victor PTA.

"His Interest in Athletics" will be the theme of the PTA meeting to be held Nov. 15 at 7:30 p.m. with Mrs. Harold Stout, presiding. Bob Murray, professional golfer will be the guest speaker.

ANZA
Anza PTA meeting will be held on November 16, at 7:30 p.m. in the cafeteria, presided over by Mrs. Julian Hart, president.

The guest speaker for the evening will be an officer from the Los Angeles County Sheriffs Department, Narcotics Division, who will speak after a film entitled "Insight or Insanity," is presented.

The annual paper drive is scheduled for December 5th at 9 a.m.

HAMILTON
Hamilton PTA will hold their annual Canned Food Drive Nov. 13 to 17, and will be distributed at Thanksgiving according to Mrs. C. W. Martin, chairman.

The week of November 6 to 10 was devoted to a Toy Drive, under the direction of Mrs. Loren Parker, for Toy Loan Centers throughout the area.

Mr. B. J. Vassar, principal of Hamilton School, will speak on the "Educationally Handicapped Program" and conduct a tour of these classes at the November PTA meeting at 10 a.m.

Featured chairmen for November are: Mmes. C. W. Martin, Child Welfare; and M. Kelly, Citizenship.

Founder's Day Fete Scheduled

The Palos Verdes Peninsula alumnae chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon, International Music Sorority, will recognize Founder's Day, Monday, Nov. 13, 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. H. W. Turney, 5354 Crestwind Drive, Palos Verdes Peninsula.

Special guests for the evening will be Dr. Robert Haag, member of the El Camino Junior College faculty, and Marshall Bialosky, head of the fine arts department, California State College, Dominguez Hills, and their wives.

Nursery Fund Benefit

Christmas festivities at the Redondo First Latter Day Saints Church begin early this year as the women's council prepares to stage its gala Christmas Bazaar.
